WEALTH AND TAXATION OF MASSACHUSETTS, 1925.

Total assessed valuation of real estate on April 1, 1925, in the 39 cities and 316 towns of Massachusetts, $5,560,636,090 ($311,007,183 more than in 1924) of which 61.64 per cent applied to buildings and 38.36 per cent to land; of personalty, $1,072,119,187; aggregate valuation, $6,632,755,277 (5.35 per cent increase over 1924) on which the total tax levy was $189,246,767, showing an average tax rate of $28.53 per $1,000. Boston's valuation ($1,862,799,900) equal to 40 per cent of all other valuations in the State.

Massachusetts ranks fifth in amount of Federal income tax paid, this total being $99,444,237 in year ended June 30, 1925. N. Y., Penn., Ill. and Mich. rank first, second, third and fourth.

Total taxes assessed by Mass. (exclusive of $12,000,000 State Tax on municipalities) in year 1925, $45,064,532, divided thus: Income tax, $16,742,791; business tax on domestic corporations, $10,345,057; same on foreign corporations, $3,049,507; inheritance tax, $6,064,517; franchise tax on 247 out of 374 public-service companies making returns, $3,184,641; on insurance premiums, etc., $2,653,564; on savings bank deposits (incl. Trust Co. Savings Depts.) $2,041,823; on national banks, $597,525; all other, $385,107. Total share value of all domestic corporations, $2,821,888,435.

Number of Mass. income tax returns received in 1925, $353,750; of which 221,473 were found taxable. Total taxable income reported in these for 1924 and assessed in 1925, $509,155,307, divided thus: Business income, $281,016,419; interest and dividends, $172,918,977; gains, $53,426,633; annuities, $1,793,278.

Total distribution of income tax to Mass. cities and towns in 1925, $15,701,802 ($1,729,380 more than in 1924) of which Boston's share was $3,970,047; distribution of business, public-service, etc., taxes, $12,907,822 of which Boston received $2,995,629. Number of business corporations taxed, 22,672 of which 2,461 were foreign.

Total property in State exempted from taxation in 1925, $1,188,768,668 (mostly real estate) divided thus: Public property of cities and towns, $492,969,770; of literary and scientific institutions, $216,661,100; of United States, $143,809,609; of churches, $118,580,281; of charitable and benevolent institutions, etc., $89,374,110; of State, $94,731,549; of counties, $15,901,098; cemeteries, etc., $8,716,509, all other, $8,021,642. In Boston, the total exempt property in 1925 was $374,601,292 or 31.51 per cent of all in Mass.

The total wealth in the United States on Jan. 1, 1923 as ascertained by the Federal Census Bureau, was $320,803,862,000 or $2,918 per capita. This is an apparent increase of 72.2 per cent in the 10 years since 1913. The value of real estate, with improvements, amounted to $155,908,625,000, not including public, ecclesiastical and institutional property exempt from taxation, which amounted to $20,505,819,000.

The increase in money value of other classes of property is largely due to the price inflation of recent years and should not be represented as a permanent increase in the quantity of wealth.

In Massachusetts the total wealth increased 106.7 per cent or from $6,279,266,000 in 1913 to $12,980,839,000 in 1923, the latter averaging $3,243 per capita.

PORT OF BOSTON.

Boston Harbor comprises an area of about 47 square miles, (exclusive of the islands) including all the expanse of tidewater within a straight line from Point Allerton to Point Shirley and extending therefrom to the mainland. It is the best of natural harbors, near open sea, sheltered and spacious for anchorage; main ship channel 35 feet in depth at mean low water, increasing to 40 feet from President Roads to open sea; new dredging operations in charge of U. S. engineers are under way for increasing depth of said main channel to 40 feet; waterfront (i.e., lineal pier space) 40 miles, 6 miles fronting on 30 feet depth at low water.

Commonwealth Pier No. 5, South Boston, 1,200 feet long, 400 feet wide, accommodating five 600-foot ships at one time, 40 feet depth at mean low water on both sides, with three 2-story fireproof buildings of steel and concrete construction, containing 900,000 square feet of floor space, total cost of this enterprise to State, $4,500,000. Commonwealth Pier No. 6, South Boston, (Fish Pier), buildings on same erected by lessee, Boston Fish Market Corporation, cost to State, $1,487,361. Commonwealth Pier, No. 1, East Boston, 900 feet long, costing State $764,600 for site and $426,674 for construction. New dry dock at South Boston, (probably the largest in world), completed in 1919, 1,200 feet long and 120 wide, costing $3,169,651 and taken by U. S. Government at total cost.

Islands in Boston Harbor over 3 acres in area, 17, with total area of 965 acres; Long Island the largest, or 215.5 acres. Owned by United States, 392 acres; by City of Boston, 334 acres. Number of wharves, 143, of which 8 are owned by the City.

There are 32 foreign steamship lines with regular sailings to and from Boston and 18 coastwise lines (5 to Pacific ports).

In 1915 a revision of the harbor lines was made and the project undertaken whereby 600 acres of flats between Governor's Island and Jeffries Point, will be filled in and used for extensive commercial developments under State control. About 175 acres of flats have recently been filled in and added to the land area of East Boston and 160 acres to that of South Boston.

In April, 1918, the Government decided to establish its Army Supply Base on a portion of the Commonwealth lands in South Boston. About 57.6 acres were purchased of the State, the price being $1,317,510, soon followed by the construction of two pier sheds, each 920 feet long, a wharf shed and other buildings, including one of the largest storehouses in the world, built of reinforced concrete, eight stories high, 1,638 feet long, 126 feet wide and with floor space of over 1,650,000 square feet. The total outlay for the plant was $26,000,000.

Total expenditures by State for improvement of Boston Harbor $22,160,342, from 1859 to 1925, inclusive; in the same period, there was expended additionally $843,676 on small channels; total Federal expenditure from 1790 to June 30, 1925, $13,046,044 (corrected figure).

Boston's total foreign trade for year 1925 ranked sixth among American ports, New York, Galveston, New Orleans, Seattle and San Francisco exceeding the former in value. As to imports alone, Boston ranked second, Seattle taking third place, and as to exports alone, 18th (the unusual decline in exports due largely to discrimination against Boston in through railroad freight rates). Tonnage of vessels in foreign trade in year 1925, entered 3,896,383; cleared, 2,457,605; number of vessels entered, 1,540; number cleared 1,082.

CITY CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chapter 448, Statute 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chapter 266, Statute 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chapter 486, Statute 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayors power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission, and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chapter 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in section 26. (2) Chapter 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in section 32; changing the requirement as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in section 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to section 54. (3) Chapter 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chapter 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor, and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chapter 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipi-pal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chapter 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chapter 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from November 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from January 1 to December 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years. (8) Chapter 136, Acts of 1925, increasing the number of signatures of registered voters required to nominate a candidate for election to the City Council. (9) Chapter 105, Acts of 1926, relative to nominations for municipal elective offices.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on November 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

MAYORS OF BOSTON.

In its 103 years of existence as a city Boston has had 36 elected Mayors and five ex-officio Acting Mayors. Of the 36 men who have held the office for one year or more, six were elected for other than consecutive terms and 25 were re-elected one or more times. Those born within the present limits of Boston numbered 21; in towns near Boston, 8; in neighboring New England States, 5; in Ireland, 2. The Mayor longest in office was Mayor Curley, who served 4 years ending February, 1918 and 3 years and 11 months, ending 1925. Next in length of service was Mayor Lincoln, serving 3 years ending 1860 and 4 years ending 1866. The first Mayor Quincy had the distinction of serving through six successive one-year terms ending 1828, and Mayor Fitzgerald also served 6 years but in two separated terms. Those who served 4 years were Mayors Prince, O'Brien, Matthews (third), Quincy, Hart and Peters. Mayor Collins was in office nearly 4 years, his death occurring 3½ months before his second term expired. Those serving 3 years were Mayors Otis, Eliot, Chapman (second), Quincy, Bigelow, Shurtleff and Cobb; 2 years, Mayors Wells, Lyman, Brimmer, Seaver, Smith, Rice, Wightman, Gaston, Pierce (22 months) and Hibbard; 1 year Mayors Phillips, Armstrong, Davis, Norcross, Green, Palmer, Martin and Curtis. The five Acting Mayors were Chairman (Board of Aldermen) Parker, Leavitt, Allen, Cutter and Whelton.

Mayor Otis was Speaker of Massachusetts House of Representatives, President of Senate, Representative in Congress also Senator before becoming Mayor. Mayor Armstrong was Lieutenant-Governor and at times Acting Governor before serving as Mayor. Mayors Rice and Gaston served 3 years and 1 year (respectively) as Governor after their terms as Mayor. Mayors Collins, Curley, Fitzgerald, Peters, Pierce and Rice have represented Boston in the lower house of Congress, Mayor Peters having also served as assistant secretary of the Treasury.

Ex-Mayor Curtis was appointed Police Commissioner in 1919 for term of five years but his service was terminated by his death in 1922. Ex-Mayor Quincy died in 1919, and Ex-Mayor Green in 1918. (See annual City Document, Municipal Register, for full list of Mayors from 1822 to 1925, with place and date of birth, years of service and date of death.)

APPROVES PUBLIC SUBSCRIPTION.

Mayor Nichols has extended to the Boston Chamber of Commerce his congratulations on its approval of the plan of taking up public subscriptions to be used as a prize to be given to the first trans-oceanic aviator who flies from Europe and lands in East Boston at the airport. Their approval and indorsement of this plan will aid materially in securing these funds.

With the arrival of an aviator at East Boston from across the water the airport will have an unusual aeronautical standing and will keep Boston in the foreground in aeronautics.

MAYOR NICHOLS PAYS TRIBUTE TO LATE JOHN J. HEFFERNAN, PRESIDENT OF CITY COUNCIL. FLAGS AT HALF-STAFF.

A special meeting of the City Council was held yesterday at 1 o'clock by order of Mayor Nichols to take action on the death of President John J. Heffernan.

The Mayor paid the following tribute to President Heffernan in his communication to the City Council:

It is my sad duty to inform you of the death of President John J. Heffernan of the City Council. President Heffernan was a most earnest student of the varied problems that related to the welfare of the City of Boston and gave the strongest indorsement to all questions touching the best interests of all our people.

He was a young man of splendid acumen, most exemplary character and of conspicuous devotion to public service.

He early gave evidence of a fine career as a member of the Boston bar. He was one of those young men who triumphed over all obstacles; a student of law after his regular day's work as an accountant had been completed. He was strong and self-reliant and of absolute trust in every public and private duty. I found him both an excellent counselor and a devoted friend. He was a most devoted husband, father and son.

Upon occasions when I have been absent from the city President Heffernan served as acting Mayor with fine dignity, excellent expression of the city's interest and with magnetic and personal charm.

As a mark of further respect I have this day ordered all flags upon municipal buildings, parks and playgrounds to be lowered to half-staff.

I extend my profound assurance of sympathy and condolence to Mrs. Heffernan and the family of the late President of the City Council.

"They are not dead who live in the hearts they leave behind."

Sincerely yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

The funeral of President John J. Heffernan of the Boston City Council, who died early Thursday morning at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, was held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, with a requiem mass at St. Columbkille's Church, Brighton. The cortege started from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myles F. Heffernan, 4 Sparhawk street, at 9 o'clock. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

MAYOR'S TRIBUTE.

President Heffernan's death followed an operation for appendicitis, with which he was stricken Friday a week ago. After he was apparently on the road to recovery, complications set in which resulted fatally. Mr. Heffernan was only thirty-four years old and his successful career gave every indication of a steady rise. He made his home at 6 Mapleton street, Brighton.

LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Dorchester and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Carlotta street, bounded:

Southeasterly by easement taken by the City of Boston for sewerage purposes April 26, 1898, seven and 98-100 feet; southwesterly by another part of Carlotta street, eighty-one and 41-100 feet; northwesterly by the same six feet; and northeasterly by the same, seventy-six and 15-100 feet, containing four hundred and seventy-three square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 97 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above described premises.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on the southwesterly side of Carlotta street, excluding the lot at the southwesterly corner of Centre and Carlotta streets, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered, each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 778, Sewerage Works, Carlotta Street, Dorchester, June 13, 1927, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

BOSTON TAX RATE FOR 1927—
$30 PER THOUSAND.

The tax rate of $30 as announced by Mayor Nichols on August 24 for the fiscal year 1927 represents a reduction of $1.80 from the tax rate of 1926. This reduction is the first marked downward movement in the tax rate of Boston since 1899, when a reduction of 50 cents ($13.60 to $13.10) was made, and is the largest to be made in Boston's tax rate since 1885, when the rate was reduced $4.20, or from $17 to $12.80.

Mayor Nichols commented on the $30 rate as follows:

This reduction of $1.80 is due to reduced expenditures, to increased revenues and to the smallest increase in valuations since 1921.

The veto of a 1928 school surplus, which the Mayor and two minority members of the school board said did not belong in the 1927 budget, cut the rate over 10 cents.

An analysis of items entering into city maintenance discloses that savings of approximately $400,000 have been realized in 1927 in the hire of teams and trucks from outside contractors, in the purchase of motor equipment for the Fire and Public Works Departments, and in the amount of the special 10 per cent tax which in recent years has been levied in connection with loans issued outside of the debt limit of the city.

Part of the reduction in city maintenance is due to a curtailment in the pay-as-you-go policy in street reconstruction, which the city was forced to make as a result of the reduction made by the Legislature in the tax limit request of the city. The reduced tax limit allowed little for street repairs. In recognition of the pressing need for street repairs a loan of $500,000 was made available.

An increase of close to half a million dollars in city debt requirements may be attributed to several factors largely beyond the control of the Mayor. The tendency on the part of the Legislature to shorten the term of municipal loans, the large amounts borrowed in recent years outside the debt limit of the city, for street widenings and for other items of permanent nature, have made it necessary to provide additional appropriations to meet debt requirements.

School maintenance requirements, as finally fixed by the School Committee, show an increase of approximately $641,000 over similar requirements in the previous year, despite the cut of $200,000 caused by the Mayor's veto.

Chapter 314 of the Acts of 1926 authorized the School Committee to appropriate within the years 1926 to 1929, inclusive, $10,000,000 for additional land and new school buildings. Under the provisions of the act the amount to be included in the tax levy of each of the four years was fixed within certain minimum and maximum limits. The minimum fixed for 1927 was $3,500,000 and, since, in the opinion of the School-house Department, this amount represents the limit of possible expenditures by the department during the year, this figure rather than the maximum authorized by law ($4,000,000) was included in the tax levy for 1927.

Under the provisions of the Boston Retirement Act, an amount known as the Pension Accumulation Fund must be appropriated each year to meet known liabilities and to provide a reserve for the retirement of city and county employees. The requirements for the current year, as determined by the Retirement Board, are $72,000 in excess of the requirements of 1926. This excess is entirely beyond the control of the Mayor, since it is determined under statutory provisions by actuarial experts.

Despite the fact that our share of the state tax in 1927 remains the same as that in 1926, the tax warrants received from the state this year show an increase of approximately $365,000 over those of the previous year. This excess may be allocated directly to three items coming within the control of the Metropolitan District Commission. Appropriations during the current year for metropolitan park purposes total $1,225,789.21, and are approximately $30,000 in excess of similar appropriations in 1926. Boston's share of the cost of construction of the River Street Bridge, extending over the Charles river between Brighton and Cambridge, has been fixed at approximately $140,000 and is included in this year's tax levy. Under the terms of the act authorizing the construction of the Southern Traffic Artery there is included in this year's tax levy approximately $260,000, representing Boston's share of the first year's cost of construction of this highway. Boston as the center of the metropolitan district is each year called upon to levy increased amounts for improvements within the metropolitan area. Whether Boston's share of the benefits which may be said to accrue from these improvements is in direct proportion to the share of the expense which it bears is a matter of conjecture.

Included under the heading of revenue are the following items:

Estimated income of city departments, surplus cash on hand at the beginning of the year, estimated school income and surplus, corporation taxes received from the state, the city's share of the state income tax, and poll taxes. In 1926 these items totalled $10,927,761.06. The corresponding total for 1927 is $11,985,454.70.

The total valuation of the city, as determined by the assessors, for 1926, was $1,898,054,900. This valuation was made up as follows:

Real estate.....	$1,728,305,200
Personal property.....	169,749,700

The valuation of the city for 1927, as determined by the assessors, is $1,931,431,200. A segregation of this total is shown in the following table:

Real estate.....	$1,762,846,700
Personal property.....	168,584,500

From these figures it is apparent that the increases in valuation secured by the assessors for 1927 amount to $33,376,300. This increase is the smallest increase since 1921.

Very often reduced tax rates are secured largely by forced increases in assessed valuations. A reduction in the tax rate combined with a forced increase in valuations brings no worthwhile benefit to the taxpayer, since the net saving reflected on his tax bill is negligible. It is only when the forces of decreased expenditures and increased revenue are combined with justifiable increases in valuations that actual savings will accrue the tax rate.

MAYOR NICHOLS MAKES ADDRESS AT CORNERSTONE LAYING OF B. F. KEITH MEMORIAL THEATER.

Mayor Nichols delivered the following address at the exercises held on the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone of the B. F. Keith Memorial Theater, Thursday morning, August 25, at 11 a. m.:

DEAR FRIENDS,—It was assuredly a most beautiful and inspiring message that the leaders of the vaudeville profession of the United States presented to our genial friend, Mr. Edward F. Albee, when they voluntarily stated their desire to come to Boston and under their kindly auspices lay the cornerstone of the memorial theater of imposing grandeur and architecture which will be erected upon this site, in honor of one of Boston's first and dearly beloved citizens, the late Benjamin Franklin Keith.

As Mayor of the City of Boston I have both the honor and pleasure to extend you, individually and mutually, the hearty greeting and welcome of our municipality and to express to you how greatly I appreciate your tribute of love and devotion to the memory of Mr. Keith by coming to Boston to honor this noteworthy ceremony.

Mr. Keith had a great faith in the City of Boston; here he began his devoted labors with Mr. Edward F. Albee, as the dean of American vaudeville and by his insistence that performance of merit and cleanliness must always be presented, has provided ways and means for the entertainment of millions.

No man has ever accomplished more for the entertainment of women and children than the late Mr. Keith and he bore the love and affection of the people of Greater Boston, whom he served with the utmost loyalty and friendship.

Mr. Keith had the heart and mind of true greatness and his charity and benefactions will ever hold his name in Boston in the most loving remembrance.

Mr. Albee, Mrs. Cheney, Mr. Cohan and Mr. Chesterfield can illustrate to you, from more intimate knowledge than I personally possess, the untiring labors of the late Mr. Keith for the welfare and happiness of the members of the vaudeville profession. He was always first to think of every kindly consideration for the members of the profession, upon which the Keith structures must rest in their success, and his theaters throughout the country are a magnificent monument to a great Bostonian.

Dear friends, I realize that any tribute to the memory of Mr. Keith remains unfinished which fails to pay tribute to Mr. Edward F. Albee, happily with us today, the devoted associate and counselor of Mr. Keith through many happy years, and today his successor, in the presentation of vaudeville performances which for genuine merit and artistry fascinate and delight the American people.

He is ever as true in every private and public act as the needle to the polestar and his years of constant labor in behalf of the members of the vaudeville profession from the finest character of monument to his faith and industry. The beautiful home of the National Vaudeville Artists, Inc., in New York, is a rare and lasting evidence of his genius.

Dear Mr. Albee, that every happiness and good fortune attend you is the tribute of our minds and hearts.

Dear friends, I have the honor and pleasure to present Mr. Henry Chesterfield, secretary of the National Vaudeville Artists, Inc., your devoted emissary, as the chairman of these inspiring ceremonies.

PRAISES TEST MAIL DELIVERIES AT SEA.

Mayor Nichols, on August 20, sent the following letter via air mail to Captain Herbert Hartley, U. S. N. R. N., commander of the steamship "Leviathan," in recognition of the first attempt to land air mail aboard an ocean liner bound for Europe when it is quite a distance at sea.

CAPT. HERBERT HARTLEY, U. S. N. R. N., Steamship "Leviathan," at Sea.

DEAR CAPTAIN HARTLEY,—I take pleasure in writing you relative to the proposed flight of Lieut. Clarence H. Schildhauer, when he plans to leave the United States Naval Air Station at Squantum, in Boston Harbor, early tomorrow morning, with two one-hundred pound sacks of mail to be delivered to the steamship "Leviathan," which will be several hundred miles at sea.

When these tests have proven that the expedition of foreign mails can be handled in this manner Europe will be still closer to the United States.

The inauguration of a regular air mail service to steamships bound for Europe will give the business establishments of Boston an additional day in correspondence and there is no question that many business organizations having foreign mail will avail themselves of this new use of the mails to their great advantage.

As Boston is one steamer day nearer Europe than New York City it is logical that our city should be the one selected by the Navy Department and the Post Office Department for this experiment for future operations.

The recent test of Clarence Chamberlin in flying from the deck of the "Leviathan" paves the way in the near future for a two-way service of mail by airplane to and from ocean liners.

With the same development on the other side of the Atlantic Ocean the speedy handling of the mails from ocean liners at sea to the mainland will effect a minimum of time in transit reaching to a high point of expediency and efficiency.

I send to you and your associates on the "Leviathan" my own and the warmest compliments of the City of Boston.

With every good wish for a pleasant voyage, I am,

Sincerely yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Capt. Edward N. Montgomery, Hosemen Thomas E. Morrison and Thomas E. Keenan of Engine Company 31, are commended for the meritorious manner in which they rescued John E. Corcoran from drowning after he had fallen into Boston Harbor from Pier 42, Hoosac Docks, August 11, 1927.

The Fire Commissioner was pleased to receive the following letter from the Waldorf System, Inc., 169 High street, Boston, which is published for the information of the department:

Boston, August 16, 1927.

MR. EUGENE C. HULTMAN, Commissioner,
Boston Fire Department, 60 Bristol Street, Boston.

DEAR SIR,—The writer wishes to take this opportunity on behalf of Waldorf System, Inc., to thank your men for the very efficient work which they did in our laundry at 165 and 167 High street on the evening of Saturday, August 13.

In the first place, it was the firemen themselves who discovered the blaze and at a minimum amount of damage they very effectively extinguished it. The fire itself took place in a dry tumbler and not even the motor was damaged through chemical or water, and I am informed through our superintendents that they were most careful to do their work with as little loss as possible.

It was certainly a meritorious performance and one which we greatly appreciate.

Very truly yours,

WALDORF SYSTEM, INC.,

by R. C. ADCOCK,

Division Manager.

Assistant Apparatus Operator Cornelius J. Sullivan of Engine Company 3, Hoseman Patrick H. Murphy and Charles A. O'Dowd of Engine Company 35 are hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 1615, Sunday, August 14, 1927, while off duty.

By order of Fire Commissioner E. C. Hultman.

HENRY A. FOX,

Acting Chief of Department.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7 (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the New Style calendar in 1752 to September 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

MAYOR WARNS CITIZENS AGAINST LIABILITY TO DIPHTHERIA.

Mayor Nichols issued the following statement on August 30 regarding the increase in diphtheria:

According to the reports which I have received from the Health Department I note that there is an increase during the past seven months of 1927 as compared with the same period of the previous year. Statistics show that there is a greater proportionate increase all over the United States.

The Health Department of the City of Boston has well organized plans for the prevention of this disease and it is disappointed to observe this increase. The injection of a harmless fluid resulting in almost every instance in the establishment of immunity makes it possible for every parent to protect their children against diphtheria.

I earnestly urge all parents to take their children to their family physician for immunization or to one of the thirty weekly clinics which are conducted by the Health Department of the City of Boston. The locations and the days that the clinics are held are listed herewith:

Allston-Brighton.—Id Town Hall, Washington street, Wednesday; 31 Lincoln street, Thursday.

Charlestown.—Corner Lexington and Bunker Hill streets, Monday and Wednesday.

Dorchester.—Codman Square Library Building, Monday and Wednesday; Columbia Road Municipal Building, Monday and Wednesday; 1 Arcadia street, Tuesday and Thursday.

East Boston.—57 Paris street, Monday and Thursday.

Hyde Park.—Hyde Park Municipal Building, Monday.

Jamaica Plain.—Curtis Hall, Wednesday.

North End.—41 North Margin street, Tuesday and Thursday.

Roslindale.—Roslindale Municipal Building, Monday.

Roxbury.—Beth Israel Hospital, Thursday; Children's Hospital, Tuesday; 1049 Columbus avenue, Tuesday and Thursday; Vine Street Municipal Building, Monday and Thursday.

South Boston.—133 Dorchester street, Tuesday and Thursday.

South End.—Shawmut Avenue Municipal Building, Wednesday; 122 Tyler street, Tuesday; 57 East Concord street, Thursday.

West End.—17 Blossom street, Monday and Thursday.

There is no immediate danger existing but an ounce of prevention is always worth a pound of cure.

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE ASKED TO AID IN SECURING SEGREGATED BUDGET FOR SCHOOL SYSTEM.

Mayor Nichols announced on August 31 that he sent the following communication to Stephen W. Sleeper, president of the Boston Real Estate Exchange, urging the Boston Real Estate Exchange to take up with the Finance Commission and the School Committee the form of School Committee budget.

Recently you expressed satisfaction in the reduced tax rate for 1927 and a wish to examine the departmental estimates for 1928 upon which the Mayor's budget will soon be made up. I was, of course, glad to grant your wish.

I have been gratified to find that the Boston Real Estate Exchange recognizes the bearing of many factors in the tax rate beyond the Mayor's budget. One of them is the school budget over which the Mayor has no control except for his veto.

The present policy of the School Committee which provides for an annual surplus for use the following year has been severely criticized even by members of the committee. It is true these members are in the minority, but I feel that they are entitled to your support as well as my own in an effort to change this questionable policy.

I have on two occasions this year in veto messages directed the attention of the School Committee to its indefensible surplus, and have thereby forced a reduction in such surplus by $200,000 with a resulting reduction this year in the city tax rate of over ten cents.

Compare, if you will, the increase of school maintenance this year with the decrease in other departmental maintenance. Ask why school maintenance shows an alarming growth while school attendance remains about the same. If there is justification in mounting costs, it must come by some system of careful analysis now utterly lacking.

This year as in the past, a School Committee surplus was created for unascertained purposes covered by the broad title of "School Expansion." There is no possible analysis of this term. It does not even appear in the School Committee budget, nor are other titles in this budget sufficiently expressive to indicate clearly the precise nature of school expenditures. There is not the benefit of the comparative costs for three years as appears in the budget for other city and county departments.

The Boston Real Estate Exchange is showing a commendable interest in the Mayor's budget which covers other city departments. The Mayor's budget is in segregated form. That is, its purposes are closely itemized. That is why it can easily be analyzed and subjected to discussion. The Mayor's budget, in fact, may be described as the most microscopic municipal budget in America and on the contrary the School Committee budget may be described as the most telescopic budget in the world. It seems incredible that the Boston schools should present a financial puzzle impossible of solution. I do not believe the majority members of the School Committee would find it so if they would proceed with courage to reform their school budget. Already school maintenance is one third of the city total. In a few years if unchecked it will be one half.

You asked me in a letter a short while ago to get the Finance Commission going upon a school investigation and I did so.

This expert study may have considerable value, but it will probably have little to do with the share taken by the School budget in the city tax rate for 1928. Still, this expert study might have much to do with the 1928 tax rate if by means of the study we could get the School budget on a correct segregated basis like the Mayor's budget. It could then be intelligently examined for a proper understanding of the cost of various school functions.

With this thought in mind I have sent to the Finance Commission communications urging the commission to take up the School Committee budget. Years ago the Finance Commission was useful in helping to establish the Mayor's segregated budget. It could now aptly and logically turn toward the schools.

Let us help the Finance Commission help the School Committee in this constructive endeavor. The Mayor has cut down the school surplus this year and is urging budget reforms as the best way of throwing light upon huge and insufficiently explained school costs. The Boston Real Estate Exchange should now follow the action of the Mayor by holding conferences with the School Committee and the Finance Commission and throw its influence toward the establishment of a School Committee budget which shall be the foundation of sane and practical school measures.

Yours very truly,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

SENDS FIRST PACKAGE BY AIR MAIL.

Mayor Nichols on September 1 in the inauguration of the first trip of the air express to leave Boston sent his first package by air express to Hon. James Rolph, Jr., of San Francisco, Cal. The package carried the new air express stickers of the American Railway Express Company and was presented to William A. Morris, the City Manager of the Boston Division of the Express Company.

Mr. Morris drove up to City Hall in the brand-new truck especially designed for air express and the package was handed over in the presence of several hundred people.

The package contained the Boston Year Book and on the fly leaf Mayor Nichols had written the following:

September 1.

To JAMES ROLPH, JR., Mayor of San Francisco.

DEAR MAYOR ROLPH,—I take great pleasure in sending to you by the first air express plane from Boston a copy of our Year Book. It is my hope that this new industry will soon be followed by the establishment of a great northern air route from this city to your own.

With kind regards,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

In the remarks made in delivering the package attention was called to the fact that the Mayor was extremely interested in the inauguration of this express service and was one step nearer the establishment of the northern air route which the Mayor proposed several months ago. It will be recalled that the Mayor has received the support of many of the chief executives of other large cities on this plan. When the northern route is established the time between Boston and San Francisco would be even less than at present.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 53.

I. PAINT SPRAYING AND SPRAY BOOTHS.

The Boston Board of Fire Underwriters has furnished this department with copies of its requirements relative to paint spraying and spray booths. As there are no regulations established by the State Fire Marshal these requirements have the approval of the Fire Commissioner. Copies are to be furnished district and deputy chiefs and district chiefs will inspect all buildings in their respective districts where paint spraying is being done, and where necessary, urge their adoption. Each inspection will be accompanied by a report of conditions found and results obtained.

Deputy chiefs will, as far as possible, supervise the inspections.

II. ASCERTAINING CAUSE OF FIRES.

In view of the large number of fires being reported as "unknown" deputy and district chiefs and company officers in charge of fires must devote more time and care in ascertaining the causes.

Hereafter, in all cases where "waste combustible material" is a contributing cause to fire, this fact must be reported in the Fire Report together with the actual cause of the fire; e. g., "careless use of match—thrown in rubbish."

III. RE-NUMBERING OF PRIVATE FIRE ALARM BOXES.

A new system of designating fire alarm boxes on private property and school-houses has been ordered and will go into effect as numbers are published.

A preliminary signal of one blow (signifying a private box) immediately followed by 2, 3 or 4 blows, etc. (denoting the particular location), pause, then the box number. A duplicate number of the nearest street box will generally be used for the private box.

Example.

1-2 — 2351 — — — — —
Teachers College and Girls Latin School.

1-3 — 2351 — — — — —
Martin School, Huntington avenue and Worthington street.

The entire signal will be struck three rounds on tappers and two rounds on gongs.

Multiple alarms and "all out" signals will be struck without the private designating signal.

Example.

"All out" signal for either box.
22-22 — 2351 — — — — —

IV. RUBBER COATS.

Members of the department are directed to remove the rubber coats furnished by the city from the apparatus and to lock them in their lockers when they go off duty. Members will be held responsible for the loss of rubber coats due to the loss of these coats by carelessness in leaving them on the apparatus or anywhere but in the lockers.

The attention of members is again called to the fact that requisitions for new rubber coats will not be honored until the old coat has been condemned by the Maintenance Division.

V. DEPARTMENT BUTTONS.

Members of the department having department buttons in excess of two sets will return them to Department Headquarters immediately.

Hereafter, when sack coats are issued to members of the department, the officer in charge of the hose and harness shop will see that the member returns all buttons that he may have charged to him in excess of two sets.

General Order No. 54.

I. EVINRUDE PUMPER AND WORK BOAT.

An Evinrude pumper has been installed on the work boat of Engine Company 31 for the purpose of getting at fires located under docks, wharves, bridges and other places where fires occur that are inaccessible with the equipment carried on our fireboats and land companies.

Following is a description of the equipment:

The pumper is manufactured by the Evinrude Motor Company of Milwaukee, Wis. The motor for the pump is a high, speed twin cylinder, three port, valveless type, four to five horsepower, at 1,400 r. p. m., engine speed range, 600 r. p. m. to 2,000 r. p. m.

Cylinders.—2½ inches in diameter, and 2½-inch stroke.

Ignition.—High tension. Magneto built in fly wheel.

Overall Dimensions.—Height, 17 inches, length 32 inches, width 11½ inches, weight 104 pounds.

Carburetor.—Auto type with float, needle, valve and throttle.

Gas Tank.—Capacity 1½ gallons.

Fuel Consumption.—Motor will run 2½ hours on one gallon.

Cooling System.—Automatic water cooled from pump. The pump is directly connected with motor. Suction opening 1½-inch standard threads.

Discharge.—Fitted to use Boston Fire Department 1½-inch hose. Length of discharge hose 10 feet.

Pump.—Special design rotary gear. Gray iron casings, bronze rotor and pinions. Monel metal shaft.

The following table will show the capacities of the pump based on factory tests:

Pressure in Pounds.—160, 150, 140, 130, 120.

Gallons per Minute.—15, 16, 18.5, 21, 24.

Pressure in Pounds.—110, 100, 90, 80, 70.

Gallons per Minute.—27, 30.3, 33.7, 37.5, 42.

For propelling the work boat there has been installed an Evinrude sport twin out-board motor, two and one half horsepower, weight forty-four pounds. This is a double opposed two-cylinder, two-cycle motor. The speed is about six miles an hour.

At 1.35 p. m., August 19, 1927, the department was called to an alarm from Box 443 for a brisk fire under the lower pier of House No. 41, Hoosac Docks. In connection with this fire the chief of Fire District No. 2, Philip A. Tague, has submitted the following report:

"Engine 31 responded and the Evinrude motor boat was put in service for its first practical operation, and as I believe that the department members are interested in its efficiency I submit the following facts.

The fire was under the pier and had extended under the floor of house No. 41 for a distance of about 50 feet and was making a very heavy smoke that would have caused land companies considerable trouble in opening up the heavy floor timbers, and the land engine companies had no opportunity to operate on the fire.

The Evinrude motor was put in service and extinguished the fire in a very short time, and the loss, approximately, $100, would have surely run into thousands but for this boat."

II. PNEUMATIC TIRES.

In all companies where apparatus is equipped with pneumatic tires, the man on patrol shall make an inspection, at the termination of his watch, of the tires on the apparatus, paying particular attention to the matter of inflation, and if a tire is found flat or soft he shall immediately report the same to the officer in command, who shall investigate and remedy defect if possible. If unable to remedy defect he shall immediately notify the Maintenance Division giving the size of the defective tire.

Pneumatic tires must be inspected daily for cuts, bruises and proper inflation. Similar inspection must be made after returning to quarters from responding to alarms, apparatus drills or other calls.

The following table of pressures is published for the information of the department. Inflation is to be governed by age and load.

Forty by 8 tires, pneumatic, 90 to 100 pounds; 38 by 7 tires, pneumatic, 80 to 90 pounds; 36 by 6 tires, pneumatic, 70 to 80 pounds; inflation of balloon tires, 30 to 35 pounds; inflation of high pressure or regular cord, 50 to 60 pounds.

All inspection of tires must be entered in the company journal.

LAND-TAKING IN WEST ROXBURY.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston, formerly West Roxbury, and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Hodgdon terrace, bounded:

Northwesterly by Midvale road, eight feet; northeasterly by another part of Hodgdon terrace, one hundred six and 50-100 feet; southeasterly by the same, eight feet; and southwesterly by the same, one hundred six and 50-100 feet, containing eight hundred and fifty-two square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 110 linear feet of 8-inch pipe sanitary sewer.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on the northeasterly side of Hodgdon terrace for a distance of approximately one hundred and forty-four feet southeasterly from Midvale road, excluding the lot at the corner of Midvale road and Hodgdon terrace, and the lot of abutting land on the southwesterly side of Hodgdon terrace, next to the lot at the corner of Midvale road, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered; each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 789, Sewerage Works, Hodgdon Terrace, West Roxbury, July 30, 1927, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 40.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
BOSTON, August 29, 1927.

To Heads of Departments, Including County Officials.

GENTLEMEN,—The budget sheets for the year 1928 are now available and may be obtained at the office of the Budget Commissioner, 47 City Hall. These sheets should be secured at once and preparation of budget estimates for the new year started immediately.

The estimates are to be returned to the office of the Budget Commissioner in accordance with the following schedule:

Departments whose estimates are $100,000 or under must submit budget sheets on or before October 1, 1927.

Departments with budget estimates between $100,000 and $1,000,000 must submit budget sheets on or before October 15, 1927.

Departments with budget estimates in excess of $1,000,000 must submit budget sheets not later than November 1, 1927.

It is my earnest desire that the above schedule be followed strictly by department heads in the submission of their departmental estimates.

Your attention is expressly directed to the instructions which appear on the reverse side of each of the estimate forms. Especial attention is directed to the instruction which requires the submission of an explanatory letter in conjunction with the estimate forms. No departmental budget will be considered complete unless this instruction is followed. Special attention is also to be given to the instruction concerning the modification to be made in pay roll computations because of the fact that the year 1928 is a leap year.

Department officials will not include in their budget estimates provisions for salary increases, except in meritorious cases within established sliding scales.

Prior to the submission of the budget for your department it is desirable that you confer with the Superintendent of Supplies so that approximate prices may be arrived at for goods required by all departments during the year 1928.

Respectfully,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

PERMISSION TO SELL GRANITE BLOCKS.

The Mayor has approved the following request from the Public Works Department:

August 22, 1927.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission is respectfully requested to sell to J. C. Coleman & Sons Company a quantity of second-hand granite blocks not exceeding $500 in value.

This firm is completing the Southern Artery at its junction with Neponset and Dorchester avenues. The contract calls for a considerable area of granite blocks with grout joints, and as we have a large number of these blocks which could be disposed of to advantage, I respectfully request permission to make the sale.

Yours respectfully,

J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

MANY LETTERS REACHED MAYOR FOR ENGLISH WIDOW.

The numerous replies which were received by Mayor Nichols from individuals who seek to be the husband of the English widow were forwarded to her today at Staffordshire, England. Although the letter from Mrs. Isabel X. Revill appeared in the newspapers several weeks ago, replies have been appearing practically daily in the mails.

CITY'S FINANCIAL STANDING RATED HIGH.

Mayor Nichols announced on August 26 that the city had negotiated the sixth temporary loan for the year, in the amount of $1,500,000. The successful bidder purchased the loan at the interest rate of 3.40 per cent per annum, plus a $90 premium. This is the lowest interest which the city has this year paid for its borrowings, the highest rate being 3.57 per cent.

The borrowing at the above rate of interest is evidence of the strong financial condition which the city finds itself in today.

The total temporary loans which have been made by the city this year amount to $18,500,000, against the sum of $23,000,000 in August 1926. The fact that the city has this year, to date, borrowed $5,000,000 less than last year has meant a very great saving in the item for payment of interest by the city.

MAYOR CONGRATULATES SPON-SOR FOR FORSYTH DENTAL CLINIC FOR SUCCESSFUL WORK DONE AT UNIT.

Mayor Nichols, in recognition of the Federal approval of the Forsyth Dental Clinic in Boston, which carries on the dental program of the Boston Health Department and its health units, has written to Thomas A. Forsyth of Boston congratulating him on the splendid work which is being carried on at the infirmary.

The Federal recognition came through Dr. James F. Rogers, chief of the division of physical education and school hygiene of the United States Bureau of Education, who stated that that method worked out in the Forsyth Dental Clinic in Boston promises not only to make adequate dental treatment for children possible, but to diminish the amount of dental disease below what was ever dreamed. Doctor Rogers described the plan in detail and commends it very highly.

The Mayor is fully appreciative of the Federal report and has conveyed his appreciation to Mr. Forsyth in the following letter:

MR. THOMAS A. FORSYTH, Hotel Touraine, Boston, Mass.

DEAR MISTER FORSYTH,—Please accept this expression of my sincere congratulations upon the splendid work that is being carried on at the Forsyth Dental Infirmary.

The work carried on under the direction of Dr. Harold DeW Cross is not excelled by any similar institution or organization in the country, or in fact, the world. I have always regarded it as a leader in dental hygiene, diagnosis and treatments, and I am quite familiar with your part in carrying on the dental program of the Health Department and its units.

It is very gratifying to read in the press under date of August 20 of the Federal approval of the service of the infirmary and of the exceptional professional work being conducted there, work that is being emulated all over the country and made possible by your generosity, public spirit and interest in child welfare.

With kind regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

MAYOR ASKS FINANCE COMMISSION TO STUDY POSSIBILITY OF ADEQUATE SCHOOL BUDGET SYSTEM.

Mayor Nichols on August 27 sent the following communication to the Finance Commission requesting them to investigate the advisability of installing an adequate budget system for the School Department and to report at their early convenience:

To the Finance Commission of the City of Boston.

GENTLEMEN.—In attempting to reduce the tax rate this year, I found it necessary to veto the appropriation order of the School Committee, for the reason that the total appropriations were at least $500,000 in excess of the probable expenses of the year. My action was supported by the vote of two members, who publicly stated that in their opinion the appropriation order provided for more than the requirements for the fiscal year. The School Committee later submitted to me an appropriation order $200,000 less than the original, which I further reduced by an additional $300,000. This latter action of mine failed to receive the support of the School Committee.

As a result of my investigation of school appropriations, I am satisfied that the budget upon which they are based is an instrument which absorbs the total appropriating power without regard to the necessary requirements of the fiscal year. That this is so is clearly shown in the huge unexpended balances remaining at the end of each year. This practice is unfair to the taxpayer, in that taxes assessed in one year include many hundred thousand dollars that will not be needed until the following year. Such budget procedure fails in its most essential element, namely the control of expenditure.

Believing as I do, that school expenditures are increasing out of all proportion to the small increase in school population, it occurs to me that a properly devised budget system, patterned after the one in effect for other city and county departments, would be an effective aid to the School Committee in determining the appropriations necessary for the expenses of each year.

Your commission is now considering the advisability of a survey of all school activities. Such a survey, if determined upon, obviously will be of long duration. In the meantime, much could be accomplished through the installing of a proper budget system. You are therefore respectfully requested to investigate the advisability of installing an adequate budget system for the School Department, and to report to me at your early convenience.

Very truly yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lot of abutting land situated on the southeasterly side of Lindall street and located approximately fifty-five feet northeast of Ashland street, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered; each said lot to the amount hereinafter mentioned; said lot and the supposed owner thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 788, Sewerage Works, Lindall Street, West Roxbury, August 4, 1927, William J. LABOR DAY ADDRESS OF HIS HONOR THE MAYOR, MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, BOSTON COMMON, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1927.

Mr. Chairman, Members and Friends of the American Federation of Labor,—This day belongs to you, set aside by the different states of our Union in solemn tribute to the dignity of labor and the deeds of those who toil. This great gathering is but one of thousands assembled all over this broad land to do honor to the cause of labor, to preach its ideals, to spread its principles, to recount its accomplishments, to praise its leaders and to increase its sphere of influence.

It is gratifying to find each year a more universal observance of Labor Day. Certainly a day consecrated to the observance of toil is one of commanding importance. There can be no civilization without toil. Without toil there can be no property, not even human life, except perhaps in the most primitive form. The highest civilization affords the best safeguards for life and property with the largest freedom. It provides for safety and comfort in the midst of which labor is to be performed, and encourages the payment of wages adequate for the maintenance of family health, advancement and happiness.

We are far short of standards which all of us would like to see maintained. Nevertheless, in America, and particularly in this Commonwealth, there is so much to be thankful for that it is well on Labor Day to put aside our troubles and count our blessings.

Labor, therefore, is an inspiring theme. It has a human story. Time was when labor was looked upon as debasing, a thing for slaves and not for free men. That was the natural thought of the pagan period. Then came the Master, the fisherman and carpenter, the toiler, by his example and his preaching, to give to the world a new conception of society and a different meaning to labor.

Under the impulse of his compelling teaching, men, centuries after his crucifixion, saw freedom as their right and work as their duty. Slavery began to disappear, and work became honorable. The old world gradually accepted the new philosophy. Classes were succeeded by masses. Nations stressed freedom and the individual. Peoples worked and prospered. Master and workman developed the trades together to a high degree, and guilds were organized to dissipate friction and misunderstanding, until the civilized world became a vast workshop and playground of contented toilers.

Then came machinery. Great cities sprang up like magic, workers trooped to the mills and factories in unwieldy numbers. Confusion ensued. Friction developed. Capital came to grips with labor, and oppression grew. Individuals were crushed, and the gigantic struggle of the last century began.

VISITS MAYOR'S OFFICE.

A distinguished visitor at the Mayor's office on Thursday was James R. Mahaffy. He is Department Commander of the American Legion of Hawaii and is located in Honolulu. He is en route to the American Legion Convention at Paris and called at City Hall to pay his respects to the Mayor. He was received by Edward F. Condon the Mayor's secretary.

Mr. Mahaffy was the first man to greet Hegenberger and Maitland when they arrived at Honolulu after their successful transpacific flight. When Commander Rodgers attempted his flight two years ago from California to Hawaii Mr. Mahaffy and Lieutenant Hegenberger spent many hours in the air scouring the ocean in the vicinity of the islands in search of the missing plane.

While in City Hall he expressed a keen interest in the work done by the Bacteriological Laboratory of the Health Department stating that the work done by this department is known the world over. He spent considerable time with Health Commissioner Mahoney, who gave him some valuable information in the inspection of milk and the methods used, which will be of assistance to him upon his return to Honolulu.

LABOR DAY ADDRESS.

Human slavery had received its death blow. Industrial slavery sprang into an unwholesome growth.

Then began the great movement to protect toilers who singly could not protect themselves. Labor organized, fought the new slavery and destroyed it. Organized labor became a power. Power met Power and Equality was the result. Mutual respect prevailed to promote peace and happiness.

Organized labor initiated one of the great movements of all time. The pioneers builded better than they knew. They planned for their own days and conditions, but they established ours. They sought a bare existence; their successors gave our workers a decent living. They demanded schooling; our toilers have culture and learning. They yearned for improved conditions. We have clean shops, factories, sweet homes for our children. In short, they fashioned principles which have gone down to succeeding generations, while American working men have wrought these principles into standards that have made America a country of contented people.

To the American Federation of Labor belongs inestimable credit for this. You represent 88 per cent of our trade unionists, comprising some 4,500,000 organized men and women who daily toil for a living. For generations your organization has fought steadfastly for the working man and woman—for their emancipation and development. You have bettered their working conditions, lessened their hours of labor, increased their wages, raised their standard of living, and strengthened their morale. But you have not stopped there.

Under the leadership of your brilliant men, like the late lamented Samuel Gompers and his worthy successor, William Green, you have brought culture and learning to the home, you have inaugurated education for industrial and vocational training, you have developed colleges and schools for adult workers, established collective bargaining and voluntary arbitration, you have fought for the workmen's compensation laws, abolished child labor and the sweat shop, in short, you have crowned labor with accomplishment.

But yours is not a selfish organization. Labor was your first duty. By your persistent endeavors you have placed her in the seat of dignity, prosperity and happiness. What about your country? What about America? From the beginning in 1886 down to this very year, the American Federation of Labor has stood always for the best in American life. You have cherished American traditions and struggled to preserve them. You have understood American principles and striven to maintain and protect them. You have understood the heart of the American people, and fought always in harmony with its beats to make it happy and contented. You have found various races and classes, and have used your powers of persuasion and influence to unite them, so that today America is no longer a nation of races, but a united people, the best and biggest and proudest that all history has known.

And when danger threatened and war fell upon us, your great Samuel Gompers organized you for war, and sent your men by the hundreds of thousands into the trenches of Europe and into the mills, factories and workshops of our own land, to prosecute, with supreme effort, that fateful war to a successful conclusion. No better example of organized might for right stands out in history than the work of the American Federation of Labor during the greatest political convulsion in the history of civilization.

Those not of our land find it difficult to understand and appreciate the greatness of America. They are constantly seeking to find the causes. Let me invite their attention to that momentous crisis in our national life as an example of the possibilities of the American people when a great test comes.

There is much more work to be done. Human slavery and industrial slavery have been destroyed. But communistic slavery is at the gates. Many well-meaning but misguided individuals, seeking perfection, which is unattainable, have sought to weave into the national thought a theory of life that is inconsistent with our traditions and subversive of our laws. If it could be forced upon the American people, it would mean the depths of chaos, ruin and despair.

There is no room for such a theory in the beneficent operation of free institutions. There is no place here for teachings which seek to exchange the peace of ordered liberty for the desolation of weakness, terror and force.

In the freedom of law and order ours is an inheritance beyond earthly riches. In the preservation of this priceless possession there is tremendous work for the American Federation of Labor. Yours is a patriotic organization. It loves America and all its great traditions. It loves the American people, their homes, their firesides. It must and will do its best to protect the American home whose strength lies at the foundation of our virile national life. Toilers, it is our home, sweet to the hearts of us all, and may we never sleep when we should be awake in its protection and defence.

In speaking thus I have in mind the unrivalled example set by the Federation, and I have drawn upon the fine and patriotic thought of your great leaders. Labor Day is a good time to remember that example and that thought. Today it should be on the lips of every American. It should be directed to those who do not comprehend the meaning of our institutions. It should strengthen and quicken the powerful American Federation in the understanding of its marvellous influence.

Continue to wield this influence for America. Through it keep up the fight against the falsehoods ably and glibly levelled against our country. Do this on Labor Day and every day, throughout your immense organization, and the communistic evil will vanish like mist in bright sunlight. The position of labor is one of leadership, today and in the future as in the past, foremost in high endeavor for the well-being of the American people. In this leadership you will not, you cannot, fail.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

The Mayor has approved the following contracts awarded without advertising; requests of heads of departments to do the work with the department forces without advertising; additions to and deductions from contracts.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

Upon August 31 the Mayor approved a contract with the Hygienic Coin Lock Company for coin locks in convenience stations. A communication from Dr. F. X. Mahoney of the Health Department was as follows:

August 20, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully recommend that the contract for coin locks in convenience stations of this department (a total of nineteen locks) be extended for one year from July 27, 1927, and with the Hygienic Coin Lock Company of Boston, without advertising, this company having had the contracts for the past six years.

The present contract which has been in force for the past five years, expiring July 27, 1927, has been very satisfactory to this department. The company has its office and factory nearby and renders immediate service not only on locks which it provides but on all locks in the convenience stations.

The contract just expired is based on a percentage basis and only an estimate as to the receipts by the city can be made. Of the total receipts of these locks since 1922, the City of Boston, through the Health Department, has received from 75.9 to 79 per cent and over the entire period an average of 77.5 per cent of the total amount collected.

I have received an offer from the American Coin Lock Company of Rhode Island of 80 per cent of the gross receipts of the locks, and an offer of 80 per cent from the Hygienic Coin Lock Company of Boston, with a privilege of $2,500 per year. I see no advantage in making a change and therefore make the foregoing recommendation in favor of the Hygienic Coin Lock Company on the basis of 80 per cent of the gross receipts.

Yours respectfully,

F. X. MAHONEY, M. D.,
Health Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Upon September 2 the Mayor approved a contract with the Stanton Electric Company for installing electric equipment at the Highland street yard. A communication from J. H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department was as follows:

September 1, 1927.

To the Mayor of Boston:

Authority is requested to award a contract, without advertising, to the Stanton Electric Company for electric installation at the Highland street yard, Roxbury, for the sum of $2,090. The Stanton bid is the lowest of three proposals submitted at the request of the department.

The Stanton Electric Company is a reputable concern in this line of business, and I respectfully recommend the award.

Yours respectfully,

J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Paving Service).

Upon August 31 the Mayor approved a contract with Biagio Donatella for the construction of artificial sidewalks. A communication from J. H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department was as follows:

August 30, 1927.

To the Mayor of Boston:

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to Biagio Donatella, 9 Lamson court, East Boston, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve one thousand (1,000) dollars.

Respectfully yours,

E. F. MURPHY,
Acting Commissioner of Public Works.

AIRPLANE EXPRESS STARTED.

Gardiner H. Fiske, vice chairman of the Municipal Air Board, represented Mayor Nichols at the airport in East Boston when the first airplane express left Boston with express packages for distant points. He said in part:

Gentlemen, As vice chairman of the Boston Municipal Air Board, his Honor the Mayor, Malcolm E. Nichols, has asked me to represent him here at the inauguration of the air express service from Boston. The Mayor stated that he was exceedingly sorry that he could not be present on this occasion and he wished me to convey several thoughts to you expressing his approval and endorsement of the beginning and the great future of airplane express.

The express business of this country had its beginning in the City of Boston eighty-odd years ago when Mr. William Harnden started an express business with a carpet bag, carrying packages and orders between Boston and New York City.

The business developed so that it was later necessary to put in service horse-drawn vehicles, and the name was taken as the Harnden Express Company. As years went by service was placed on passenger trains and boat lines, until today there is express service on more than 12,500 passenger trains in the United States, and hundreds of exclusive express trains carrying no passengers, but carrying exclusive express cars to the principal business centers of the United States.

Boston alone forwards and receives hundreds of these cars daily, forwarding exclusively through cars to as far west as

San Francisco and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico. The business has increased to such an extent that over 15,000 horse-drawn wagons and motor trucks are used exclusively in the express company's business at more than 26,000 offices, and the express service employs more than 100,000 men and women.

Today, September first for the first time in history the express enters upon an air service between Boston and twenty-six other airports and handling express shipments for every office in the express service, arranging for prompt transfer from airports to and from interior points beyond the airports.

It is a long distance from the carpet bag to the airplane, testifying to the growth of this wonderful transportation system, and there are citizens in Boston living today who will in years to come recall when this new service was established. It will then be a matter of common occurrence.

Shipments leaving from Boston for San Francisco will be delivered there in not more than forty-eight hours.

The Mayor is extremely interested in the development of a northern air route between Boston and San Francisco which will be the most direct route between the two cities. A scheduled trip along airways properly marked with regular stops at larger cities will not only bring all these cities nearer together but will aid materially in the quick delivery of express packages and air mail. The Mayor proposes to take up this question with authorities, and I wish to assure you that the Boston Airport in which he is extremely interested will aid materially in the furtherance and development of this new industry.

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of July 26 with inclosure, order from the City Council, that the new causeway from Gardner way, Marine Park to Castle Island, be named Hegenberger road, in honor of Lieut. Albert F. Hegenberger, U. S. A.

In reply I desire to say that the Board of Park Commissioners do not think it advisable to name any of its parks, roadways, etc., for living heroes. All changes made in the name of playgrounds, parks, etc., have been for soldiers who paid the supreme sacrifice.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

TRANSFER FOR BUILDING DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston.
Office of the Mayor, August 22, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—In the budget of the current year an appropriation of $10,500 was included under the appropriations for the Building Department to cover the securing and removing of unsafe and dilapidated buildings. I am advised by the Building Commissioner that because of the large amount of work of this nature which it has been necessary for the department to perform in connection with the Dock square and Kneeland street widenings that this appropriation is completely exhausted and that for the balance of the year an additional appropriation of $5,000 will be necessary. All expenditures under this appropriation are of an emergency nature and are made by the Building Department in order to protect life and property. All expense incurred by the Building Department in this connection is eventually billed to the owner or owners of the property involved. Because of the nature of the expenditure I submit herewith an order providing for the transfer from the Reserve Fund of the amount requested by the Building Commissioner. I respectfully recommend adoption of this order by your honorable body.

Yours very truly,

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, the traffic artery known as the Morton Street Improvement was authorized by act of the Legislature as long ago as 1925, since which time the City of Boston has been pecking at this particular job. The so-called first section, starting at Canterbury street, has been constructed at a cost of $227,000, and another section, between Druid street and Washington street, in Ward 17, has been taken care of by our order of May 11, at a cost of $110,000, but there is an intervening part between Codman and Druid streets which must be constructed to complete the through artery. I understand there is less than $20,000 of the money available for completion of this thoroughfare, so that the Board of Street Commissioners estimate it will cost $75,000 to complete it. We are, if the papers are correct, being asked today to transfer an additional $1,000,000 for damage awards in our widening of the downtown city streets. Considering the price quoted for the Revere House site on Chambers street for purposes of a new fire station, I was finally becoming of the impression that the street widenings downtown had most substantially increased the values of most of the property; but, apparently, it has done a great deal of damage, and it must be regretted that the real estate experts of the City of Boston were a million dollars off in their estimates. But, be that as it may, if the City of Boston can dig down and find $1,000,000 more for the settlement of some doubtful law cases, they should be able to find available $75,000 necessary to complete actual construction work on a through highway such as Morton street which has been hanging fire now for over two years.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

SHRUBBERY ON THE ROOF OF SHAWMUT BRANCH EXTENSION.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is respectfully requested to consult with the Transit Commission and the Park Commissioner and to advise the City Council forthwith the approximate cost of providing suitable shade trees and shrubbery immediately adjacent to and along the line of the top or roof of the new Shawmut Branch Extension rapid transit line from Park street to Peabody square, Dorchester, and of providing suitable park benches and sand boxes for children at appropriate intervals along the said available areaway.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, as long ago as last November, when I urged upon the Transit Commissioner of the City of Boston such construction of the roof of the new Dorchester Tunnel for a length of three-quarters of a mile as would allow the driving of traffic along the roof of the tunnel from Park Street into Peabody square, in the eyes of the Transit Commission that, apparently, was an amusing suggestion, although it met with the approval of competent engineers. As a matter of fact, that tunnel is now taking form, and from day to day it becomes more perfectly obvious what a mistake it has been not to utilize the top of the so-called three-quarter mile stretch, long as it is, 30 feet wide, and smooth, for some practical purpose. As a matter of fact, Ward 17 so far has no playground. I assume that, when we take our turn and receive an appropriation which will insure a playground out there, the playground, in common with most of the playgrounds of the city, will probably be used more for ball games than for any other purpose. Accordingly, it is not inappropriate that this three-quarter mile stretch of smooth surface might be utilized by the Park Department for the mothers and smaller children in the district. There appears to be no reason why this long stretch of three-quarters of a mile through the center of the district should be shut in by 8-foot wire fence, with barbed wire, like a government reservation, which is being done at this time, and there is no particular reason why it should not be made use of for something beside the collection of dry leaves and newspapers, particularly since the Transit Commissioner has prevented any vehicular traffic along the entire length of the roadway.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman who has just preceded me submit to a question in regard to his objections at the present time? Do I understand that he now abandons his project of having the roof of the Dorchester Tunnel made into a highway, entirely?

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I am always ready and willing to answer the polite inquiries of the gentleman from Jamaica Plain, having always nearest his heart the welfare and benefits of the Dorchester district; and I would say that I have not abandoned the idea of using the roof of the subway as a traffic artery; but, unfortunately, I am not the Transit Commissioner of the City of Boston, and, due to the fact that the Transit Commissioner has made up his mind and the Mayor's mind that they will not accept the idea, I have automatically been forced to abandon the idea.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

OPERATION OF SHAWMUT BRANCH.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Transit Commission, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested forthwith to advise the City Council,

1. The estimated date when rapid transit service will commence to Fields Corner on the newly constructed Shawmut Branch of the tunnel;

(2) Whether it is a fact that the proposed rapid transit service will not be extended to include passengers at the Shawmut Station until late in 1928; and

(3) Whether, even before completion of the rapid transit system to Ashmont and the construction of the Ashmont Station, arrangements are to be made for switchovers or other track arrangements insuring at least limited rapid transit service as far as Shawmut Station pending completion of the end of the line.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. Chairman, to enlighten further the councilor from Jamaica Plain as to traffic conditions in the Dorchester district, I would say that, last November, when I urged upon the Transit Commission the utilization of this three-quarter mile stretch of tunnel roof as a means of vehicular traffic, I was told that any change in plans would seriously impede the work, and that what the people of the Dorchester, Ashmont, and Peabody square districts wanted was less discussion and more rapid transit system. If I am correctly informed, I now understand that, although the Transit Commissioner, last November, stated that the contracts along the entire stretch of work were being let out approximately simultaneously, only the other day they have let out the contract for the end of the tunnel in the Ashmont district, and the report further comes through that, although there will be rapid transit to Fields Corner perhaps at the close of the current year, so far as the Ashmont and Peabody square districts are concerned, there will be no rapid transit for at least another whole year. It would seem that every effort should be made, either by crossovers or track switches, to insure rapid transit at least to the point of the Shawmut Station before completion of the end of the line. We are disappointed to hear that the matter was not conducted in a business-like way; that the entire contract for the tunnel was not let from start to finish; and at this late stage of the game, despite the impression given us last November, they are just starting to let the contract for the Peabody square end of the tunnel.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

LAYING OUT FAIRVIEW STREET, WARD 16.

Coun. GILBODY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to lay out and accept Fairview street, Ward 16.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

VAN WINKLE STREET PASSAGEWAY.

Coun. GILBODY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to construct a passageway for vehicular and foot traffic from Van Winkle street, Dorchester, beneath the tracks of the Dorchester Rapid Transit Extension, now building.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. Chairman, a word of explanation to the President and members of the Council. Van Winkle street is the proposed terminus of the electrical branch at Peabody square, and there is now a great section of people in this part of the great Dorchester district without access over to Dorchester avenue and no provisions for getting into the business section there without unnecessary trouble of about a mile or more, and the purpose of this order is to see if it is not possible to make a vehicular and foot passageway through this particular street while the construction is going on of the new electrification of the Ashmont branch. It also would serve, in my opinion, as a way to relieve part of the travel in that section of Dorchester, because Van Winkle street directly connects into Minot street and then into Granite avenue and other streets going to the South Shore, and I am going to ask for a suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Coun. GREEN, for the Committee on Finance, submitted the following:

1. Report on the message and order for a loan of $650,000 for the construction of a new fire station, West End district—that the same ought not to pass, without prejudice.

Report accepted; said order rejected.

2. Report on the message and order for a loan of $250,000 to be expended by the trustees of the Public Library for the Central Library Building, fireproofing, improvements, etc.—that the same ought not to pass, without prejudice.

Report accepted; said order rejected.

3. Report on the message and order for a loan of $50,000 to be expended under the direction of the Park Department for the improvement of Tenane Beach, Dorchester—that the same ought to pass.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. Chairman, I rise for information. I should like to be informed whether a meeting of the Committee on Finance was held at which these recommendations were made.

Chairman DOWLING—The Chairman of the Committee may be able to answer.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. Chairman, for the information of the gentleman from Jamaica Plain, I have been knocked out for three or four days, and I was unable to be present at the meeting of the committee myself, but I think that, possibly, Coun. Keene or Coun. Lynch or some other member of the committee might be able to give him that information.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. Chairman, my reason for requesting the information is that I had no notice whatever of any meeting of the committee to be held although I am a member of the committee.

Coun. KEENE—Mr. Chairman, I would say that a meeting of the Committee was held at 12.45, and I presume Mr. Baldwin, Clerk of the Committee, sent out the notices. I received mine in the mail. I might say, for the information of the councilor from Jamaica Plain and for the committee, that inasmuch as the 60-day limitation would expire on September 11, and it seemed to be the sense of the Council that they would like to adjourn until the Monday following Labor Day, the action of the Committee on the Mayor's orders was "ought not to pass, without prejudice," and I had intended, at the request or with the understanding of the Committee, to reintroduce the orders. In discussing these orders, particularly those relating to the fire house and the library, with his Honor the Mayor, he stated that he did not want the 60-day law to run against these orders, and that he wanted them decided upon their merits. They are important matters, and they should be either rejected or accepted by the Council, and as soon as the report of the committee has been accepted or rejected, I intend to reintroduce the orders.

Report accepted; said order read once and passed, yeas 20.

4. Report on the message and order appropriating the sum of $300,000 for a public golf course—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order read once and passed, yeas 16, nays, Coun. Dowling, Guild, McGrath, Ruby, 4.

Coun. KEENE offered the following:

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Committee on Claims, I desire to file an ad interim report, viz.:

In response to inquiries from many members of the City Council as to the status of claims made by their constituents against the city, it has seemed advisable to submit at this time a report of the work of the Committee on Claims, up to the present time. These figures show the total claims handled during the current year to date is only 114 less than the total handled during the whole calendar year 1926, and the rate at which claims have been disposed of remains about the same.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JITNEYS.

Coun. WARD, for the Committee on Jitneys, submitted the following:

1. Report on petition of Boston Elevated Railway Company, referred July 11, 1927, to operate motor vehicles from Lenox street car house via Tremont street and Shawmut avenue—that the license be granted.

The question came on acceptance of the report of the Committee.

Coun. WILSON—May I ask what ward that is in, Mr. Chairman?

Coun. WARD—Ward 9.

Chairman DOWLING—Lenox street.

Coun. WILSON—I don't know much about it.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. Chairman, it occurs to me that that is a very congested district. I don't know whose ward it is, but, with the number of children that are around in that section there, it seems to me we should have some explanation as to why the Boston Elevated should be allowed to run through those streets.

Coun. WARD—Mr. Chairman, since the gentleman knows so little about the district, I will inform him that the district is not a congested district; there are no children running around there, and, while there is plenty of automobile traffic there, I do not believe there are any children, and the Committee on Jitneys met, we went over the entire matter, and the committee decided to grant it, and I believe that there was a quorum present. There were Coun. Dowd, Gilbody and myself, and we went over the entire matter. The district comes into Coun. Arnold's district and into mine, and touches on to Coun. Fitzgerald's district.

Report accepted; said license granted.

ELECTRIC LIGHT RATES.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works, through his Honor the Mayor, be and he hereby is respectfully requested, after making any necessary inquiries of the Edison Electric Illuminating Company, the Public Utilities Commission, and the Board of Gas and Electric Light Commissioners, to advise the City Council:

(1) What proportionate amount of the charge of $93.42 per lamp per year made by the Edison Light Company to the City of Boston is for (a) the lamp and equipment, (b) maintenance, (c) electric current.

(2) The separate items which are included in the total annual price of the $93.42 per lamp together with the estimated separate cost of each of said items per lamp per year.

(3) The actual present additional cost to the Edison Light Company of installing one additional electric light pole and lamp, ready to light, on Massachusetts avenue, in the City of Boston.

(4) The actual initial present expense to the Edison Light Company of installing one additional electric light pole and equipment on Talbot avenue, Dorchester, connected with the present electric light system and ready to light.

(5) Why it is not just as feasible and practicable for the City of Boston itself to purchase outright and own each separate electric light pole above ground as it is for the City of Boston to purchase and own each gas pole above ground.

(6) Why it is not just as feasible and practicable for the City of Boston to purchase outright and own each additional electric light pole, completely installed above ground and ready to light, as it is for the individual house owner of the City of Boston to install in his privately owned dwelling house all electric light equipment ready for metered use of electric light current of the Edison Light Company.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. Chairman, on May 9 I introduced an order in this body in an endeavor to ascertain why it would not be just as practical and economical for the City of Boston to own electric light poles on our city streets as it is for the city to own all gas poles, and incidentally save what in effect is an annual pole rental which in the course of years would seem to pay for the pole and equipment several times over. The answers of the Edison Light Company to fourteen specific questions were received at our last meeting, after an interval of over two months. I would ask if any fair-minded person could possibly consider the answers other than evasive. Obviously one most pertinent inquiry was as to the cost of one of these new lamps and a post ready to light. I tried to be very fair in my questions; I think that I was fair. I asked this question:

"What proportionate amount of the charge of $93.42 per lamp per year made by the Edison Light Company to the City of Boston is for (a) the lamp and equipment, (b) maintenance, (c) electric current?"

This was the answer:

"$93.42 per lamp per year for 3,828 hours burning (the price charged for magnetite arc lamps and 1,500 candle power incandescent lamps) is a rate originally filed by the Board of Gas and Electric Light Commissioners (sitting as arbitrators under the provisions of a ten-year contract between the city and the company, approved December 7, 1914, as modified by an agreement between the city and the company in the spring of 1925, whereby the company waived a claim for additional compensation under the last five years of the 1914 contract and the city agreed that the above mentioned price was fair).

We do not know whether or not the Board of Gas and Electric Light Commissioners determined the proportionate portions of the charge which were applicable to the lamp and equipment, to maintenance and to the cost of electric current. I assume the Board of Gas and Electric Light Commissioners didn't toss a coin to determine such an important thing as a fair and reasonable electric light rate for the City of Boston, and certain consideration must have been given to such cost elements as lamp and equipment, maintenance, and electric current. But whether or not the Board made a real investigation it stands to reason that a business organization such as the Edison Light Company knows the cost of the new pole. But to be perfectly fair and square I asked these questions:

"The actual present additional cost to the Edison Light Company of installing one additional electric light pole and lamp, ready to light, on Massachusetts avenue, in the City of Boston."

"The actual initial present expense to the Edison Light Company of installing one additional electric light pole and equipment on Talbot avenue, Dorchester, connected with the present electric light system and ready to light."

This was the answer:

"The new money required to pay the cost of installing a new lamp and post 'ready to light' depends not only upon the cost of the post and the lamp and the cost of installation, but also upon the length of new wire and conduit which must be installed to reach the lamp, whether or not the installation of the new lamp requires the construction of new circuits or the rearrangements of old circuits from the substation, and also whether new street lighting converting apparatus is required at the substation. Unless the question is made more specific, it cannot be answered."

I defy any representative of the Edison Light Company to ask the question in a much more specific manner. What is the nigger in this particular woodpile? Possibly it may be very well for all concerned that the city should rent annually, rather than buy outright, the 6,000 electric light poles now on our city streets, but why the great mystery about the cost of one new single electric light pole. Is there any harm in disclosing the information requested? When I asked the cost of one new pole on Massachusetts avenue and on Talbot avenue I purposely chose highways on which such poles had recently been installed, so that the information should be readily available. I feel that both the Commissioner of Public Works and the Mayor of the City of Boston should co-operate in every possible way in the ascertainment of the requested information. I personally do not mean to quibble, but I do think the City Council is entitled to receive fair answers to fair questions. If the city can save thousands of dollars annually on its electric light bill we are entitled to know it. If, as a practical matter, nothing can be saved, we are entitled to set our minds at rest on that point. To that end I ask suspension of the rule and passage of the order which has just been read.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

BOSTON GIVES SAILING LEGIONNAIRES A ROUSING SEND-OFF, WITH MUSIC, FLOWERS, CITY FLAG AND ADDRESS BY MAYOR NICHOLS.

Mayor Nichols presented to State Commander John W. Reth of the American Legion a large wreath at City Hall, on Friday, September 9, to be placed on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Paris. The wreath was made up of asparagus fern, gladioli and asters with a replica of the city seal at the top. The Mayor also gave to Commander Reth a large city flag, a gift to the city of Paris, and it will be presented to President Louis Belsol of the Paris Municipal Council, together with a letter from Mayor Nichols stating the good feeling of the people of Boston and the United States towards the French. The letter follows:

BOSTON, September 9, 1927.

HON. LOUIS BELSOL, President of the Municipal Council, Paris, France.

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT,—I have the honor and pleasure to present by this letter Mr. John W. Reth, Department Commander of the American Legion of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Commander Reth and a large company of members of the American Legion visit the Republic of France to commemorate upon its sacred soil the heroic sacrifices of the World War and to renew and reaffirm the pledges of eternal friendship between the American and French nations.

The spirit of international amity between the United States and France is as imperishable as during those days in 1777 when the Marquis de Lafayette journeyed to America with the Baron De Kalb and eleven companions to assist our Colonies in the War of the Revolution.

May I assure you that the citizens of Boston still cherish the illustrious memory of the Marquis de Lafayette who unsheathed his sword for the American nation at the age of twenty years, and despite his youth became one of the matchless military leaders upon the staff of General George Washington.

American history presents no story of lofty heroism and valor which is greater than that of the Marquis de Lafayette in his campaigns upon the Rappahannock river, Albemarle, Richmond and Yorktown, where was finally witnessed the triumph of the American Army.

It is the same spirit which prompted the Marquis de Lafayette to visit the United States to assist and actively aid in the final triumph of the American Republic that prompts our brave soldiers, in this day and hour, to revisit France where the world was saved for human destiny.

It was the same spirit of American patriotism, lasting and eternal, which prompted Gen. John J. Pershing, Commander of the American Expeditionary Forces, to visit France in the darkest hours of the World War, and when, I am advised, the French nation had sacrificed

May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,

MAYOR IN SAFETY WEEK DRIVE.

Mayor Nichols on September 12 issued a proclamation to all business houses of the City of Boston and truck operators urging them to display prominently posters during the safety drive which is being made by the Mayor's Safety Committee, the Boston Automobile Club, the Massachusetts Council, the Governor's Highway Safety Committee and the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

He is exceedingly interested in the big safety movement. The Mayor further stated that this drive is taking place at a most opportune time, having in mind the recent opening of the public schools and the fact that practically everyone is home from vacation and summer houses. He asks the co-operation of all parents in impressing upon the children the great need of caution and care in the crossing of streets. The Mayor plans to get the co-operation of the school teachers for the purposes of instructing the children in all forms of safety. The Mayor is also prominently displaying safety posters on all city vehicles.

LEGION SEND-OFF.

one third of its young men that the Tricolor might eventually rise supreme above the forces of tyranny and monarchical oppression.

It was only yesterday that our countrymen had opportunity of appreciating that the spirit of Lafayette still lives within this nation, when at the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, a splendid gathering of patriots, American men and women, assembled to honor the one hundred seventieth anniversary of the birth of the Marquis de Lafayette and the thirteenth anniversary of the first Battle of the Marne.

M. Claudel, Ambassador of France, so brilliant in the field of scholarship and letters, beautifully reawakened that spirit of enduring friendship between the United States and France that will abide until the end of time.

The world in its history, in my humble judgment, presents no more beautiful story than the tenderness of the wives and daughters of France in caring for the graves upon the soil of France of the nearly 70,000 American soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice beneath Old Glory of America and the Tricolor of France.

Dear Mr. President, I know of no evidence of the perpetuation of the spirit of international amity between the United States and France that can be more splendidly borne out than in this loving service of the noble women of France.

The City of Boston is especially gratified to learn that forty cities of your nation are to welcome the members of the American Legion and that a special medal has been prepared to commemorate this international visit.

The exigencies that attend my administration as Mayor of one of the great metropolitan cities of the United States preclude my visit to France at this time upon the occasion of this noteworthy assembly, but in spirit I shall go with you and the American Legion to the Arc de Triomphe to decorate the grave of the Unknown Soldier of France, and I shall be with them when they pay their tribute of love and prayer at the graves of the American soldiers who so bravely fell in France to save the world's civilization and I shall also feel myself marching with Premier Poincare, General Pershing and National Commander Savage to the dedication of the Ossuaire of Fort Douaumont, where 300,000 French soldiers lie who fell in the heroic defence of Verdun, immortal patriots, whose memory is enshrined forever.

My dear Mr. President, it is my pleasure to ask you to accept this standard of our great city as an expression of our high regard and esteem and to express to you the fervent hope that the blessings invoked in its motto may be yours in fullest measure.

For yourself, let me extend the wish for every accomplishment that may serve the welfare and happiness of the people of Paris.

I have the honor to be cordially and sincerely yours.

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

Later in the day the Mayor went to East Boston, accompanied by George H. Johnson, Director of Public Celebrations, to participate in the great send-off which was given to the nine hundred World War veterans who sailed on the R. M. S. "Scythia" of the Cunard Line. Approximately ten thousand people crowded the Cunard Pier and wished "bon voyage" to the Legionnaires. The departure exercises which were held in the immigration section of the pier were as follows:

Promenade Band—Weymouth Post Band No. 75, American Legion.

1. Opening—George H. Johnson, Director of Public Celebrations for the City of Boston.
2. Presiding Officer—Dr. William H. Griffin, Vice Chairman of the American Legion, Chairman of the Sailing Committee.
3. Invocation—Rev. Jeremiah J. Reardon, Department Chaplain, American Legion.
4. Greetings of the Commonwealth—John C. Hull, Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives.
5. Greetings—Mrs. George W. Knowlton, Department President, The American Legion Auxiliary.
6. Band Selection—Weymouth Post Band No. 79, American Legion, "My Country 'tis of Thee," with assembly singing.
7. Greetings of the City of Boston.
His Honor Malcolm E. Nichols, Mayor.
Presentation to Department Commander John W. Reth of a wreath of Boston-grown flowers for the Memorial Exercises at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.
8. Response—John W. Reth, Commander American Legion, accepting gifts.
9. Band Selection.
"All Hail Massachusetts."
10. Benediction—Rev. Willard O. Nuzum, Past Department Chaplain, The American Legion.
11. Band Selection.
"The Marseillaise."
"The Star-Spangled Banner."

During these exercises the Mayor spoke as follows:

The ties which have bound the United States and France since the founding of this Republic will be reviewed more fully and with greater confidence when the American Legion convenes in Paris next week. These two great countries always will be found advancing side by side. America and France under the same colors have marched and always kept in step. In all the world's greatest accomplishments, they fought and suffered for the same ideals and we share the same trials and the same triumphs. The true brotherhood of the two countries was sealed ten years ago on the battlefields of France. Only recently, with open arms, she welcomed our heroic American, Charles A. Lindbergh, who brought to France the magnificent inspiration and heroic determination of a victory of human will power and human energy over the blind forces of nature, to be followed with a very worthy reception to our own Commander Richard E. Byrd and associates for their wonderful flight to France. These triumphs are in keeping with the ideals which the two nations have always held in common.

France will always remember her soldiers who fought side by side with those of America and in a few days will show her deepest feeling of gratitude to the American Legion.

Mayor Nichols presented Commander Prothero of the R. M. S. "Scythia" a beautiful bouquet of flowers. In his remarks he said:

The Cunard Line will establish a record for its eighty-seven years of transatlantic services when her six ships leave for France today, carrying at least 5,500 service men and their families. Exclusive of war-time movements this is the all-time record. The American Legion of at least 25,000 is the largest group or unit crossing the Atlantic to date with one ideal. Twelve more ships tonight will be on the seas, Paris-bound, with Legionnaires, to hear the "bon voyage" dinner aboard the great "Leviathan" and will hold simultaneous memorial services on Sunday for the soldier dead of the World War.

Mayor Nichols also presented to Mrs. Reth a spray of flowers with the compliments of the city.

THANKS ACTING LEGION HEAD FOR LETTER.

Mayor Nichols announced on September 14 that he had sent the following acknowledgment of the letter received by him from Acting Department Commander Edward F. Flynn of the American Legion, commenting on the report of the Finance Commission criticizing the expenditures of money by the City of Boston for Public Celebrations:

EDWARD F. FLYNN, Acting Department Commander, The American Legion, 159 State House, Boston, Mass.

DEAR COMMANDER FLYNN,—I beg to acknowledge, with thanks, your letter in commendation of the patriotic ceremony conducted by the City of Boston in honor of the American Legion on the occasion of its second departure for France.

Timed almost to the moment when the ship sailed, there appeared a report from the Finance Commission severely criticizing the city for its expenditures in celebrations of a patriotic character, and stating that true patriotism does not require nourishment. The commission alluded to food, drink and entertainment as purposeless and profitless expenditure, but neglected to state that this expenditure was mostly devoted to lunches and ice cream for children on historical occasions, as the 17th of March, 19th of April, 17th of June and the 4th of July, and to patriotic exercises appropriate to these great days.

The City of Boston has just been going through a trying period during which the thoughtful citizen ought to hesitate before criticizing any reasonable observance in the cause of law, order and Americanism. I know of no organization better qualified to express an opinion upon such criticism than the American Legion.

Again I thank you for writing me and thus giving me the opportunity to say that your letter truly represents the views of the entire community.

Sincerely yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Friday, August 26, 1927.

Special meeting of the City Council, held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at one o'clock p. m., Coun. DOWLING in the chair. Absent, Coun.
Arnold, Fitzgerald, McMahon, Parkman and Wilson.

The meeting was held pursuant to the following call:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, August 25, 1927.

To the Members of the City Council.

Gentlemen,—You are hereby requested to assemble in the City Council Chamber, City Hall, on Friday, August 26, 1927, at 1 o'clock p. m., to take action on the death of President of the City Council, John J. Heffernan.

Respectfully yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Placed on file.

PROCEEDINGS ON THE DEATH OF PRESI-DENT JOHN J. HEFFERNAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, August 25, 1927.

To the Members of the City Council.

Gentlemen,—It is my sad duty to inform you of the death of President John J. Heffernan of the City Council. President Heffernan was a most earnest student of the varied problems that related to the welfare of the City of Boston and gave the strongest indorsement to all questions touching the best interests of all our people.

He was a young man of splendid acumen, most exemplary character and of conspicuous devotion to public service.

He early gave evidence of a fine career as a member of the Boston Bar. He was one of those young men who triumphed over all obstacles, a student of law after his regular day's work as an accountant had been completed. He was strong and self-reliant and of absolute trust in every public and private duty. I found him both an excellent counselor and a devoted friend. He was a most devoted husband, father and son.

Upon occasions when I have been absent from the city, President Heffernan served as Acting Mayor, with fine dignity, excellent expression of the city's interest and with magnetic and personal charm.

As a mark of further respect, I have this day ordered all flags upon municipal buildings, parks and playgrounds to be lowered to half-staff.

I extend my profound assurance of sympathy and condolence to Mrs. Heffernan and the family of the late President of the City Council.

"They are not dead who live in hearts they leave behind."

Sincerely yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Placed on file.

Coun. WRAGG offered the following:

Whereas, It has been the will of the Creator to remove from this world our fellow-member and President John J. Heffernan.

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston, in special session assembled, by this resolution recognizes the loss that the city and its people have sustained in the passing away of a public servant of the highest character and integrity, whose official career both in the Legislature and the City Council was marked by an unselfish devotion to the best interests of his native city and state.

Resolved, That the City Council extends its sincere sympathy to the family of our late member in their affliction.

Adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

Chairman DOWLING—Members of the City Council: The saddest public duty that you gentlemen and I may ever be called upon to face, confronts us this afternoon, as we assemble in special session to take action on the passing of one of our members who not only won, but deserved, the high regard, respect and confidence in which he was held throughout this great city. The unexpected passing of our President, John J. Heffernan, at an early hour yesterday—following an illness of only a few days—comes to each of us as a shock from which we will not easily recover. While we bow in reverent respect to the wisdom of our Creator, who is responsible for this rapid transition, and whose mysterious ways we sometimes find it hard to understand, we know that His ways are right and that some good purpose is being served by the separation imposed upon us. We cannot help but feel, however,—and I believe that I express the honest and sincere sentiment of every member of this Council—that we have met with an irreparable loss, one that not only fills us with sorrow for the moment, but one that will remain with us for a long time. The realization of our own sorrow makes it possible for us to understand the measure of grief that fills the hearts of the surviving members of two families in the Brighton district. Two homes are darkened today by this bereavement that has come upon us, and to those homes we send our expressions of love and sympathy. And with these expressions we also send our earnest prayer that the faith that has sustained them all through these years will be sufficient to enable them to bear up under this seemingly overwhelming burden of sorrow and grief. President Heffernan was more than a colleague of mine. He was my warm personal friend for a number of years, and I knew him so well, and so intimately, that I find it difficult to express my real feelings on this occasion. I know something of his boyhood life, and I am intimately familiar with a large part of his mature life. I also know something of his social and family life, and in all of these connections he was honest, kind, sincere and generous. His immediate family consisted of his wife, who was Miss Christine O'Neil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Neil of Brookline, and a small daughter, Anne Theresa Heffernan, now nine months old. In a home not far from where President Heffernan lived, there are others with whom we hear a share of the sorrow that comes on an occasion of this kind. In that home are two aged parents, two brothers and two sisters, burdened with grief, but sustained by a faith that passeth all understanding. To these two homes we extend our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy, for in the association that has brought us together in this Council Chamber for the past two years, we have come to realize and appreciate the splendid character and the charming personality that were the outstanding characteristics of our deceased colleague. President Heffernan was a product of the Brighton district, where he spent all of the thirty-four years of his life. He was also a product of the public schools of this city, first attending the William Wirt Warren School, and later graduating from the Thomas Gardner Grammar School in 1907. He passed through four years at the Brighton High School, graduating in 1911, and immediately began the study of law at the Suffolk Law School, from which he was graduated with honors. Upon the completion of his law studies, he opened offices on State street, and he had since continued in the practice of his profession. I am told, and I believe, that he was held in the same regard in his profession that we have held him in here, so that his passing at this time, just as he was about to enter upon the threshold of greater activities, is a distinct loss to the Massachusetts Bar. President Heffernan began to take a real and genuine interest in civic affairs at an early age, and for four years he represented the Brighton district in the Massachusetts Legislature.

His record in the House of Representatives is one of which anyone might be proud. He was recognized as a clear thinker and an able debater, and his associates there, as in this body, were not long in learning that he was a man of ideals and lofty purposes. His election as President of this Council was a tribute to his manliness, his uniform fairness and his upstanding character, and I am sure that there will be no dissension when I say that as a colleague, and as our presiding officer, he has fulfilled every expectation. As an indication of his wider interests, I merely mention the fact that he was a member of Brighton Council 121, Knights of Columbus, Bishop Cheverus Assembly, Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Royal Arcanum, Brighton
Catholic Institute and Boston Lodge of Elks.

Coun. KEENE—Mr. President, pro tempore, my brothers of the City Council: We are assembled to pay tribute to the memory of the President of this City Council, a man of finest attributes, remarkable strength of purpose and kindness of spirit. He labored with us for the welfare and the happiness of all the citizens of Boston, the city of his birth, where he gave conspicuous devotion to every public service that came within his province as a councilor. We pay tribute this day to a man who lived life's best estate and who truly leaves the world brighter and better because he lived within it. No man struggling within the shadow of adversity ever appealed to John Heffernan and made that appeal in vain. Our brother gave a round and well-filled measure from the cup of human helpfulness to every man who came within the embrace of his friendship. John Heffernan lived true to his faith in both God and man, and with every task which confronted him, conscientiously fulfilled, lays down the burden and is at rest. In such a tranquil life, with the pathway of duty ever as its guide, we may well say:

"O death where is thy sting?"

"O grave where is thy victory?"

Let us, my brothers, upon this day remember once again the divine precept of the Saviour of Nazareth, honored for over nineteen centuries of time, that death is "but that sleep of evening that briefly awaits the dawn of the eternal morning," and is not the end of human actuality. Within that gateway of the beloved and honored dead, let us ever realize that love and remembrance are eternal. President Heffernan was a splendid citizen, his life was ever of the strictest rectitude in every public and private act. His untiring devotion and service to his friends bound men to him as if by strands of steel. His mind and heart, ever generous to a fault, knew no thought of guile. He labored for every righteous cause within the district in which he resided with singular devotion, and won the love and respect of all who came within the circle of his friendship. At his death he was serving loyally in a movement to erect a church over 3,500 miles away, in Gurteen, Ireland, County Galway, to stand to the memory of Ireland's martyred priest, the Reverend Father Griffin, where men might worship in the faith of their fathers. He was a husband, father and son of highest probity, character and honor. For all who came within his friendship he had an ever kind word and if need be a generous act. His service in amending and liberalizing the Workmen's Compensation and Mothers' Aid acts in the Massachusetts Legislature was an unselfish service of the highest character. I realize that any tribute to our departed brother remains unfinished which fails to mention his love and devotion for the religious faith of his fathers. Its history was his constant study, its exemplars his admired and chosen companions, its advancement and welfare was his daily labor and its promise was his only hope. To his devoted wife, within the shadow of life's greatest sorrow, and to the venerable father and mother in the evening of life, we extend our heartfelt sorrow and sympathy in these sad hours President Heffernan was one of those men who rose above every obstacle within his pathway; with strength and unswerving purpose he came to be an honored member of the Boston bar and gave evidence of a brilliant career in the severest and greatest of all professions. A tribute of one of the world's greatest poets and philosophers it seems is singularly appropriate to our brother, whose gallant soul has passed beyond the stars:

"I know not where His islands lift,
Their fronded palms in air,
I only know he ever lives
Within His love and care."

Nearly eighty years ago, along the rough and rock-bound coast of New Hampshire, with the cadence of the rising and receding tides of the restless sea as the only requiem, John Greenleaf Whittier, the poet immortal of Massachusetts, stood beside the open grave of a friend, and slowly repeated a loving tribute to his memory. It seems peculiarly fitting to the memory of President Heffernan upon this sad day. Whittier said:

With silence only as their benediction,
God's angels come,
Where in the shadow of a great affliction.
Our souls lie dumb.

Yet would I say what thine own heart approveth:
Our Father's will,
Calling to Him the dear one that He loveth.
Is mercy still.

Not upon thee or thine the solemn angel
Hath evil wrought;
His funeral anthem is a grand evangel,
The good die not.

God calls our loved ones,
But we lose not wholly what He hath given;
They live on earth, in thought and deed,
As truly as in His heaven.

I lean my heart unto thee, sadly folding
Thy hand in mine;
With e'en the weakness of my soul upholding
The strength of thine.

And on thy ears my words of weak condoling
Must vainly fall;
The funeral bell which in my heart is tolling
Sounds over all.

And He is with thee, in thy path of trial
He walketh yet;
Still with the baptism of thy self denial
His locks are wet.

Up then, my brothers!
Lo, the fields of harvest, lie rare in view,
He lives and loves thee, and the God thou servest
To both is true.

Thrust in thy sickle, O my toil-worn brothers,
Thy call abide;
And he thou mournest, a pure and holy presence, Shall live beside.

The question came on the adoption of the resolution. Adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:
Resolved, that the members of the City Council attend in a body the funeral of President John J. Heffernan as a mark of respect and a public demonstration of the regard in which he was held by his fellow members of the Council.
Adopted by a unanimous vote.

Coun. RUBY offered the following:
Ordered, that the City Clerk be directed to have a copy of the resolutions adopted this day on the death of President Heffernan engrossed and forwarded to his family; the expense to be charged to the Reserve Fund.
The rule was suspended and the order passed.

Coun. GILBODY offered the following:
Ordered, that there be allowed and paid to the widow of John J. Heffernan, late member of the City Council, the remainder of the compensation provided for his term of office as such member.
The rule was suspended and the order passed.

ADJOURNMENT.

Chairman DOWLING—The purpose for which the meeting was called having been accomplished, the Council stands adjourned.

Adjourned at 1.30 p. m.

CITY CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chapter 448, Statute 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chapter 266, Statute 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chapter 486, Statute 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayors power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission, and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chapter 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in section 26. (2) Chapter 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in section 32; changing the requirement as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in section 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to section 54. (3) Chapter 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chapter 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor, and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chapter 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chapter 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chapter 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from November 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from January 1 to December 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years. (8) Chapter 136, Acts of 1925, increasing the number of signatures of registered voters required to nominate a candidate for election to the City Council. (9) Chapter 105, Acts of 1926, relative to nominations for municipal elective offices.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on November 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY COLONY.

The first chartered colony in New England, charter granted by Charles I on March 4, 1629. About a year before, a patent had been granted to six prominent men of Dorchester, west of England, among whom was Capt. John Endicott. He sailed in June, 1628, with a party of 50 or 60 persons, arriving in September and settling at Naumkeag, afterward named Salem. In the spring of 1629, the Bay Company fitted out three ships conveying about 400 persons and arriving at Salem in June. Endicott sent a small party to effect a settlement on the Bay in Mishawum, afterward named by the settlers Charlestown, the first town in New England to assume the town policy, Plymouth and Salem being governed by a Governor and Council. Endicott was appointed in London as the first resident Governor on April 20, 1629. The Massachusetts Bay Company was reorganized in London on October 20, 1629, when John Winthrop was chosen as Governor. He arrived at Salem on June 12, 1630, soon proceeded to Charlestown with a large following and finding that place unsuitable, finally settled in Boston. Winthrop served 13 years as Governor in four different periods ending in 1649 and Endicott 15 years at various times ending in 1665. Other governors were Thomas Dudley, Richard Bellingham, John Haynes, Henry Vane, John Leverett and Simon Bradstreet, the latter serving 12 years until 1692 when the Bay Colony and the Plymouth Colony were merged, becoming the Royal Province of Massachusetts Bay, which existed 82 years to 1774, the governors being appointed by the King.

The name, Massachusetts, is Indian and signifies "near the big hills."

MUNICIPAL YEAR.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz. 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

LEGAL HOLIDAYS.

As provided by the Revised Laws of Massachusetts, also by chapter 473, Acts of 1910, and chapter 104, General Acts of 1916 (ratified by the electorate on November 7, 1916), legal holidays on which the public offices shall be closed, include January 1, February 22, April 19, May 30, July 4, September (first Monday), October 12, Thanksgiving Day (the last Thursday in November) and Christmas Day (December 25).

SITUATION OF BOSTON.

Latitude, North, 42 degrees 21 inches 29.596 feet. Longitude, West, 71 degrees 3 inches 51.040 feet (exact situation of apex of State House dome, according to United States Coast and Geodetic Survey). Boston's latitude is similar to that of Detroit and the southern boundary of Oregon, also Rome (Italy), Sofia (Bulgaria) and Mukden (Manchuria); longitude nearly that of Quebec (Canada), Bogota (Colombia) and Santiago (Chile).

VETERAN ORGANIZATIONS PRAISE MAYOR FOR HIS PUBLIC CELEBRATIONS EXPENDITURES.

Mayor Nichols has received letters from several veteran organizations praising him for his expenditures for public celebrations through his director, George H. Johnson, as the result of the criticism presented recently by the Finance Commission. Among these was a letter from Edward F. Flynn, Acting Department Commander, the American Legion, Patrick E. Kelleher, President Boston Municipal Council, Department of Massachusetts United Spanish War Veterans, and Frederick W. Loring, Department Commander United Spanish War Veterans.

The letters follow:

DEPARTMENT OF MASSACHUSETTS,
THE AMERICAN LEGION,
159 STATE HOUSE, BOSTON,

September 13, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—My attention has been called to a letter of the Finance Commission criticising the cost of the public celebrations in Boston.

Because of the time this letter was sent and because of its last paragraph, which reads "The records show that in the war years, when patriotism was at its height, the expenses of public celebrations were curtailed, this emphasizes the fact that true patriotism does not require nourishment from the city treasury," I assume that such expenditures as your able commissioner, Mr. George H. Johnson, so generously recommended and so fairly expended to give the Second American Expeditionary Force a fitting farewell, has met with disfavor by this able body.

Further study of the letter would indicate that objection is made to the contributions to various societies, which contributions were used for the perpetual care of veterans' graves, and also that the cost of flags and wreaths had passed a fair limit. All of this, Mr. Mayor, taken as it must be with the concluding paragraph, calls for deep thought.

I wish at this time, in behalf of the Department of Massachusetts, the American Legion, to thank you and your able commissioner, Mr. George H. Johnson, for the splendid manner in which you have always met the call for patriotic display.

You have shown the respect of the City of Boston for the veteran who lives and for the memory of him who died. During the war local patriotic celebrations were unnecessary. Little money came from the public till. There was at that time a tremendous patriotic celebration in France, paid for by the blood of American manhood and the tears of American motherhood.

In times of peace, however, it seems necessary to spend money to create patriotic fervor. Many graves have been opened and filled since 1918. It costs money to care for these. Many children now going to school were but infants then and the display of flags and the sight of parades does much to give them the thrill of patriotism. This costs money. The sound of the brass band, which once timed the tread of soldiers' feet and caused the blood of men to surge with the spirit which put a rifle in their hands, is yet a means of sending the blood tingling through the veins. It is necessary in the propaganda of patriotism and it costs money.

PRAISE FOR MAYOR.

A few meals are provided when some dignitary visits Boston, in order that he may feel the welcome of the city and be favorably impressed, and a few meals are provided for those who starved for months in the trenches of France.

Last, and what seems to have caused the criticism, a few little tokens, a little music and a little noise when the ships recently sailed for France, all in order that their embarkation might be different from the dismal, dreary, lonely, silent trip of ten years ago—and that cost money. I trust that in time of need these expenditures will be returned one hundred fold as they have been in the past.

The Finance Commission says "True patriotism does not require nourishment from the City Treasury." I can recall no letter signed by this splendid, patriotic body, whose personnel it may be pertinent to note includes no veteran, objecting to the nourishment of true patriotism, measured in blood on the field of battle, neither to the expenditures for transportation, meals, flags, wreaths, music, fireworks or graves in 1917 and 1918.

I would suggest, Mr. Mayor, through you, that if these men would learn the results of well-nourished patriotism that they contribute their services to the City of Boston for thirty dollars per month, that they turn in their many business suits, bought with nourishing funds of the City Treasury, and don a misfit uniform. That instead of dining at the Copley Plaza and the Statler they eat from a tin mess kit; that they take one trip across the water in the vermin-laden hold of a transport, packed in shoulder to shoulder, and that they spend a period of at least six months sleeping in mud and water. If they then feel that the moneys expended for true patriots, in order to teach others the story of patriotism, be too great let them forward another letter of criticism to your Honor and we can discuss this subject on a more equal footing.

Respectfully yours,

EDWARD F. FLYNN,
Acting Department Commander.

The Mayor's reply was as follows:

EDWARD F. FLYNN, Acting Department Commander, The American Legion, 159 State House, Boston, Mass.

DEAR COMMANDER FLYNN,—I beg to acknowledge, with thanks, your letter in commendation of the patriotic ceremony conducted by the City of Boston in honor of the American Legion on the occasion of its second departure for France.

Timed almost to the moment when the ship sailed, there appeared a report from the Finance Commission severely criticising the city for its expenditures in celebrations of a patriotic character, and stating that true patriotism does not require nourishment. The commission alluded to food, drink and entertainment as purposeless and profitless expenditure, but neglected to state that this expenditure was mostly devoted to lunches and ice cream for children on historical occasions, as the 17th of March, 19th of April, 17th of June and the 4th of July, and to patriotic exercises appropriate to these great days.

The City of Boston has just been going through a trying period during which the thoughtful citizen ought to hesitate before criticising any reasonable observance in the cause of law, order and Americanism. I know of no organization better qualified to express an opinion upon such criticism than the American Legion.

Again I thank you for writing me and thus giving me the opportunity to say that your letter truly represents the views of the entire community.

Sincerely yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

HEADQUARTERS, BOSTON MUNICIPAL COUNCIL, DEPARTMENT OF MASSACHUSETTS UNITED SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

September 16, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MAYOR NICHOLS,—As president of the Boston Municipal Council, United Spanish War Veterans, I was amazed to learn of the recent report of that critical body of gentlemen, the Boston Finance Commission, relative to the appropriation for public celebrations.

From the recent experience that I have had with that estimable gentleman, Mr. George H. Johnson, since his appointment as Commissioner of Publicity and Director of Public Celebrations, I know that he has been very cautious, extremely careful and has used good judgment in the expenditure of the city money for public celebrations.

The principal expenditures for public celebrations are for the observance of patriotic holidays and it seems far fetched to my mind to squawk over the appropriation of $70,000 for such observance for the City of Boston with 800,000 people amounting to about eight cents per inhabitant.

The recent experiences of this city with the radical elements is positive proof that something must be done to inculcate into the minds of the children of our city the same patriotic fervor that was in vogue during my attendance at school.

No doubt the gentlemen of the Finance Commission feel that they are justified in their efforts to reduce expenditures, but they have certainly gone far afield when an attack is made on the expenditure of this sum for public celebrations, when all authorities agree that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and there is nothing that will prevent such recent radical agitations more than the carrying on of patriotic observances by our city authorities.

In the work carried on by the veteran organizations of Boston in the observance of memorial tribute to our departed comrades of all wars, I am very happy to say that you and your able director have been more than considerate in your work with our organizations, helping and planning for the veteran at all times.

Thanking you and Mr. Johnson for your past consideration of the veteran and assuring you that the members of the Boston Municipal Council, United Spanish War Veterans, appreciate your good will and many courtesies, I beg to remain,

PATRICK E. KELLEHER,
President Boston Municipal Council, Dept. of Mass. U. S. W. V.

The Mayor's reply was as follows:

PATRICK E. KELLEHER, President Boston Municipal Council, Department of Massachusetts, U. S. W. V., 158 State House, Boston.

DEAR PRESIDENT KELLEHER,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your letter under date of the 16th inst. commenting upon the report recently issued by the Finance Commission on the attitude of the City of Boston in its observance of public celebrations.

I value highly your expression of confidence in my efforts to aid the City of Boston in properly manifesting its reverence and respect for our great days. The endeavor of his office to take public notice in a proper and reasonable way of the great events of our day and country has always been considered by me to be a real public duty and I believe that any criticism of such endeavor is not for the best interest of real citizenship.

With every appreciation of your splendid statement and with every good wish to you, I am,

Sincerely yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

September 16, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR FRIEND AND HONORED MAYOR,—On the arrival of the Massachusetts Delegation, of the Department of Massachusetts, United Spanish War Veterans, from Detroit, Mich., where we have been in national convention, our attention was called to an attack on the appropriations made by the City of Boston, through the Department of Public Celebrations, such appropriations being made by your able representative, friend of everybody, the friend of the kiddies, George H. Johnson, and authorized by you as Mayor.

It seems to this department, composed of veterans who have proven by their service with the colors what patriotism means, that the Finance Commission with its recommendations wish to bring back Puritanical times, or once more to place us in a position to be governed under the old Blue Laws.

This letter is written to you as an expression of our confidence in you as Mayor as well as in your Director of Public Celebrations, George H. Johnson, and your able office staff, who have in matters financial, as well as otherwise, always used sound judgment and discretion where appropriations were necessary.

After reading the letter of the Finance Commission,—that august body, watchdog of the City Treasury,—wherein they make claims that the Director of Public Celebrations or the Mayor was too liberal in appropriations, we feel, in justice to those who displayed their friendship for the veterans of all wars, and who assisted the various communities in local celebrations by appropriations from the city treasury in order that they might commemorate patriotic and historical events, necessary especially at this time of unrest, so as to inspire Americanism in our people, we feel it a duty that this letter of confidence be sent to you.

Let us hope, Honored Mayor, that the letter of the Finance Commission will in no way discourage you or your official family who have the jurisdiction over appropriations for public observance, to in any way curtail expenditures given during your able and efficient administration as Mayor, or that you will allow their membership to tie your hands in your efforts to boom the City of Boston, by your entertainment of representatives of other nations, visiting dignitaries, official guests of other cities, encampments, recognition of historical and patriotic events. Most important, let us hope you carry on in your good work of assisting veteran organizations to perpetuate the memories of those of their comrades who have passed to the Great Beyond by memorials and decorations of their last resting place.

You and your Director of Public Celebrations deserve the highest of commendation for the excellent manner in which you have functioned in the matter of appropriations for such observances and especially for your efforts to instill into the hearts of the little ones patriotism by including them in the appropriations, by entertaining them in a fitting manner, thus assisting them in realizing the significance of the day being observed, which would have been lost to them if forgotten.

Liberal appropriations are necessary to properly entertain, for it reacts to the credit of the historic City of Boston, booms business and creates a spirit of harmony with sister cities which sends their citizens here to visit us.

Liberal appropriations, as the Finance Commission terms it, improve the better nature of men when they assemble together on all historic occasions bringing to all the proper spirit of Americanism. Recognition of patriotic holidays promotes patriotism. Memorializing our honored dead who gave their all perpetuates to posterity their deeds of valor, and to do so properly necessitates the expenditure of money liberally.

To follow out the recommendations of all interested in real Americanism, the need of which has been so vividly displayed to us in the past few weeks shows us the necessity of instilling patriotism in the youth, the future citizens; a patriotism which we must teach our children to love and cultivate if they would be faithful to their country, love its institutions, and make the City of Boston glorious and respected with honor amongst the cities of the world.

From all quarters of the earth the prow of the steamers flying the flags of all nations are headed for our shores, and the sight of this land gladdens the eye and cheers the heart of the westward voyager who seeks a better life. To take their places in our midst as respected citizens, what would be better to inspire than the strain of music, the tread of marching footsteps, the decorations of our buildings with the National Emblems, everybody happy, enjoying the full meaning of the day being observed so that they who first placed their feet on the shore of the City of Boston, within a liberty-loving nation, may here get their first lesson in patriotism.

This lesson could not be taught if a curtailment were made of appropriations which finance such observances. And by a kind and considerate treatment and a kindly interest, Mr. Mayor, carrying on as you have in the past, you instill into the hearts of the newly arrived a reverence for our laws and institutions as we ourselves possess them.

Hoping that you will continue your good work, and with the best of wishes to you, your director, and official family, I remain,

FREDERICK W. LORING,
Dept. Commander U. S. W., Spanish War Veterans.

CHARLES M. FLANAGAN, P. D. C.,
Dept. Adjutant, U. S. W. V.

The Mayor, in reply, wrote as follows:

Boston, September 20, 1927.

FREDERICK M. LORING, Department Commander, United Spanish War Veterans, 158 State House, Boston, Mass.

DEAR COMMANDER LORING,—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter under date of September 16, signed by yourself and Department Adjutant Flanagan, commenting on a report from the Finance Commission which recently appeared in the newspapers, criticising expenditures by the City of Boston, devoted to celebrations of a patriotic character. I appreciate indeed this further evidence of your interest in all matters pertaining to the welfare of our city and I commend highly your splendid statement.

Let me say that no city in the world has a truer understanding of the meaning and value of a proper observance of the great days of our country and it shall always be my endeavor to place Boston in its rightful position.

With full appreciation of the purpose, efforts and deeds of your great organization and with thanks for writing me, I am,

Sincerely yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

MAYOR RENEWS EFFORTS FOR NAVY YARD EMPLOYMENT.

On August 29 Mayor Nichols brought to the attention of Secretary of the Navy Wilbur the urgent necessity of something being done for the Boston Navy Yard to avert a wholesale laying off of the Navy Yard employees. The only major work now going on at the yard is the reconditioning of the "Utah," and it is expected that this work will be completed on or about October 20 next. It had been planned to send the "Florida" here the latter part of October, the "Lexington" the latter part of December, and five nine-laying ships the latter part of October and November.

His Honor the Mayor has urged that the dates of sending these ships to the yard be advanced one month particularly in view of the great advantage by not interfering with stabilized conditions here. He has since been following that closely with the authorities in Washington and is now in receipt of a communication to the effect that the Shipping Board has adopted Admiral Benson's recommendation and has invited the Boston yard to submit estimates for the work on the "Defiance" and the "Conqueror." The yard will be given about two weeks to make up their figures. The Mayor will take this matter up at once with the Boston Navy Yard authorities.

The Mayor has approved the following contracts awarded without advertising; requests of heads of departments to do the work with the department forces without advertising; additions to and deductions from contracts.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Paving Service).

Upon September 20 the Mayor approved a contract with John F. Shea Company for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks. A communication from J. H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, September 16, 1927.
To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to John F. Shea & Co., 41 Hollingsworth street, Mattapan, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve one thousand (1,000) dollars.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Warren Foundry and Pipe Company, $40.95 per ton; United States Cast-Iron Pipe and Foundry Company, $41 per ton.

Dear Sir,—I have the honor to submit the following report of the investigation asked for by the order of the City Council dated August 22, 1927, regarding sanitary conditions at Carson Beach:

Weekly inspections have been made by this department of the public baths at Carson Beach, and from July 1 to date no occasion for complaint or criticism has arisen.

The beach and the water has been found at all times clean and free from dirt or refuse.

The walls, floors, ceilings, lockers and other parts of the building are washed daily.

The water-closets are entirely of earthenware, without woodwork, and are washed daily and kept in good condition. The urinals are of slate and are supplied with running water.

Samples of water, taken at various times at the bathing beach proper at high and low tide, at the surface drain east of bath house and at the sewer overflow east of bath house do not show evidence of gas formation or sewage pollution.

FIRE HAZARD, MEDFORD STREET, CHARLESTOWN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 7, 1927.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Fire Department, in reply to your order of June 14, 1927, requesting the Fire Prevention squad make an extensive inspection of buildings on Medford street, Charlestown, from Chelsea street to Fay square, for the purpose of reducing the fire hazard.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Fire Department, August 12, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Referring to an order passed by the City Council on June 14, 1927, I inclose herewith in duplicate a report of the Fire Prevention Division on the inspection of Medford street, Charlestown, as requested in the order referred to.

Yours very truly,
E. C. HULTMAN, Fire Commissioner.

August 9, 1927.
From: Fire Prevention Division.
To: Fire Commissioner.

Subject: Inspection of Medford Street, Charlestown.

Sir,—In compliance with your order of June 29 I submit herewith a report of the inspection work of members of this division on Medford street, Charlestown.

The street is situated on the northerly side of Charlestown and extends from Chelsea street to Fay square; is approximately $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles long and has an even width of 40 feet from curb to curb its entire length.

Public Fire Protection: There are four engine and two ladder companies located within easy access to the street. There is sufficient hydrant service fed from a 12-inch main running the entire length of the street. Two fireboats respond—one on the first and the other on the second alarm—to all fire alarm boxes on the street. These boats have access to the foot of each wharf for almost the entire length of the street. The northerly side of the street, with the exception of a few dwellings on the lower end, is occupied by industrial plants. The southerly side is used almost exclusively for dwellings, there being but 3 industries on that side. I am presuming that the investigation was intended to cover only the industrial activities on the street.

No. 47 Medford street: Occupied by Glendale Coal Company for the storage and sale of coal and wood. There are five buildings on this wharf besides coal pockets and hoisting engines housed by wooden construction. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 103 Medford street: Occupied by Palmer & Parker Company for the storage and milling of mahogany lumber. This firm also occupies a large portion of the wharf in the rear of No. 121 Medford street where a considerable quantity of lumber is stored in the open. There are twelve buildings on these premises, a few of which are of the second-class, the remainder being of framed construction. The inspection showed a lack of fire protection throughout the premises. Some buildings should be equipped with automatic sprinklers and practically all of the buildings should have more portable fire extinguishers. With the exception of one location, where waste wood and sawdust were piled, conditions were found to be satisfactory, there being no accumulation of waste material laying around inside the building or between the lumber piles. The exceptional case is being remedied.

No. 121 Medford Street: Occupied by the Orpin Desk Company. This is a four-story wooden framed building separated in the center by a fire wall; openings on each floor protected by double tin-clad doors. In addition to the main building there are several small structures in the yard used for various purposes in connection with the business. The buildings are amply protected with up-to-date automatic sprinklers and portable fire appliances. The premises were found to be in a neat and tidy condition, there being no accumulation of waste material laying about.

No. 141 Medford Street: Occupied as a garage and a repair shop by H. H. Wiggin. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 143 Medford Street: Occupied by Howard & Laird as a blacksmith and carpenter shop. The building is of third-class construction. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 97 Monument Street, Corner of Medford Street: Occupied by the Howard Manufacturing Company. The buildings are of brick, second-class construction consisting of five stories and a basement and are equipped throughout with an approved automatic sprinkler system. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 190 Medford Street: Occupied by the Howard Manufacturing Company. The building consists of four stories, brick and of second-class construction and is used largely for the storage of finished and unfinished products. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 149 Medford Street: Formerly occupied by the Wellington-Wild Coal Company. At the present time only a stable and a portion of another building are being used. There are three framed buildings on the premises, the greater part of which are unoccupied. In addition there is a large wooden structure formerly used as coal pockets now vacant and in its present condition may be said to constitute a fire hazard.

No. 161 Medford Street: Occupied by the Burton Furber Coal Company. There are seven buildings on these premises and one up-to-date coal pocket of concrete construction. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 191 Medford Street: A third-class framed building occupied by Bradley & Chapman, plumbers; the second floor by H. G. W. Young, baking machinery. Here it is recommended that three fire pails be installed.

No. 199 Medford Street: Occupied by E. S. Morse & Co., coal dealers. The office building is of third-class construction. There are three wooden coal pockets, a stable where ten horses are kept; third-class construction. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 217 Medford Street: Occupied by Brownfield & Johnson, blacksmith and carpenter shop. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 222 Medford Street: Occupied by H. J. Winde & Co., dealers in hardwood lumber. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 231 Medford Street: Occupied by Charles Holyoke Lumber Company and I. H. Bogart Son, Inc., lumber milling. There are six buildings on these premises and aside from the recharging of extinguishers conditions were found to be satisfactory.

No. 289 Medford Street: Occupied by New England Fuel and Transportation Company. There are eight buildings on these premises which were found to be in good order. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 295 Medford Street: Occupied by Holt & Bugbee Lumber Company. There are five buildings on the premises and with the exception of lack of portable extinguishers conditions were found to be satisfactory.

No. 50 Terminal Street off Medford Street: Occupied by the Wiggin Terminal, Inc. The premises contain modern first-class buildings which are used for storage purposes. The buildings are protected by automatic sprinklers, hose attached to standpipes on each floor, portable fire extinguishers, signal boxes on each floor and watchman service. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 333 Medford Street: Occupied by Revere Sugar Refinery. The inspector reported as follows: "All buildings and the grounds around the buildings are in a clean and orderly condition. The buildings are amply protected against fire." Conditions satisfactory.

No. 348 Medford Street: Used by the Wiggin Terminal, Inc., for the storage and sale of lumber. This is one of the best equipped lumber wharves in the entire city, there being fire alarm boxes, hydrants with hoses attached at various intervals and watchman service. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 465 Medford Street: Occupied by Brockway Smith, manufacturers of sashes, doors, etc. The inspection showed ample protection against fire through the installation of automatic sprinklers and portable fire extinguishers and watchman service. Conditions satisfactory.

No. 521 Medford Street: Occupied by S. M. Howes Company, manufacturers of stoves and accessories. There are six buildings on these premises, all of which were thoroughly investigated and conditions were found to be satisfactory.

No. 412 Medford Street: Occupied by Whittemore Woodbury Company, manufacturers of water leather finish. There are three third-class buildings on the premises and inspection showed conditions satisfactory.

Medford Street has undergone a beneficial change in the past 20 years from a fire protection viewpoint. Many of the old ramshackled buildings have been razed and replaced by structures, which in the event of spreading fire would constitute efficient barriers.

The public fire protection is all that could be expected. The Mystic Dock is an important feature in the protection of property on the wharves bordering Medford street. Here the fireboats quickly respond to operate with either turret pipes or land lines.

Palmer & Parker Company have not sufficient fire appliances to protect the vast amount of valuable lumber stored on their premises, estimated to be valued at upwards $600,000. Persistent efforts will be continued to require better protection.

The old Wellington-Wild wharf property is dangerous because of the high wooden structure which contains the coal pockets now vacant and other old buildings, some of which are only partly occupied.

After careful consideration of all the conditions I am prompted to say that Medford street is reasonably safe against fire.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER E. WALSH,
Superintendent Fire Prevention Division.

PARKWAY, SHAWMUT BRANCH.

Office of the Mayor, September 7, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communications from the Park Department and Transit Commission, in reply to your order of August 22, 1927, relative to the providing of suitable shade trees and shrubbery immediately adjacent to and along the line of the top or roof of the new Shawmut Branch Extension rapid transit line, from Park street to Peabody square, Dorchester, and the providing of suitable park benches and sand boxes for children along said area way.

Respectfully yours,

City of Boston,

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I am returning herewith your memorandum and order from the City Council requesting the Park Commissioner to advise the City Council as to the approximate cost of providing suitable shade trees, shrubbery, etc., immediately adjacent to and along the line of the top or roof of the new Shawmut Branch Extension.

In reply I desire to say I have taken this matter up with the chairman of the Transit Commission, who informs me that upon the completion of the Shawmut Branch Extension this area will be turned over to the Boston Elevated Railway for that company to maintain.

Very respectfully yours,
W. P. Long, Chairman.

City of Boston,
Transit Department, September 1, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Herewith is returned order of the City Council, dated August 22, 1927, regarding the utilization of the roof of the Dorchester Rapid Transit, between Park street and Peabody square, and all adjacent land for the purposes of providing trees, shrubbery, park benches and sand boxes.

Under the terms of the Legislative Act authorizing the construction of the Dorchester Rapid Transit, the department is required to sell any land or rights or interests in land or other property acquired for the purposes of the act, whenever the same ceases to be needed for transportation purposes, and in conformity with this provision the department is arranging to sell all land outside the limits of the actual structure.

The Boston Elevated Railway Company, under the terms of the act, becomes the lessee upon completion, and therefore has jurisdiction of the property, but we have been assured that they have no objection to such use, provided they are relieved of all responsibility in connection therewith.

Yours very truly,
CITY OF BOSTON TRANSIT DEPARTMENT,

DORCHESTER RAPID TRANSIT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 7, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Transit Commission, in reply to your order of August 22, 1927, relative to the estimated dates when the Rapid Transit Service will commence to Fields Corner and the Shawmut Station, and whether arrangements might be made for switch-overs or other track arrangements insuring at least limited service as far as Shawmut Station pending the completion of the end of the line.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Transit Department, September 1, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Herewith is returned order of the City Council, dated August 22, 1927, requesting information regarding the operation of service on portions of the Dorchester Rapid Transit.

In answer to question No. 1, it is estimated that the line to Fields Corner will be ready for operation about November 1.

In answer to question No. 2, it is estimated that the tracks, signals, station building and other appurtenances through Shawmut Station will be completed early in 1928, and this will include a single cross-over south of Shawmut for switching trains.

In answer to question No. 3, we beg to report that the question of operation of any portion of this line is entirely within the jurisdiction of the operating company, the Boston Elevated Railway Company, and as the trustees declined, when requested by you to operate to Columbia Station because of the limited facilities for terminal operation from a way station, it is doubtful that they will operate to Shawmut in advance of the construction of the terminal at Ashmont.

Yours very truly,
CITY OF BOSTON TRANSIT DEPARTMENT,

REVOCATION OF ELEVATED JITNEY LICENSE.

Coun. WRAGG offered the following:

Ordered, That the license granted to the Boston Elevated Railway Company on August 22 for the operation of motor vehicles between Mattapan Station and the junction of Hyde Park avenue and Ashland street via Mattapan square, Oakland street, Ashland street, Canterbury street, and Hyde Park avenue, be and hereby is revoked without prejudice.

Coun. WRAGG—Mr. Chairman, if there is no objection, I should like to say a word on that order, and I think it would be agreeable to the Committee on Jitney Licenses to allow us to act on that today here. When I took this order off the calendar at the last meeting I was given to understand by a gentleman who was appointed as a committee to circulate a petition against the removal of car tracks on Oakland and Ashland streets that there was no objection. Not having heard any objection personally and wanting to see the citizens of that district provided with some sort of transportation during the process of reconstruction of Ashland and Oakland streets, I naturally asked that this order pass. Since then I have found that there is a great deal of agitation and discontent over this matter, and, as a matter of fact, there have been two mass meetings held against the tearing up of car tracks on Ashland and Oakland streets. The result has been that we have been before the trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company at a hearing, and they are going to reconsider their action, or take it under advisement and see if it is possible for them to make some arrangement about putting those car tracks back. In that event the Boston Elevated will not need this permit; and, in talking with the city officials who are doing the construction work I learn it was easily seven months before those busses could operate, at any rate, and it is quite agreeable to the Boston Elevated Railway Company that we allow this permit to be revoked without prejudice so that at a later time, if the decision is against the citizens of that district, against the relaying of car tracks, they will be then without prejudice so far as concerns favorable consideration of putting them back. I therefore ask that the rule be suspended and the matter take its final course today.

The order was passed under a suspension of the rules.

RELAYING CAR TRACKS ON ASHLAND AND OAKLAND STREETS.

Coun. WRAGG offered the following:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to prevail upon the trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company to relay the car tracks on Ashland and Oakland streets, between Barry's quarry and Mattapan square, and that, if necessary, the expense be divided between the City of Boston and the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

Coun. WRAGG—Mr. Chairman, I should like to make one remark about this order. This is in connection with the other order which I just offered and has a great bearing upon the question of whether the car tracks will be relaid, and I therefore ask for a suspension of the rule and the passage of this order.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

SIDEWALK ON PAUL GORE STREET.

Coun. GUILD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Paul Gore street, from No. 75 to No. 95, Ward 19, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. Chairman, that is a sidewalk order which is an exact duplicate of one that was passed under suspension of the rule on September 20 of last year but somewhere in the shuffle, the way those things happen, apparently was lost and comes back now for a second passage. I move suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

JOHN BROWN MEMORIAL.

Coun. WARD offered the following:

Whereas, The martyrdom of John Brown to the cause of Equal Rights for All, irrespective of race, creed or color, has won him a place among the American immortals; and

Whereas, In the City of Boston, which took the lead among American municipalities in the movement for the abolition of slavery in the United States, there is no memorial in honor of John Brown be it therefore Ordered, That the Boston City Council respectfully recommend to his Honor the Mayor that measures be taken to erect a suitable monument in honor of John Brown, abolitionist and martyr, in Madison Park, Roxbury.

Coun. WARD—Mr. Chairman, I believe that every American interested in American history is familiar with the life and history of John Brown, and I should like to present to this body a résumé of the career and life of John Brown, the abolitionist.

The father of John Brown belonged to the early school of abolitionists, and his own opportunities of observing the cruelties practiced upon the unfortunate colored race, imbued him with a strong purpose to do what he might to effect the redress of their wrongs.

His adventurous spirit was developed by a childhood spent upon the borders of the wilderness. Before his twelfth year he was frequently sent in charge of cattle, sometimes a hundred miles through an unsettled country.

When but twenty-six years of age he was made postmaster of Richmond, Pa., and held that office during the administration of Presidents John Quincy Adams and Andrew Jackson.

When a resident of Franklin, Ohio, he made trouble in the church by his habit of admitting negroes into his own family pew.

Four years later he made his family covenant against the national sin, and gradually grew to believe the extirpation of slavery a mission committed to him personally.

Shortly after 1846 he went to England, but the leading abolitionists there listened coldly to his plans for emancipation.

All through his life there was never absent from his mind the purpose he had laid, the amelioration of the condition of the negro race.

In 1855-56 he took a leading part in the struggle in Kansas between the slaveholders and the friends of abolition. The possession of the territories, and the introduction into them of the system of slavery, meant for the slave-holding states an assured majority in Congress, while, on the other hand, the possession of the territories by the north meant the diminution of the power of the south. Many of the so-called southern "settlers" in Kansas were in reality employed in a military foray, and went there armed and void of intention to settle.

John Brown and his five sons joined the ranks of the free-state settlers. In March, 1855, occurred the first election for a territorial constitution; numbers of armed Missourians entered the state and cast their illegal votes by force of arms, and the Browns were mustered in as Kansas militia to defend the Lawrence.

As a result of the Brown's activity, their property was destroyed, two of the sons were subjected to imprisonment, and one of them murdered by a pro-slavery parson.

Later, he made a raid over the Missouri border and captured a number of slaves who he conducted to Canada.

In October, 1859, he took possession of the arsenal at Harpers Ferry, and seized the railroad bridge. He believed that the slaves would rise en masse, and that thus their freedom would be effected.

Virginia and Maryland, militia, however, attacked him, supplemented by United States troops under Col. Robert E. Lee. He was captured, tried, and indicted, and executed in Charlestown, Va., December 2, 1859.

The militant crusade of John Brown paved the way for the emancipation of the slaves by Abraham Lincoln; a martyr to the cause in which his whole soul was enlisted, I believe a monument to his memory should be erected in this, the city which supported him so unreservedly in his labors to remove the curse of human slavery from America, and to the furtherance of which he gave his life.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. Chairman, I should like to inquire, before voting on this order, whether it is the purpose of the councilor who introduced it that the money come from the general tax levy or from some particular source aside from the general tax levy. The reason I ask this question is that I understand there exists in the city a so-called Phillips Street Fund which might be available for purposes of this sort, or might not, and it might conceivably be done out of the general tax levy, and I therefore inquire of the councilor who introduced the order from what source the money is to come.

Coun. WARD—Mr. Chairman, Madison Park is without a flag pole, and the thought I had in mind was to erect this monument in Madison Park in place of a flag pole. Since it would come under the Park system it would be possible to appropriate the money from the Phillips Street Fund, which I believe calls for erection of monuments in streets only.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

ALLOWANCE FOR PUBLIC CELEBRATIONS.

Coun. RUBY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Finance Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to submit to the City Council the amounts which in their opinion should be deducted for public celebrations in general and in each section of the city.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. Chairman, I was interested to read in one of the newspapers of Boston a few days ago a statement of the Finance Commission criticizing the costs of celebrations in the City of Boston, in which they requested the Mayor in making up his budget for the coming year to so take care of public celebrations that the cost of same would be decreased. In the course of their report to the Mayor they emphasize the fact that, in 1926, $70,796 was appropriated for celebrations, contrasting that, of course, with the appropriations in 1925 of $95,000, or a reduction of $25,000. They express the opinion in their report that no single administration is to blame, but they asked that a halt be called. Coming from that section of Boston where celebrations, in my opinion, not only are necessary but are of advantage to the people of my district, as well as of Boston, I felt that the Council here ought to know under just what circumstances the different sections of the city would be handicapped if a reduction in the so-called public celebrations fund was made by his Honor the Mayor. They table the expenditures, and in one of their tables there is an item of refreshments amounting to seven thousand and some odd dollars spent last year, not informing the public that $5,000 of that $7,000 for refreshments was spent for "Hoodsies" in every section of Boston in connection with the Fourth of July celebration. In the amount of $70,000 of the 1926 public celebrations appropriation there was expended $59,617 for the following items: Evacuation Day, $3,136; Patriots Day, $1,404; Memorial Mass, $1,186; Memorial Day, $14,145. This amount was spent for wreaths for the decoration of squares and graves of soldiers who had fought and given their lives, who lived in the City of Boston, accompanying these different visits to the cemeteries by the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Spanish War Veterans, and other organizations of that kind. The Dorchester Day celebration cost $2,128, divided amongst five wards in Boston, or approximately $400 to each ward with a population running anywhere from 50,000 to 75,000 people. Firemen's Memorial, $598; Bunker Hill Day, $10,699, of which I am told $3,500 or $4,000 comes back into the coffers of the City of Boston from concessions that are let out at the Sullivan Square Playground; Independence Day, $21,328, divided among twenty-two wards in Boston. And in this item there is included the $5,000 to buy "Hoodsies" that are distributed by the different committees in the different wards of Boston to the children. If the Finance Commission's suggestion to his Honor the Mayor should be carried out, I doubt very much whether his Honor the Mayor would carry it out, because I believe that he is satisfied with the money spent in this way is a proper expenditure of money for purposes of this kind. Then the Finance Commission will say to the different members of the present City Council, or a future City Council, that celebrations ought not to be conducted in the different wards of Boston, regardless of whether it is the celebration of June 17, March 17, Dorchester Day, the Fourth of July celebration, May 30, or Labor Day. I believe that this is something that should be of interest to every member of this body, and for that reason I have introduced this order asking the Finance Commission to expressly stipulate which particular celebrations in their opinion should be permitted. I believe at this time, from my own personal point of view, that his Honor the Mayor has done a wonderful job with reference to keeping expenditures from the public celebrations fund down to a minimum; and I believe that the Director of Public Celebrations has co-operated with his Honor the Mayor in seeing that no undue expenditures are made with reference to such funds, and I believe that the members of this body will voice with me the thought that public celebrations, if worthy, ought to be encouraged rather than discouraged; and I therefore move suspension of the rule and passage of the order.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. Chairman, as I listened to the reading of the order which the councilor has introduced one thought occurred to me, and that is this. The Finance Commission has had a considerable reputation, either deservedly or undeservedly, of indulging in purely destructive criticism. As this order is worded, it is an invitation to further criticism of that sort, and it therefore occurred to me that the Council might be equally enlightened if the order were amended so as to read that the Finance Commission be requested to inform us what celebrations they would "allow" rather than what they would "deduct," which is the word, I think, used in the order; that we invite the Finance Commission to give us constructive criticism and tell us just what we ought to do, rather than what we ought not to do; and I therefore move that the word "deduct," if that is the word, be stricken out and the word "allowed" be inserted in its place.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. Chairman, I would have no objection to substituting the councilor's amendment for the original order as presented so that his word might go in, because I am only anxious to find out from the Finance Commission, which I am not questioning, what celebrations in their opinion they feel a city such as Boston ought to indulge in.

The order, as amended, was read, viz.:

Ordered, That the Finance Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to submit to the City Council the amounts which in their opinion should be allowed for public celebrations in general and in each section of the city.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. Chairman, I do not see anything the matter with that order. It is simply a request to the Finance Commission to submit what they estimate is sufficient for the various celebrations to be held. We can do as we see with it after we get their estimate.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

OPENING OF SERVICE IN DORCHESTER TUNNEL.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. Chairman, if I may interrupt at this time, I have just completed reading the reply of the Transit Commission, through the office of the Mayor, to the order of the City Council on August 22, with reference to the most important question in Dorchester at the present time, namely, the date of the approximate opening of the various sections of the Dorchester Tunnel, and, while I have the strongest personal regard for Colonel Sullivan personally, and while I realize full well that, on the completion of the work on his hand, the responsibility will not rest on him but on the officials of the Boston Elevated Railway Company by consistently continuing to express the thought of guaranteed dividends to stockholders and the public be damned generally so far as past car service is considered, I am interested to read the second paragraph. According to advice from Colonel Sullivan of the Transit Department, the new Dorchester Tunnel will open to Fields Corner by November 1 of this year. I understand that rapid transit service will not extend beyond Fields corner for at least another twelve months, and yet we learn from the Transit Department that the tracks, signals, station buildings, and other appurtenances through the Shawmut Station will be completed early in 1928, including a cross-over south of Shawmut Station for switching trains. So that on an authority no less than that of the Transit Commission, it will be physically possible for the officials of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, if they have any regard for the rights of the car-using public—it will be possible for them, on the day when the Fields Corner station is done, or within a few months thereafter, to give the people of the central Dorchester district rapid transit service at least as far as Shawmut and possibly to Peabody square, even though they may not have had opportunity to build a beautiful structure for similar purposes beyond Peabody square. I realize that delay in opening the tunnel beyond Fields Corner may save the Elevated Railway some few dollars in rent and some other expenses, but it seems to me that Colonel Sullivan expressed the point in regard to the Dorchester Tunnel some time ago, namely, that the car riders' rights are of paramount importance. I see no reason why the officials of the Elevated Railway Company should forget the Dorchester district, perhaps another winter, or perhaps for another year, or a year and a half, and it would seem opportune now to remind Mr. Dana and his fellow officials that perhaps they can tear up the car tracks in Dorchester on Washington street, leaving the entire Codman Hill district without any service for the past two years, and they can continue to overlook whether we are or are not getting service in Dorchester, and they can forget Dorchester through another winter, but they should not forget that it was a straw that finally broke the camel's back.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. Chairman, I should like to add just a word further to the remarks most appropriately made by my colleague from a neighboring ward in Dorchester. There isn't any question but that our section of Dorchester, represented by the past speaker and myself, is urgently in need of rapid transit and earnestly requires this service through Ashmont, as mentioned in the Transit Commissioner's letter. Of course, the other gentlemen from Dorchester are pretty well taken care of now because they will be fixed up on the first day of November, and that is a great relief; but I do want to say that conditions are terrible in the way of transportation on the trolley end of the buses going out through Ashmont to Milton, and I earnestly hope and pray that relief will come to Dorchester as outlined in the communication from Colonel Sullivan.

INVESTIGATION OF INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION IN THE SCHOOLS.

Mr. O'Hare offered the following: The great expansion of industrial education in our school system during the last decade in our day and evening schools is responsible for the accompanying resolve for definite information.

RESOLVED, That the Superintendent be requested to report as early as is possible on the following points:

(1) How many of our pupils, trained in industrial classes, are being absorbed in the trades for which they are being educated?

(2) Are our courses of study meeting the requirements of the varied trade standards, both from the employers' standpoint and also from the journeymen's viewpoint?

(3) Are our costs mounting to a point where the cost of education of the individual pupil in industrial education is burdensome?

(4) Do we or should we have active consulting boards in each trade, comprising both employers and employees, who can aid in the formation of courses of study and who can also aid in the question of supply and demand in the various trades?

These queries are made with the view of getting our industrial education in close touch with industry, its needs and its demands.

The preamble was placed on file and the resolve adopted.

The Board adjourned.

MAYOR NICHOLS THANKED BY MT. PLEASANT IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION FOR PAVING WORK IN DISTRICT.

Mayor Nichols received on September 26, a letter from Thomas F. Phelan, president of the Mt. Pleasant Improvement Association, thanking him on behalf of the citizens and business interests of Dudley street, between Warren street and Blue Hill avenue, for the interest he manifested in having that thoroughfare resurfaced.

The letter reads as follows:

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—At a meeting of the Mt. Pleasant Improvement Association, of which I have the honor to be head, it was voted to thank you on behalf of the citizens and business interests of Dudley street, Roxbury, from Warren street to Blue Hill avenue, for the interest you manifested in having that thoroughfare resurfaced.

Your kindness in seeing to it that new arc lamps were installed on Hampden street, near Dudley street, Dunmore street, Magazine street, Langdon street, opposite the Hugh O'Brien School, Winthrop street, corner Dennis street, and other points in the upper end of Ward 8, was appreciated by the fair-minded residents of that community.

The necessary street improvements, such as the repaving of East Cottage street, from Dudley street down to and beyond Clifton street in Roxbury; East Brookline street in the South End section of Ward 8, and the filling in of holes along Mt. Pleasant avenue are things for which the people are grateful.

If you recall, you personally visited these points with me and promised to do these necessary jobs through your subordinates by the power vested in you as chief executive of the city. The new roadway on Harrison avenue, from Northampton street to Lenox street east, is another monument to your personal credit.

Considering these facts and giving due promise to their value as a step in the direction of faithful service to the people of Ward 8, irrespective of political belief, I say you are entitled to the credit which is your due, and the members of our organization cheerfully go on record in saying you have made good your promises in street and lighting improvements in all sections of Ward 8.

With best wishes, I am,

Very truly yours,

THOMAS F. PHELAN.

CHAMPION DUNDEE AT MAYOR'S OFFICE.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,

FINANCE COMMISSION STATEMENT.

The following statement has been received by the City Council from the Finance Commission.

Boston, September 24, 1927.

To the Honorable the City Council.

GENTLEMEN,—The Finance Commission presents a comparative analysis of the tax rates of 1926 and 1927, showing the total requirements for expenditure and the ways and means other than taxes used to reduce the amount necessary to be raised from the taxpayer. The analysis shows that the 1927 expense requirements for departments under the control of the Mayor have increased over those of 1926. It also shows that, aside from the fact that the valuations of the city on which taxes are assessed have increased this year by more than $31,000,000, the lower tax rate in 1927 is due principally to three causes, (1) the reduction of $1,857,821.42 in the school requirements, (2) the increase of $1,056,693.64 in the estimated ways and means of the city from various sources, and (3) the abandonment by the administration of the pay-as-you-go policy in street resurfacing for the questionable policy of borrowing $500,000 for the purpose. The analysis further shows that, without taking into account the recommendations of the Finance Commission for reducing the tax rate by the use of a part of the accumulating fund of back taxes, now amounting to over $5,000,000, if the city authorities had merely adhered to their policy of years past and had continued to include in the available ways and means of the city the amount reimbursed to the city by the Boston Elevated Railway Company, the income tax for prior years, and the corporation taxes received to May 1, the tax rate for 1927 would have been 40 cents less, or $29.60 instead of $30.

The following schedule shows the basis on which the tax rate was figured by the city authorities. The expense requirements or warrants, for the years 1926 and 1927, the ways and means deductions adopted for each year, and the overlay, are arranged in parallel columns for the purpose of comparison.

* Estimated income and cash.

The above schedule, however, does not give a true picture of the comparative expenditure items of the two years. When, after many hearings, the Legislature determined that the city should have a tax limit of 50 cents less on the thousand this year than the limit which the Mayor asked for, it might have been expected that the city authorities would have reduced their proposed expenditures in order to live within the limit fixed by the Legislature. This course was not adopted. The city authorities appropriated for their proposed expenditure from the cash available and estimated income, and from taxes as far as the tax limit allowed, and made up a substantial part of the rest of their proposed expenditures by borrowing $500,000. Thus, while in 1926 they had provided $1,000,000 for street resurfacing out of taxes, this year they provided only $250,000 from within the tax limit and resorted to borrowing the $500,000 for this purpose.

A true comparison of appropriations for the two years is shown by the following more detailed schedule, which includes the loan item of $500,000 for street resurfacing and shows that the administration's comparative appropriation for 1927 is in reality $40,359,239.19, as compared with the 1926 total of $39,740,585.

* By loan.

A further analysis of the foregoing items shows that in the city appropriations for 1926, items over which the Mayor had no control were Redemption of Loans, Retirement Fund, East Boston Pumping Station, Oakland and Ashland streets, and River street. These items made a total of $4,728,923.35, and deducted from the total city appropriations of that year left a balance of $35,012,661.78 submitted by the Mayor for departmental purposes. In the 1927 list items over which the Mayor had no control were the Redemption of Loans, Retirement Fund and Morton Street making a total of $5,191,440.40. This sum deducted from the total city appropriations for 1927, including the $500,000 for street resurfacing, left a balance submitted by the Mayor for departmental purposes of $35,168,798.75. Thus for comparative purposes the Mayor in 1927, submitted for departmental purposes $156,136.97 more than in 1926.

Boston Elevated reimbursement.....	$43,924 21
Income taxes of other years received to August 12.....	436,849 00
Corporation taxes received to May 1.....	217,852 13
	$698,625 34

It therefore appears from these unused items that the taxpayers were entitled to one of two things: (1) to have the pay-as-you-go policy continued for street repairs, or (2) to have the three items mentioned above used to reduce the tax rate from $30 to $29.60.

Respectfully submitted,

THE FINANCE COMMISSION,
by CHARLES L. CARR,
Chairman.

MAYOR MAKES COMMENT.

Mayor Nichols' comment on Finance Commission letter to City Council on tax rate matter was as follows:

The only inference that can be drawn from the statement of the Finance Commission on the tax rate is that the commission is thoroughly put out because the tax rate was reduced by the figure of $1.80 per thousand.

It is pretty hard to understand Finance Commission mathematics; by some magic they distort a huge increase in school requirements into a huge reduction in school requirements. They do this by a clever confusion of maintenance with capital outlay. They support their contention that the tax rate ought to be reduced 40 cents more by again advocating discredited policies. They have included ways and means in which they say, city authorities failed to take account of various items which the Board of Assessors know it would be perilous to place in the computation of the current tax rate. But this is not all. The Finance Commission has forgotten its own magnificent efforts of a few months ago when it sent to the Council a report which must have cost in time and effort several thousand dollars, not one item of which had sufficient merit to receive any serious consideration by the City Council. And now it seems that this report has been abandoned by the Finance Commission itself, or else they would not have determined the tax rate now at $29.60, when, by their own figure, they ought to have made it $28.40. I think their second effort is as good as their first, and neither one is worth the time it took to typewrite it.

There are exactly fifty-seven varieties of mis-statements in this new tax rate phantasy, and I should be very glad to point each one out to the Finance Commission if they will send a representative down to my office.

"OLD IRONSIDES" PICTURES SOLD TO CITY HALL EMPLOYEES WERE 4,200—MAYOR IS THANKED.

Mayor Nichols, on September 23, made a report to Philip Andrews, Rear Admiral stationed at the Navy Yard in Charlestown, relative to the sale of pictures of the "Constitution," which has been conducted in the various departments of the City of Boston. Admiral Andrews is chairman of the Save "Old Ironsides" Committee. The Mayor stated that 4,200 pictures have been disposed of in the very worthy cause of raising money for the rebuilding of the "Constitution" and to form an endowment for her up-keep.

Mayor Nichols received the following letter from Rear Admiral Philip Andrews, chairman "Old Ironsides" Restoration Committee, relative to the sales of the pictures of the "Constitution" among the city employees:

DEAR MAYOR NICHOLS, I have your letter of yesterday in regard to the "Constitution" campaign and the very splendid response made by the employees of the City of Boston in the sale of our "Constitution" picture at 25 cents each. The employees of this city have done wonderfully in helping us to sell the "Constitution" picture and I want to thank them through you for all that they have done. If the other large cities would take the same amount of interest, our campaign would be speedily completed; but to do that I presume would require more Mayor Nicholsons and that, I fear, is impossible.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

PHILIP ANDREWS,
Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy.

MAYOR'S FIRE PREVENTION WEEK PROCLAMATION.

Mayor Nichols has issued the following proclamation relative to Fire Prevention Week which will be in effect October 9 to 15, the week in which occurs the anniversary of the Chicago fire of 1871.

The full text of the proclamation follows:

Public attention has been concentrated by civic organizations, the press and educational institutions upon checking the tremendous waste through the loss caused by fire and its hazards. No more suitable time of the year could be selected to devote social efforts in further checking this enormous waste than the week of October 9 to 15, in which occurs the anniversary of the great Chicago fire of 1871.

The fire losses of the United States last year were $560,584,624, or an average daily loss of about $1,590,000. Approximately 10,000 lives were lost by fire.

Statistics show on this particular week each year that the destruction by fire is considerably less than the weekly averages for the year. The City of Boston has reduced the fire losses by $1,000,000 through its fire prevention and reorganization of the Fire Department.

I earnestly urge every individual to devote their efforts to assist in the elimination of fire hazards in their places of business and their homes not only for their own protection but for the weal of the community.

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR JEWISH NEW YEAR.

Mayor Nichols has directed the heads of the city departments to grant employees of their respective departments who are members of the Jewish Faith leave of absence, without loss of pay, for the observance of their New Year and Day of Atonement, which fall on September 27, 28, and October 6, respectively.

BOSTON, September 30, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—The Board of Election Commissioners respectfully request that permission be given to them to award the contract for printing the city election ballots to the firm of Wright & Potter Printing Company of 32 Derne street, Boston, without advertising for bids, at an upset price of twenty-two hundred eighty-five dollars ($2,285), the price being approximately eight dollars and sixty-two cents ($8.62) per thousand for the ballots.

The ballots for the city election will contain three hundred thirty-nine (339) precinct changes, twenty-two (22) ward changes, twenty-two (22) changes for council candidates in the make-up.

Great care will be required on the part of the printer as the time for printing such ballots and making a delivery to this office is but seven week days. Sample ballots for posting must also be delivered at this office three days after receipt of copy.

The Wright & Potter Printing Company is the only printing concern especially equipped to do this work, having printed the State and City of Boston ballots for a long period of years.

For the reasons as stated above and to safeguard the voters of the city as far as possible against error, this request is made.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK SEIBERLICH,
Chairman Board of Election Commissioners.

BOSTON YEAR BOOK, 1924-25 (2nd YEAR).

This is the most comprehensive book thus far issued relating to the public interests and activities of today in New England's metropolis. Special articles and statistics on metropolitan Boston follow the extensive and varied output devoted to municipal Boston, illustrations and diagrams being an attractive feature. Compiled and edited by Statistics Department, 73-76 City Hall.

AREA TO WARD LINES.

Total, 30,598 acres (i. e., 47.81 square miles), 2,944 acres being filled land, 1,143 acres water area and 1,436 acres flats. Land area only, 28,019 acres (i. e., 43.78 square miles). Included in the latter are 160 acres of filled flats recently added to the land area of South Boston and 175 acres to that of East Boston.

Original Boston contained about 780 acres of land. Of the twelve leading American cities, eight are larger in land area than Boston, viz., Los Angeles (364 square miles), New York (318), Chicago (199.4), Philadelphia (129), Baltimore (91.9), Detroit (80), Cleveland (56.6) and St. Louis (61.25). The only city in Massachusetts with larger land area is Taunton (50 square miles).

If Boston should expand by annexation as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and others have expanded, its total area, in case of including the 39 cities and towns within the 15-mile radius, would exceed the largest, viz., Los Angeles, the present land area of "Greater Boston" being 409.5 square miles.

ANNEXATIONS TO BOSTON.

East Boston in 1637; South Boston in 1804, being set off from Dorchester; Roxbury in 1868, a city of Norfolk County since March, 1846; Dorchester in 1870, a town since September, 1630; Charlestown in 1874, a city of Middlesex County since February, 1847; Brighton in 1874, set off from Cambridge and incorporated as a town of Middlesex County in February, 1807; West Roxbury in 1874, set off from Roxbury and incorporated as a town of Norfolk County in May, 1851; Hyde Park in 1912, a town of Norfolk County since April, 1868.

These annexations, which added 24,312 acres of land to the original land of Boston, were by area as follows: East Boston, 1,435 acres; South Boston, 795; Roxbury, 2,450; Dorchester, 5,600; West Roxbury, 8,075; Brighton, 2,664; Charlestown, 423; Hyde Park, 2,869. Filled land increased the area later by 1,396 acres. In 1875 the annexed territory had a population of 201,250, or 58.86 per cent of City's total; in 1910 its population had increased to 477,311, or 71.18 per cent, Hyde Park not included. By 1925 the total was 607,519, or 77.92 per cent of City.

FISCAL YEAR.

The fiscal year begins on January 1 and closes on December 31, as provided by the Charter amendments.

PORT OF BOSTON.

Boston Harbor comprises an area of about 47 square miles, (exclusive of the islands) including all the expanse of tidewater within a straight line from Point Allerton to Point Shirley and extending therefrom to the mainland. It is the best of natural harbors, near open sea, sheltered and spacious for anchorage; main ship channel 35 feet in depth at mean low water, increasing to 40 feet from President Roads to open sea; new dredging operations in charge of U. S. engineers are under way for increasing depth of said main channel to 40 feet; waterfront (i. e., lineal pier space) 40 miles, 6 miles fronting on 30 feet depth at low water.

Commonwealth Pier No. 5, South Boston, 1,200 feet long, 400 feet wide, accommodating five 600-foot ships at one time, 40 feet depth at mean low water on both sides, with three 2-story fireproof buildings of steel and concrete construction, containing 900,000 square feet of floor space, total cost of this enterprise to State, $4,500,000. Commonwealth Pier No. 6, South Boston, (Fish Pier), buildings on same erected by lessee, Boston Fish Market Corporation, cost to State, $1,487,361. Commonwealth Pier, No. 1, East Boston, 900 feet long, costing State $764,600 for site and $426,674 for construction. New dry dock at South Boston, (probably the largest in world), completed in 1919, 1,200 feet long and 120 wide, costing $3,169,651 and taken by U. S. Government at total cost.

Islands in Boston Harbor over 3 acres in area, 17, with total area of 965 acres; Long Island the largest, or 215.5 acres. Owned by United States, 392 acres; by City of Boston, 334 acres. Number of wharves, 143, of which 8 are owned by the City.

There are 32 foreign steamship lines with regular sailings to and from Boston and 18 coastwise lines (5 to Pacific ports).

In 1915 a revision of the harbor lines was made and the project undertaken whereby 600 acres of flats between Governor's Island and Jeffries Point, will be filled in and used for extensive commercial developments under State control. About 175 acres of flats have recently been filled in and added to the land area of East Boston and 160 acres to that of South Boston.

In April, 1918, the Government decided to establish its Army Supply Base on a portion of the Commonwealth lands in South Boston. About 57.6 acres were purchased of the State, the price being $1,317,510, soon followed by the construction of two pier sheds, each 920 feet long, a wharf shed and other buildings, including one of the largest storehouses in the world, built of reinforced concrete, eight stories high, 1,638 feet long, 126 feet wide and with floor space of over 1,650,000 square feet. The total outlay for the plant was $26,000,000.

Total expenditures by State for improvement of Boston Harbor $22,160,342, from 1859 to 1925, inclusive; in the same period, there was expended additionally $843,676 on small channels; total Federal expenditure from 1790 to June 30, 1925 $13,046,044 (corrected figure).

NATIVES AND CITIZENS OF BOSTON AND VICINITY HONORED IN HALL OF FAME.

In the American Hall of Fame, New York City, dedicated in 1901, are inscribed on bronze tablets the names of 58 eminent men and 7 distinguished women deemed worthy of the highest honor on account of their services and attainments. Of the 65 individuals thus selected (up to 1925 inclusive) by an electorate of 100 leading Americans, 27 were natives or for some time citizens of Boston or vicinity. The names of the latter are as follows:

Chosen in 1900—John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, William Ellery Channing, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Daniel Webster, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Horace Mann, Nathaniel Hawthorne, George Peabody, Samuel Finley Breese Morse, Joseph Story, Asa Gray, Gilbert Stuart—total, 13.

Chosen in 1905—John Quincy Adams, James Russell Lowell, John Greenleaf Whittier—total, 3.

Chosen in 1910—Edgar Allan Poe, Oliver Wendell Holmes, George Bancroft, John Lothrop Motley, Phillips Brooks—total, 5.

Chosen in 1915—Louis Agassiz, Francis Parkman, Rufus Choate, Charlotte Cushman—total, 4.

Chosen in 1920—William Thomas Green Morton, Alice Freeman Palmer. Five additional names every fifth year are to be selected and inscribed until the year 2000, when the 150 tablets in the colonnade will be complete.

No Bostonian was selected in 1925.

If those who were natives or residents elsewhere in the State are added to the list, the following 7 names increase the total to 34 for Massachusetts or more than half the whole number, viz.: William Cullen Bryant, Jonathan Edwards, Mark Hopkins, Elias Howe, Eli Whitney, Maria Mitchell, Mary Lyon.

If all New England is included, 4 more names will bring up the total to 38 or 58.46 per cent of whole number chosen, these being Roger Williams, Henry Ward Beecher, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Emma Willard.

CITY CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chapter 448, Statute 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chapter 266, Statute 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chapter 486, Statute 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayors power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission, and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chapter 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in section 26. (2) Chapter 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in section 32; changing the requirement as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in section 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to section 54. (3) Chapter 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chapter 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor, and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chapter 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chapter 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chapter 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from November 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from January 1 to December 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years. (8) Chapter 136, Acts of 1925, increasing the number of signatures of registered voters required to nominate a candidate for election to the City Council. (9) Chapter 105, Acts of 1926, relative to nominations for municipal elective offices.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on November 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY COLONY.

The first chartered colony in New England, charter granted by Charles I on March 4, 1629. About a year before, a patent had been granted to six prominent men of Dorchester, west of England, among whom was Capt. John Endicott. He sailed in June, 1628, with a party of 50 or 60 persons, arriving in September and settling at Naumkeag, afterward named Salem. In the spring of 1629, the Bay Company fitted out three ships conveying about 400 persons and arriving at Salem in June. Endicott sent a small party to effect a settlement on the Bay in Mishawum, afterward named by the settlers Charlestown, the first town in New England to assume the town policy, Plymouth and Salem being governed by a Governor and Council. Endicott was appointed in London as the first resident Governor on April 20, 1629. The Massachusetts Bay Company was reorganized in London on October 20, 1629, when John Winthrop was chosen as Governor. He arrived at Salem on June 12, 1630, soon proceeded to Charlestown with a large following and finding that place unsuitable, finally settled in Boston. Winthrop served 13 years as Governor in four different periods ending in 1649 and Endicott 15 years at various times ending in 1665. Other governors were Thomas Dudley, Richard Bellingham, John Haynes, Henry Vane, John Leverett and Simon Bradstreet, the latter serving 12 years until 1692 when the Bay Colony and the Plymouth Colony were merged, becoming the Royal Province of Massachusetts Bay, which existed 82 years to 1774, the governors being appointed by the King.

The name, Massachusetts, is Indian and signifies "near the big hills."

MUNICIPAL YEAR.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz. 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

LEGAL HOLIDAYS.

As provided by the Revised Laws of Massachusetts, also by chapter 473, Acts of 1910, and chapter 104, General Acts of 1916 (ratified by the electorate on November 7, 1916), legal holidays on which the public offices shall be closed, include January 1, February 22, April 19, May 30, July 4, September (first Monday), October 12, Thanksgiving Day (the last Thursday in November) and Christmas Day (December 25).

SITUATION OF BOSTON.

Latitude, North, 42 degrees 21 inches 29.596 feet. Longitude, West, 71 degrees 3 inches 51.040 feet (exact situation of apex of State House dome, according to United States Coast and Geodetic Survey). Boston's latitude is similar to that of Detroit and the southern boundary of Oregon, also Rome (Italy), Sofia (Bulgaria) and Mukden (Manchuria); longitude nearly that of Quebec (Canada), Bogota (Colombia) and Santiago (Chile).

IV. "WAHCOLAC" LACQUER.

Recently a lacquer was found in a store in this city, a sample of which was sent to the State Fire Marshal for test purposes and advice as to its dangerous nature. Following is an abstract of the opinion of Expert Assistant to the Commissioner of Public Safety, Perlin L. Charter:

"The sample has a flash and fire point at or below 70 degrees Fahrenheit (room temperature). It is composed of a varnish resin held in solution by highly 'volatile and inflammable' solvents, chiefly amyl acetate or 'banana' oil. The use of this material in spraying devices, owing to the highly inflammable nature of its vapors, constitutes a fire and explosion hazard as to all 'volatile inflammable substances.' It should only be applied in well ventilated rooms, away from all sources of heat or open flame."

Following is an abstract of a regulation established by the State Fire Marshal relative to "Wahcolac."

"This substance cannot be kept or sold without a permit."

V. FUEL TANK CAR.

A fuel tank car has been installed at the quarters of Engine Company 38-39. This fuel car will respond to all multiple alarms, and report to the officer in command.

VI. SHEEHAN TIP.

Hereafter the commanding officer of all engine companies shall either wear or have on his person the Sheehan tip while on duty at a fire. This tip is to be used on all occasions when a small stream of water will be sufficient to extinguish fires, particularly in buildings. Commanding officers will be held strictly accountable for the use of large tips when the Sheehan tip is sufficient.

VII. FOAMITE DEMONSTRATION.

A Foamite marine fire-fighting demonstration is to be given by the Foamite Childs Company on Friday, October 7, at 2.30 p. m. in rear of 975 Massachusetts avenue, Roxbury, Mass.

Chief of Department.

"BIG" MAN SEEKS CLOTHING.

Mayor Nichols received an interesting and amusing communication this afternoon from an individual whose name must be withheld. It is interesting for it makes comparisons in more ways than one, and asks the Mayor to speak to a former Governor on this man's behalf. The letter reads as follows:

My DEAR MAYOR NICHOLS,— This is a very odd request I am about to ask you, and I sincerely hope you will overlook the great liberty I am taking.

To plunge right into the subject matter, I will say that like yourself, I too am a "big" man, but unlike you, I am only physically "big," for you have scaled heights that I can never hope to ascend.

I have to provide to myself, wife and three husky, young boys, and I can assure you that it is a very, very hard problem; so hard, that I am unable to buy a "stitch" of clothes, etc., for myself.

I will be frank and say that I do not think your clothing would be "big" enough for me, but, if you would be so good as to ask the Hon. Eugene N. Foss, the former governor, if you are acquainted with him, for any clothes that he could spare.

And then the individual signed his name.

Mayor Nichols received a post card in answer to the letter which appeared in the newspapers regarding the clothes of a "big" man although he was not "big" enough to be mayor. The post card was originally addressed to the Governor, and then the Governor's name was scratched out and the Mayor's name filled in, both on the front and back of the card. The card read as follows:

My DEAR MAYOR,— Re item in today's newspapers, we have some clothes that the "big" man can probably use and if he will tell us when to expect him we will have them ready to give them to him.

The Mayor withheld the name of the individual who wrote the card.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 1138.

Acting under the provisions of chapter 521, Acts of 1922, as amended, creating the contributory retirement system, the Boston Retirement Board has notified this department that it has approved for retirement, on account of age, Deputy Superintendent Forrest F. Hall of the superintendent's office, who is a member of said contributory retirement system, such retirement to take effect on Saturday, October 1, 1927, at 7.45 o'clock a. m.

Therefore, in view of this operation of law, the Police Commissioner states that after October 1, 1927, the said Deputy Superintendent Forrest F. Hall will no longer be a member of this department, and it is hereby directed that its records be so amended.

Deputy Superintendent Forrest F. Hall was appointed to the Boston Police Force December 21, 1882. Through his devotion to duty and zeal in its performance he merited and received constant recognition from his superior officers and passed steadily through the successive grades from patrolman to his present rank of deputy superintendent. His attendance record during the forty-five years he served this department is indicative of the nature of the service rendered by him, inasmuch as it does not show a single duty recorded as missed because of sickness.

Of unimpeachable integrity and courage, constantly courteous and obedient, Deputy Superintendent Forrest F. Hall possessed the qualifications and attributes of a good police officer.

His retirement creates an inevitable and immeasurable void which the withdrawal from active duty of a faithful and conscientious servant naturally causes.

Upon his retirement I desire to express to him the unanimous feeling and hope of the members of this department that his exceptional health may long continue and his future days be spent in happiness and contentment.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

APPROPRIATION FOR TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 26, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of a request from the chairman of the Park Commission for an additional appropriation of $12,500 to permit the continued employment of sixty-four temporary employees until the beginning of the winter season. These men are chiefly gardener-laborers and because of the many improvements which are now under way in the park system, it would work a hardship on the department to discontinue their services at this time. Under ordinary circumstances the necessary funds would be available for their continued employment, but this year, due to the serious unemployment situation present in the city during the early spring, the appointment of the temporary force in the Park Department was advanced at least six weeks before the regular date for employment of such employees. For this reason, the appropriation for A-2, Temporary Employees, is now practically exhausted. Since there is an urgent need for the continuance of these employees, I respectfully recommend the adoption of the accompanying order providing for the transfer of the desired amount from the Reserve Fund.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, September 15, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—On account of the early appointment of the temporary gardening-laboring force, due to the serious unemployment situation, this department will need $12,500 on A-2, Temporary Employees, in order to finish the enormous amount of work that has to be done before November 15.

I respectfully request an additional appropriation of $12,500 in order to retain the services of sixty-four men now temporarily employed.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor he and hereby is authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Reserve Fund, $12,500, to the appropriation for Park Department, A-2, Temporary Employees, $12,500.

Referred to Executive Committee.

PRESCOTT SQUARE IMPROVEMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 26, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am advised by the chairman of the Park Commission that an unexpended balance now available in the special appropriation Putnam Square Improvements is no longer required for this item, since the work for which the original appropriation under this item was made has been completed. It is proposed that this balance be transferred for use in connection with certain improvements that are badly needed in Prescott square. Since both of these public squares are in the same section of the city, I can see no objection to the proposal and I accordingly recommend passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, September 15, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—You are respectfully asked to request the City Council to transfer the sum of $1,806.50 from the special appropriation, "Putnam Square, Improvements," to an appropriation for Prescott Square, Improvements.

The reason for this request is that as the money is no longer needed for Putnam square it could be used to construct a fence at Prescott square that is very badly needed.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor he and hereby is authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Putnam Square, Improvements, $1,806.50, to the appropriation for Prescott Square, Improvements, $1,806.50.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, September 21, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir, I have your memorandum of September 15, with inclosure, order from the City Council, that the Board of Park Commissioners be requested through his Honor the Mayor, to advise the City Council why work on the new causeway between Marine Park and Castle Island has been discontinued, and when work will be resumed and the causeway completed.

In reply I desire to say that the improvement is completed as far as the appropriation will allow. Further appropriation necessary to continue improvements is being asked for from the Parkman Fund at the present time.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG,

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 23, 1927.

"Chapter forty of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 is hereby amended in section twenty by striking out the words 'Buttonwood Street' in the fifteenth line of said section, and inserting in place thereof the words 'Moseley Street.'"

In reply I desire to say that the Park Commissioners have never been consulted about this change in the ordinances, and wish to object to any changes in Park frontages at present time.

Very respectfully yours,
W. P. LONG,
Chairman.

PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AT LAMARTINE STREET YARD.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 26, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from Arthur P. Russell, vice president of the

New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company in reply to your order of July 25, 1927, relative to the proper protection of children at the Lamartine street yard of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Boston, August 31, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.
My dear Mr. Mayor,—On August 4 you sent me a copy of an order passed by the City Council on July 25, which requested you to take whatever steps might be necessary to provide for the proper protection of children at the Lamartine street yard of this company.

We at first made an investigation as to whether anything in connection with the operation of the Lamartine street yard or the care of our property was neglected to such an extent that further protection of children seemed necessary.

The freight yard is used by the public and possibly the attraction to the children during the summer months is because ice is unloaded at that point. The freight yard is inclosed with a fence and the gates are closed at night. Our agent frequently is obliged to urge children not to encroach upon this yard because we realize there are elements of danger, but we learn that many of the older ones climb the fence against our prohibition, although it is eight feet in height.

I have asked one of our personal representatives, Mr. Baldwin, to further investigate the matter. He has had a personal interview with Coun. Freely, whom I understand introduced the order. Arrangements have been made for Coun. Freely and Mr. Baldwin to look the situation over and see what further action on our part can be taken to avoid the situation covered by the order referred to.

Yours very truly,
A. P. RUSSELL,
Vice-President.

TRANSFER FOR LONG ISLAND WHARF.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 26, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am advised by the Commissioner of Institutions that in order to make the Easterly Wharf at Long Island safe for the landing and handling of the contractors' supplies in connection with the building program authorized under the $1,000,000 loan, extensive repairs must be made the cost of which has been estimated by the division engineer of the Bridge and Ferry Division to be approximately $12,000. Since this is a repair or maintenance item it cannot be charged against the loan, and it becomes necessary to provide the required amount from the Reserve Fund. I accordingly submit a transfer order for this purpose and respectfully recommend its passage by your honorable body.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Institutions Department, September 19, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—In order to make the Easterly Wharf at Long Island safe for the landing and carting of contractors' supplies for extensive improvements about to be made at Long Island under the $1,000,000 loan, it has been found necessary to make repairs which the Bridge and Ferry Division estimate will cost approximately $12,000. (Copy of letter inclosed.)

I respectfully request that said amount be provided by transfer, as the department has no funds available to meet this emergency and contract work must be delayed until the wharf is made safe for heavy loads.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM S. KINNEY,
Commissioner.

Boston, September 9, 1927.

Mr. William S. Kinney,
Commissioner, Institutions Department.

Dear Sir,—Mr. Cook of this office made an investigation of the East Wharf at Long Island with a view to the possibility that it might be used for carrying eight-ton loads.

The wharf is unsafe for eight-ton loads on account of the very poor condition of the planking and the condition of some of the caps and piles underneath the wharf. The stringers which carry the planking appear to be as a whole in fairly good condition. Mr. Cook was informed that even the one and two horse dump carts that now use the wharf have broken through, although they carry but from one to two tons.

To put this wharf in shape for eight-ton loads would require the driving of some new piling; splicing some of the old piles which might be used over again; refitting some of the spur shores; replanking the whole of the wharf except that adjacent to the coal shed; furnishing and replacing some of the caps under the wharf.

To do this work would cost approximately $12,000.

Yours very truly,
JOHN E. CARTY,
Division Engineer.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor be and hereby is authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Reserve Fund, $12,000, to the appropriation for Institutions Department, Long Island Hospital, B-39, General Plant, $12,000.

Referred to Executive Committee.

To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I have this day received from the City Auditor a copy of an opinion rendered to him by the Corporation Counsel in which the Corporation Counsel held that the order of your Board passed on August 26, 1927, allowing the widow of John J. Heffernan, late member of the City Council, the remainder of the compensation provided for his term of office, was illegal. I am inclosing a copy of that opinion herewith.

In view of the fact that legislative authority must first be secured, I am asking your body to pass the accompanying order, making assent and approval to the proposed legislation.

Very truly yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That the City Council of Boston hereby approves the enactment of legislation authorizing the City of Boston to pay to the widow of John J. Heffernan, late member and President of the City Council, the remainder of compensation to which he would have been entitled had he lived and continued to serve until the expiration of his term of office.

Referred to Executive Committee.

REPORT ON TAX RATE.

The following was received:

September 24, 1927.

To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The Finance Commission presents a comparative analysis of the tax rates of 1926 and 1927, showing the total requirements for expenditure and the ways and means other than taxes used to reduce the amount necessary to be raised from the taxpayer. The analysis shows that the 1927 expense requirements for departments under the control of the Mayor have increased over those of 1926. It also shows that, aside from the fact that the valuations of the city on which taxes are assessed have increased this year by more than $31,000,000, the lower tax rate in 1927 is due principally to three causes: (1) the reduction of $1,857,821.42 in the school requirements; (2) the increase of $1,056,693.64 in the estimated ways and means of the city from various sources; and (3) the abandonment by the administration of the pay-as-you-go policy in street resurfacing for the questionable policy of borrowing $500,000 for the purpose. The analysis further shows that, without taking into account the recommendations of the Finance Commission for reducing the tax rate by the use of a part of the accumulating fund of back taxes, now amounting to over $5,000,000, if the city authorities had merely adhered to their policy of years past and had continued to include in the available ways and means of the city the amount reimbursed to the city by the Boston Elevated Railway Company, the income tax for prior years, and the corporation taxes received to May 1, the tax rate for 1927 would have been 40 cents less, or $29.60 instead of $30.

The following schedule shows the basis on which the tax rate was figured by the city authorities. The expense requirements or warrants, for the years 1926 and 1927, the ways and means deductions adopted for each year, and the overlay are arranged in parallel columns for the purpose of comparison.

* Estimated income and cash.

The above schedule, however, does not give a true picture of the comparative expenditure items of the two years. When, after many hearings, the Legislature determined that the city should have a tax limit of 50 cents less on the thousand this year than the limit which the Mayor asked for, it might have been expected that the city authorities would have reduced their proposed expenditures in order to live within the limit fixed by the Legislature. This course was not adopted. The city authorities appropriated for their proposed expenditures from the cash available and estimated income, and from taxes as far as the tax limit allowed, and made up a substantial part of the rest of their proposed expenditures by borrowing $500,000. Thus, while in 1925 they had provided $1,000,000 for street resurfacing out of taxes, this year they provided only $250,000 from within the tax limit and resorted to borrowing the $500,000 for this purpose.

A true comparison of appropriations for the two years is shown by the following more detailed schedule, which includes the loan item of $500,000 for street resurfacing and shows that the administration's comparative appropriation for 1927 is in reality $40,359,239.19, as compared with the 1926 total of $39,740,585.

† By loan.

A further analysis of the foregoing items shows that in the city appropriations for 1926, items over which the Mayor had no control were Redemption of Loans, Retirement Fund, East Boston Pumping Station, Oakland and Ashland Streets, and River Street. These items made a total of $4,728,923.35, and deducted from the total city appropriations of that year left a balance of $35,012,661.78 submitted by the Mayor for departmental purposes. In the 1927 list items over which the Mayor had no control were the Redemption of Loans, Retirement Fund and Morton Street, making a total of $5,191,440.40. This sum deducted from the total city appropriations for 1927, including the $500,000 for street resurfacing, left a balance submitted by the Mayor for departmental purposes of $35,168,798.75. Thus for comparative purposes the Mayor in 1927 submitted for departmental purposes $156,136.97 more than in 1926.

Boston Elevated reimbursement.....	$43,924 21
Income taxes of other years received to August 12.....	436,849 00
Corporation taxes received to May 1.....	217,852 13
	$698,625 34

It therefore appears from these unused items that the taxpayers were entitled to one of two things: (1) to have the pay-as-you-go policy continued for street repairs, or (2) to have the three items mentioned above used to reduce the tax rate from $30 to $29.60.

Respectfully submitted,
THE FINANCE COMMISSION,
by CHARLES L. CARR,
Chairman.

CONNECTION BETWEEN ST. ANN AND WASHINGTON STREETS.

Conn. GUILD offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to estimate the cost of connecting St. Ann street with Washington street under the West Roxbury branch of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad in Ward 19.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, within the past week, a representative of the Traffic Survey Board has made the statement to the Board of Street Commissioners that the worst place they have found in Boston for traffic was Forest Hills square. Many people have been under the impression that the worst traffic spot in Boston was at Governor square. Having that in mind, and having in mind the serious difficulties which traffic of all kinds encounters, not only from the overhead bridge of the New Haven Railroad, but from the overhead structure of the Boston Elevated Railway, I have introduced this order, asking for an estimate of the cost of a further bridge under the New Haven Railroad tracks between St. Ann street and Washington street, in order to afford direct communication from the north to Washington street leading to Roslindale, West Roxbury and points south. I ask for suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

CONNECTION BETWEEN ARCHDALE ROAD AND ASHMORE STREET.

Coun. GUILD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to estimate the cost of connecting Archdale road and Ashmore street under the main line of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad in Ward 19.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, Ward 19, of this city is divided into two parts by a structure which, in many ways, is more insurmountable than the famous Chinese wall. It is a raised embankment upon which the main line of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company passes. At infrequent points this structure is pierced by streets, and any further piercing by streets will work a great benefit to the district by affording a chance to tie it more closely together. The point at which the connection mentioned in the order which I have introduced is located is in a stretch which is farther than the distance from Boston City Hall to the Boston Public Library, a stretch which, as it now stands, is impassable going from half of the ward lying on one side to the part lying on the other. I move the suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

MORTON STREET WIDENING.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That both the Board of Street Commissioners and the Commissioner of Public Works, through his Honor the Mayor, advise the City Council forthwith, not in sketchy outline, but in detail:

1. What work in each department has been completed, and what remains to be done for the planning, laying out, widening and construction of Morton street, Dorchester, from Codman street to Druid street and from Druid street to Washington street, as authorized by chapter 325 of the Acts of 1925.

2. What sum of money is necessary for the completion of each section, including sewers and surface work.

3. What sum of money is now available for such work.

4. The present policy and purpose of the department with reference to prompt completion of the work.

5. Whether actual completion of Morton street has been temporarily abandoned for any reason, and if so, for what reason.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, at the first actual business meeting of the present City Council at which I ever sat, back in January, 1926, I introduced this order:

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inform the City Council as to what work, if any, is being done in connection with the laying out of Morton street, Dorchester, particularly with reference to the amount of appropriation that has been made, the amount of appropriation that has been expended, and the balance remaining unexpended."

Six months later, after the filing of Coun. Guild's famous list of thirty odd interrogatories, the Council received certain information on the Morton street project to the effect that, while the first section from Morton street to Canterbury street was practically progressing, additional money would be necessary for the balance of this artery. During the past year I have introduced various orders, supplemented by personal requests for some real progress towards the completion of Morton street. I am recently informed that plans for rough grading are completed for the entire remaining stretch from Washington street to Druid street but that the sewer plans are not ready except between Washington street and Codman street. Also I am variously informed that money is, and money is not, available for the actual completion of the work. I certainly was under the impression that our loan order of May 11 at least took care of all the expense between Codman and Druid streets. If, as has been rumored, the city is temporarily abandoning the project for more important work in other sections of the city, then the people of Dorchester wish that information at this time. We have waited long enough for our turn and do not intend to pass it up, especially in view of the figures exhibited on page 44 of the City Auditor's report as of September 1, showing $269,000 as balance unexpended plus half a million dollars in loans authorized but not yet issued.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

RESURFACING RIVER STREET, WARD 17.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be and he hereby is requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide for the resurfacing of River street, Ward 17.

The rule was suspended, and the order passed.

LAYING OUT CLEMENT PARK, WARD 17.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to assess and lay out as a public highway in Ward 17, Clement park, sometimes known as Clementine park, from Centre street to Dayton street.

The rule was suspended, and the order passed.

LAYING OUT SHARP STREET, WARD 17.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out as a public highway in Ward 17, Sharp street, from Allston street to the line of the new Dorchester Tunnel.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, with reference to this last order, namely, for the acceptance of a short stretch known as Sharp street, which is a narrow way running from Allston street, Dorchester, to the line of the new tunnel, where one of the voting booths is now located, I have asked the Transit Commission as to the possibility of making an entrance from the Sharp street side to enable the people on the Washington street side of the Dorchester Tunnel to go straight through Sharp street to take their trains, particularly in stormy weather, rather than going down Sharp street, turning and going down two or three blocks in order to get on the train. The Transit Commission tells me that, if the Board of Street Commissioners will accept this little, short stretch of about 100 yards, they will make an entrance to the Shawmut Station off Sharp street, Washington street side of the tunnel, which is an absolute necessity; and, accordingly, I press the passage of this order at this time and the acceptance of the street by the Board of Street Commissioners prior to the completion of the tunnel.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

REMOVAL OF EDISON COMPANY'S POLES.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Transit Commission, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to revise any instructions given the Edison Company requiring complete removal of poles from the line of the new Dorchester Tunnel through private property adjacent thereto.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

ADDITIONAL POLICE PROTECTION.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, advise the City Council whether, in addition to the 300 new patrolmen admitted to the force during 1926 and 1927, more police officers are actually required, not only for adequate police protection in the residential districts of the city, but particularly for traffic relief throughout the city.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, with reference to this order I have been requested to put that in for the reason that, notwithstanding the recent safety drive, I have been informed over fifty-three people have been killed and over 1,500 injured on the streets of Boston, presumably one of the reasons being that we are short of traffic officers in the Police Department. Accordingly, I request the suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

DOCKING CITY EMPLOYEES' PAY.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commissioners, through his Honor the Mayor, advise the City Council forthwith whether, on August 25, employees of the Cemetery Division of the Park Department not attending the outing of the department at Castle Island were docked a day's pay as distinguished from men who attended the outing or bought tickets to the outing and did not attend but were given the day off.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

TERMINATION OF DORCHESTER GARBAGE CONTRACT.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works, through his Honor the Mayor, be and hereby is respectfully requested to declare at an end the present contract for the collection of ashes and garbage in the Dorchester district, in view of the repeated breach of the conditions of said contract, particularly with reference to the general collection of both ashes and garbage at least once a week throughout the year and the collection of garbage at least twice a week during the months of June, July and August.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. Chairman, I am going to ask that that order be referred to the Executive Committee because I am sure the councilors in the Dorchester district are intensely interested in that particular question. I understand that, under the terms of this contract, it can be a breach of the contract, not only persistently but once, to not make at least one collection of ashes and garbage per week. There are streets in my district where the garbage has not been collected from one end of the ward to the other for three weeks at a stretch, and I am simply asking that this be referred to the Executive Committee. I want that contract canceled on that ground.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

REPAVING STREETS IN WARD 9.

Coun. WARD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to repave with smooth paving the following streets in Ward 9, viz.: Harvard street, Regent street, Lambeth avenue, Lambeth street, Ray street.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

SIDEWALK ON GRANGER STREET WARD 15.

Coun. McMAHON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Granger street, from Duncan street to Clayton street, both sides, Ward 15, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

LAYING OUT FOX STREET, WARD 15.

Coun. McMAHON offered the following:

That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out Fox street, from Percival street to Mount Ida road, Ward 15.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

REPAVING BORDER STREET, EAST BOSTON.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to include in his annual budget for 1928 a sum sufficient to provide for the repaving of Border street, from Central square to Condor street, and Sumner street, its entire length.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

LAYING OUT BAYSWATER STREET, EAST BOSTON.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to include in their budget for 1928 a sum sufficient to provide for the acceptance and laying out of Bayswater street, East Boston, from Wauppello road to the end, and St. Andrew road from Wauppello road to the end.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEE ON JITNEY LICENSES.

Coun. DOWD, for the Committee on jitney Licenses, made the following reports:

1. Report on petition of Medway and Dedham Bus Line, Inc. (referred August 22), for license to operate two motor vehicles from the Dedham-Boston line and Spring street to Park square—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said license granted.

2. Report on petition of Boston Motor Tours, Inc. (referred August 22), for a license to operate four buses from the Milton-Boston line to the Forest Hills Elevated Station—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said license granted.

3. Report on petition of Boston Elevated Railway Company (referred August 22) for a license to operate bus route between Granite Bridge Station, Neponset, and the new Fields Corner Station—that the same be granted.

Report accepted; said license granted.

4. Report on petition of Boston Elevated Railway Company (referred August 22) for a change in route of bus operation between Park square and North Station—that the same be granted.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. Chairman, may I be informed, through you, what the present route is and what the proposed route is going to be?

Coun. DOWD—The chairman of this committee, being absent, requested me to present these reports. It is simply a change of route along Causeway street. I believe that Coun. Fitzgerald was interviewed in reference to this by the chairman, and probably Coun. Fitzgerald can state just what the change is.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. Chairman, I am simply satisfied with the change in the route. There are no objections on my part.

Chairman DOWLING—The Chair understood that there was no material change in the route. The report was accepted; said license granted.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. Chairman, what I am about to say has no particular reference to these orders just passed, but it has come to my attention that some of these out-of-town motor tours people that ask for jitney licenses to go through the city will not give employment to Boston men on their buses. I think before we grant any of those licenses we ought to ascertain whether that fact is true.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. Chairman.

Chairman DOWLING—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. DOWD—To reply to the councilor who has just spoken, if there is no objection, I simply want to state that, when those gentlemen were before the Committee on Jitney Licenses, Coun. Ward said, after questions were put by him to those gentlemen in reference to the employment of Boston men, that they actually agreed and promised the Committee on Jitney Licenses that any men hired would be Boston citizens.

RECESS.

On motion of Coun. McMAHON, the Council voted, at 2.50 p. m., to take a recess, subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by Chairman DOWLING at 4.05 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. GILBODY, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on order (referred September 12) that the Health Commissioner be authorized to sell a quantity of equipment and apparatus belonging to the Health Department, valued at over $500—that the same ought to pass.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. Chairman, the order which is before us was introduced at the last meeting of the Council, September 12, 1927. In introducing it, his Honor the Mayor sent a letter in which he said: "I am herewith transmitting a communication from the Health Commissioner relative to the sale of a quantity of equipment and apparatus, the property of the Health Department, and I recommend the passage of the accompanying order." The letter accompanying it read: "I respectfully request your authorization to the disposition by sale of certain property of this department purchased by the city for use of the Conservation Division of the Health Department, and which no longer can be used. The value of this equipment and apparatus exceeds $500." There is nothing in either the Mayor's letter or the letter of the Health Commissioner or the order to tell us what the apparatus is which it is proposed to sell at this time. I have it in mind that the appropriations which have been made from time to time for the Conservation Bureau, which is now a part of the Health Department, amount in all to $15,000, and we have no information as to how much or how little of the apparatus and material belonging to the Conservation Bureau of the Health Department it is now proposed to sell. The only information we are given is that it is valued "at over $500." Whether it is worth $5,000 or $15,000 we are not told: the only thing we are told is that it is worth "over $500." Accordingly, upon my motion, the order was laid upon the table by the Executive Committee at the last meeting, and thereafter I wrote to Doctor Mahoney the following letter under date of September 16, 1927:

"Dr. Francis X. Mahoney, Health Commissioner, City Hall Annex, Boston, Mass.

Dear Doctor Mahoney,—An order of the Mayor accompanied by a letter from you to him requesting leave to sell certain material and apparatus belonging to the Health Department is pending before the City Council. Upon my motion it was laid upon the table at the last meeting. My reason for doing this was that neither your letter nor the Mayor's order states what the material is which it is proposed to sell. The next meeting of the City Council is to be held September 26, and I should appreciate having information before that date.

Yours very truly."

In reply to this letter I received the following from the Health Commissioner, under date of September 17, 1927:

"Dear Mr. Guild,—Your letter of the 16th inst. has been received. In reply thereto, I would state that a list of material and apparatus which it is proposed to sell was sent to the office of the Mayor.

I am inclosing herewith a copy of letter from Prof. W. T. Bovie, which is self explanatory.

Yours very truly,

F. X. MAHONEY,
Health Commissioner."

The inclosure is as follows:

'Biophysical Laboratories of the Cancer Commission of Harvard University, 695 Huntington avenue,

Boston, September 13, 1927.
Dr. F. X. Mahoney, Public Health Department, Boston.

My dear Doctor Mahoney,—It is necessary for me to withdraw the offer for the purchase of the apparatus which has been in use in my laboratory. Because of the indefinite postponement of action by the Council, it will be impossible for me to include it in a shipment of other equipment. The city apparatus is second hand and if I have to add to my offer the expense of separate shipment and handling, it will be to my advantage to purchase new material which I can do in Chicago when I arrive and so I hereby withdraw my offer.

The turn of events is more unfortunate for the city than for me because the apparatus is of very little value to any one not engaged in my line of work.

Very truly yours,

W. T. BOVRE"

I am still in absolute darkness as to what the apparatus and materials consist of. I know not what apparatus and material Doctor Bovie has in his laboratory, and I am unable to gather from the Health Commissioner's reply what the apparatus and material which it is proposed to sell is. The only information that is given to the City Council up to the present moment is that at some time, the Health Commissioner transmitted to the Mayor's office a list of apparatus and material which it was proposed to sell. The City Council is entirely unable to form any judgment of any sort whatever in regard to the value of this apparatus; and to put an upset price of $500 upon it, if that is the interpretation which is to be placed upon the order when it says it is worth more than $500, is not sound common sense. We should be told what the apparatus is in order that we may exercise our reasoning facilities and form some kind of judgment as to the proper upset price to insert in this order. I question very strongly whether, in the language of the order, $500 could be interpreted as an upset price, in any event. All that it says is that it is of the value of at least $500—"valued at over five hundred dollars." If the material were sold for $400, I do not believe that it could be stated definitely and beyond peradventure that the order had been violated. I think that the language of the order, in saying, "after public advertisement" is somewhat misleading. Saying "after public advertisement" is not the same as saying "to sell at public auction," and simply to state in the order that it is of the value of more than $500 is not stating that it shall be sold at public auction at the upset price of $500. This order before it is passed should be put in perfectly definite, plain terms, so that there may be no misunderstanding whatever in regard to what is wanted by this order. I am satisfied, if I can be told what the material and apparatus is that it is proposed to sell, to pass an order authorizing its sale at public auction at an upset price, in terms that are unequivocal and which cannot be misunderstood. I hope that the order will not pass.

The report was accepted; said order passed.

Coun. GUILD—I doubt the vote.

The Chair calling for a show of hands, the vote was ratified, 12 to 3.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. Chairman, I want to say, in furtherance of my remarks before the Executive Committee as to the custom in the House of Representatives and Senate in designating widows to take the compensation of members who have deceased, that I am informed that it is not possible to do that under the charter, and therefore I cannot follow that idea up.

Memorial High School—Ellen M. Greany, adviser of girls (from assistant), Sept. 26, 1927.

Approved under a suspension of the rules.

In connection with the foregoing nominations for appointment as Advisers of Girls, the following statements were made:

Mr. Gray: I am opposed to the appointment of eight Advisers of Girls not because I do not believe in Advisers, but because of the expense involved, which will be some twenty or twenty-five thousand dollars a year. I believe that this is too much money to spend for the purpose, because, as I view it, appointments of Advisers are in the nature of an experiment. I believe that we should go more slowly in trying out this experiment. I appreciate that in The Teachers College the appointment of an Adviser of Women has worked out to the satisfaction of all concerned, but to my mind, that does not, of necessity, prove that Advisers will be equally satisfactory in the high schools. I am opposed to the appointment of eight advisers on the ground that in trying out what I believe to be an experiment, we should appoint perhaps three or four, or even five, for which the budget provides, but not eight at this time.

Mr. O'Hare: I am voting for the appointment of eight Advisers of Girls in mixed and girls' high schools. I am doing so because Boston has taken a definite stand in training and educating the whole child so far as we may do so. Today we are doing our utmost to see that the child's physical well-being is maintained; always in Boston we have tried to educate the intellect to its power of absorption. Under the leadership of Dr. Burke some few years ago we started character training in order to help the children of all denominations, from homes of all kinds and classes. We are now taking another step forward in the moral training and supervision of the young. The appointment of an Adviser of Women was tried out in The Teachers College and Advisers have been employed extensively in secondary schools throughout the country. To my mind, appointments of Advisers are not experiments, but actual necessities. I am wholeheartedly behind this type of work and I consequently approve the appointments of eight women to the rank.

Mrs. Barron: I appreciate the words of Mr. Gray and his interest in economy. I am supporting as wholeheartedly as Mr. O'Hare the appointment of these eight Advisers because I understand that Advisers may no longer be considered in the light of an experiment. The Superintendent has gone into the matter carefully and I understand from him that he does not regard the appointments as experimental because Advisers have been used elsewhere throughout the country in large school systems. I understand that it is planned that Advisers shall have, under the direction of the principal, general supervision of discipline and problem cases, manners and morals, social usages and social activities. But primarily and fundamentally I am for the appointment of Advisers for the reasons given by Mr. O'Hare—to strengthen the moral fibre of the girls, and furthermore I am strongly in favor of Advisers in mixed schools, as well as girls' schools, and if we were to appoint but five Advisers this evening, we would be giving an Adviser to some mixed schools and none to others. I believe an Adviser is just as necessary in a mixed school as in a girls' school, consequently, I am supporting the Superintendent in his nomination of eight Advisers, and I suggest, Mr. Chairman, that you call upon the Superintendent to express his opinion.

Dr. Bogan: In voting for the appointment of eight Advisers as nominated by the Superintendent, I am doing so because I believe Advisers no longer may be considered as an experiment. When we placed the Adviser of Women in The Teachers College the appointment might well be considered an experiment, but it has proved eminently satisfactory. If an Adviser is needed in The Teachers College it is surely needed in the high schools where the girls are younger and more in need of guidance. I agree with Mrs. Barron as to the need of Advisers in mixed schools, and if eight Advisers are appointed at this meeting it will mean that Advisers will go to three mixed high schools. I am especially in favor of the appointment of Advisers because of information which has come to me from parents during the past six months which has convinced me of the need of such a person. I believe that the appointments made this evening will be of great benefit to the schools and of especial benefit to the individual girls concerned.

Superintendent: I have little to add to what has been said. We are featuring moral instruction and this action tonight is merely another step in that direction. There are so many problems arising in the high schools where the young women need a confidante—some person whom they may approach to talk over various questions which concern them most intimately. It seems to me that this is an action which has been too long delayed. I am convinced that nothing is more needed in our high schools today than women of fine character and sufficient experience, and with a heart, who will guide and direct our young women in social, moral and confidential problems. In a way, it is an experiment with us, but throughout the country, in school systems generally, Advisers have been found necessary in the high schools. If I could, I would prefer to appoint an Adviser to every high school in the city, but I believe that these appointments tonight will be an entering wedge for the appointment of others at a later date.

The following additional appointments and transfers by the Superintendent, certified by him as being in accordance with the rules and regulations, to take effect on the dates stated, were presented:

REQUEST OF SCHOOLHOUSE COMMISSION; ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATION, WASHINGTON SCHOOL ADDITION AND NEW SCHOOL, LONGFELLOW DISTRICT.

Mr. Gray made the following statement:

Mr. Chairman: There is before us a communication from the Schoolhouse Commission, requesting us to appropriate $46,400 in excess of the original estimates for the construction of the addition to the Washington School, and $52,000 additional for the erection of the new school in the Longfellow district. In this connection I beg leave to submit the following order:—

ORDERED: That before this Committee acts upon these requests from the Schoolhouse Commission the Commission be asked to reconsider with the architect and the contractor the respective plans and specifications to determine if it is not possible—while maintaining the high standards which our schools must possess for the safety and health of the children—to construct the addition to the Washington School and to erect the new school in the Longfellow District more economically.

The introduction of this order is not, and is not intended to be, in any sense a reflection on the Schoolhouse Commission. On the contrary, I present it solely in a sincere attempt to co-operate with the Commission—who have always indicated their willingness to co-operate with us—in their great and responsible task of building the schools.

I realize that under the law the part which the School Committee is empowered to play in the building of the schools is in substance the designation of the locality and the appropriation of the money to pay the bills. The power to appropriate, however, carries with it rights as well as responsibilities, and as I view it, the person who pays the bills has the right to be assured from time to time that the bills are as low as—in our case—the standards of safety and health will permit.

I am well aware that the chief reason for the deficit in the Washington School addition is due to the faulty construction of that school, which took place many years ago and long before the present Schoolhouse Commission came into office. I am also advised that the cost—including the additional sum requested—of the school in the Longfellow District compares not unfavorably with other schools which have recently been constructed, and I appreciate also that certain changes over the original plans for that school were requested by our Superintendent. The point I am aiming at, however, is not whether there are good reasons for the additional expenditure, but whether by the application of the strictest economy the proposed expenditures cannot be considerably reduced.

I do not know who is the architect or who is the contractor for the Longfellow District school, but I have been told that in some of our other schools much has been spent on elaborate entrances, paneling and ceiling work. I would not reduce by a penny the cost of items which are vital to the safety and the welfare of the children, but I am convinced that items not within that category, items that may be called "trimmings," should be pared down to the lowest possible cost. I trust it may be possible to do something along these lines in the new school in the Longfellow District, and hence to reduce very considerably the $52,000 of new money requested by the Schoolhouse Commission.

For these reasons I present this order. I hope the Committee will adopt it, for to do so will in my judgment both assure the people of the concern we have long felt over the cost of the schools and at the same time assist the Schoolhouse Commission in putting on pressure for more economical construction. No one wants the schools built more cheaply in the sense of inferior quality or construction, but every one wants them built more economically in the sense that the cost of items not essential to the safety and welfare of the children shall be reduced to the lowest minimum.

The order, as introduced by Mr. Gray, passed.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The communication from the Schoolhouse Custodian preferring charges against a custodian of a school-house for general inefficiency which was referred to the Trial Board for investigation and report at the meeting of Jan. 24, 1927 (see p. 30), was taken up and placed on file.

The Board adjourned.

THE BOSTON AIRPORT.

An interesting and very informative article on The Boston Airport and Commercial Aviation appeared in Boston Year Book, 1924-1925, a publication issued by the Boston Statistics Department.

The year 1926 witnessed the inauguration of an air mail system between Boston and New York, with Hartford as a way station. The Colonial Air Transport, Inc., are the present operators over a distance of 185 miles.

On the morning of July 1, 1926, a Fokker Universal and a Curtiss Lark landed at the airport with the first load of air mail, and on the afternoon of the same day, in the presence of five thousand persons assembled, three hundred and thirty-seven pounds of mail left Boston for Hartford, New York and points west.

The airplane leaves Boston daily.

By chapter 275 of the acts of 1926 the aircraft landing field has been leased to the United States until 1947. In October, 1926, a fireproof hangar large enough to house about ten of the small commercial type planes was completed for the Boston Airport Corporation.

The Weather Bureau has an agent stationed regularly at the Airport to make daily tests of aerological conditions at the field.

On October 30, 1926, a public-spirited gentleman presented the city, through the Mayor, with a revolving beacon light on the top of a down-town building for the guidance of aviators on their way to Boston after dark.

Eventually, the Airport is to be equipped with flood lights which will give an impetus to commercial air transportation here.

MAYOR IS THANKED FOR CITY FLAG SENT TO FRANCE WITH LEGIONNAIRES.

Mayor Nichols has received the following letter from Mr. Louis Belsol, President of the Municipal Council of Paris, France, in acknowledgment of the flag of the City of Boston which was sent to him through the American Legion.

DEAR MAYOR NICHOLS,—It is with profound emotion that I have taken cognizance of the message with an inspiration so noble and so filled with affection for our country, that you have so feelingly addressed to me upon the occasion of the visit to France of the American Legion.

I deeply regret that the exactions of your duties have not permitted you to join your compatriots; but the stories they will take back to you of the reception that we have been happy to accord them will convince you, I am sure, that our sentiments correspond entirely with yours and that also the memories of LaFayette and Rochambeau are still alive in your hearts, as those of Alan Seeger and Quentin Roosevelt, and their innumerable rivals in heroism and glory, who, under the leadership of the illustrious General Pershing, took a decisive part in the victory for civilization and liberty, remains and ever will remain for us an object of adoration, admiration and gratitude.

On this day, as I write you, we are preparing ourselves to receive the American Legion at the City Hall and there to show, with all our brilliance, the recognition and fraternal spirit of friendliness of Paris.

I am deeply touched, and my colleagues will also be, by your message, and by the gift announced in your letter, that I have received at the same time, the flag of your beautiful, great city. It will float this evening in our festival hall and add its welcome to that which we shall give with our whole heart to our compatriots. And we will preserve it religiously in the midst of our most precious and most cherished souvenirs.

I thank you sincerely for the words that you have in good will addressed to me in the name of our great city, and I beg you, Mr. Mayor, to receive for yourself and convey to your fellow citizens the greetings of Paris and the ardent wishes for the prosperity and continued good fortune of the City of Boston.

LOUIS BELSOL.

MAYOR ASKS FURTHER HEARING FOR DURANT, INCORPORATED, PETITION.

Mayor Nichols announced on October 13 that he had sent a communication to Mr. William H. Sayward, Board of Zoning, City of Boston, regarding the petition of Durant, Incorporated, for the erection of a building on Huntington avenue:

I have today addressed a letter to Mr. William H. Sayward, vice chairman of the Board of Zoning Adjustment, requesting him in the absence of Chairman Frederic H. Fay to call a special meeting of the Board tomorrow so that further consideration may be given to the petition of Durant, Incorporated, for the erection on the site of the old Huntington avenue ball grounds of a large clubhouse or home for working women.

The petition of Durant, Incorporated, to erect a building to the height of 155 feet came before the Board of Appeal and received its unanimous approval. Under the statutes it then came to the Board of Zoning Adjustment for confirmation, and I understand that if permission is not granted before five o'clock tomorrow night, the petition fails.

It appears that no criticism has been made of the petitioner or of the beneficent purpose which the petition has in mind. The project calls for about $2,000,000 worth of building construction and comes at a time when building construction ought to be given every encouragement. The 100-foot law applying to the zone in which this site is located is subject to a special provision for exemption, and every case appearing before the Board ought to be taken on its merits, and no prejudice ought to be permitted in any case because of its appearance as an exception to the 100-foot law.

The home or civic center for women at this place would have many admirable qualities. I was very glad when this project first started because it seemed to me it was one of the things which would be broadly helpful to the city.

After all, one of the ways of measuring the growth of a city is through its volume of building construction. You will find this true of every city in the country. We shall be fortunate this year if our building construction reaches the total of $50,000,000. Out in Chicago they are talking of building construction amounting to $500,000,000 this year.

I deem it altogether beneficial for the Board to conduct a careful review of this case, and it is my sincere hope that a special meeting at my request will take place tomorrow for this purpose.

MAYOR RECEIVES PROPOSAL FOR LAND DAMAGE ADJUSTMENTS FOR BOSTON AND MAINE PROPERTY.

Mayor Nichols announced on October 11 the receipt of a communication from the Boston and Maine Railroad setting forth a proposition relative to the amount of payment acceptable to the railroad for land and damages to its property in connection with the widening of Causeway and Nashua streets. The letter reads:

BOARD OF STREET COMMISSIONERS,
Boston, Mass.

GENTLEMEN,—For the purpose of widening Causeway street and the widening and extension of Nashua street from Causeway street to the Charles River Dam, the Boston and Maine Railroad is willing to accept payment for this land and damages to the buildings as follows:

For the Minot street yard, approximately 99,856 square feet at $2 a square foot,	$199,712
For the extension of Lowell street through the Minot street yard, 5,974 feet at $2 a square foot	11,948
For the land on Nashua street, 35,298 square feet at $6 a square foot	211,788
For the land on Causeway street, 30,033 square feet at $6 a square foot	180,198
For the land on Causeway street in front of the Fitchburg Station, 4,522 square feet at $4 a square foot	18,088
	$621,734
Credit: A 5-foot strip by 700 feet front, 3,500 square feet at $6 a square foot, making a total for land damage of	21,000
	$600,734
For damages to the building occupied by the Boston Post	25,000
For damages to Express Building on Nashua street	100,000
Total damages	$725,734

The damages placed on the land is one half of the assessed value and the damages to the Nashua street building have been estimated on the basis of reproducing a smaller building on Haverhill street to take the place of the Nashua street building, the sound value of which is much more than $100,000.

You will note that there is a credit of a 5-foot strip about 700 feet long on Causeway street which the Boston and Maine Railroad gives for no consideration, in order to make Causeway street 110 feet wide, thereby eliminating the necessity of moving the Elevated posts in front of the North Station. It is possible that final plans of the new station building may require that on Causeway street the building will overhang 10 feet of the sidewalk, in which event the title of this 10 feet will remain with the railroad and above damages will be reduced an additional $21,000.

You will also note that in the above figures no charge is made for the freight sheds on Minot street which are practically totally destroyed, nor is there any charge for the Boston and Lowell Depot at the corner of Nashua and Causeway streets, nor for any of the structures on Causeway street.

I desire to state that for the sum of $725,734 the Boston and Maine Railroad will release to the city all damages to the above land and buildings, but in case we find that it is not desirable at once to take down the present passenger station, we will not be forced to do so until we have our construction plans completed. This would merely require the leaving of Causeway street practically as is until such time as the railroad can build a new station or remodel the present one when Causeway street in front of the station could be widened.

The above offer is made with the understanding that the land of the Boston and Maine Railroad fronting on the new boulevard is not to be assessed for betterments.

Very truly yours,

HOMER LORIN, Chairman.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS PRAISE MAYOR FOR PUBLIC CELEBRATIONS EXPENDITURES.

Mayor Nichols announced receipt on October 11 of the following communication from the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, Department of Massachusetts, commenting on the recent criticism of the Finance Commission relative to the expenditure of certain money by the city for public celebrations:

DEPARTMENT OF MASSACHUSETTS,
VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS OF THE UNITED STATES,
160A State House, Boston, Mass.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MAYOR NICHOLS,—Under date of September 8, 1927, a letter was sent to you by the Finance Commission of the City of Boston in which considerable criticism was made regarding the appropriation requested for public celebrations.

Because of the fact that all the department officers of this organization were away from the city attending the 28th Annual Encampment at Providence, R. I., no comment could be made on the same at that time. Recently, however, at a meeting of the Council of Administration, this matter was discussed and action taken whereby this department went on record as approving of the appropriation and taking the same stand as other veterans' organizations. The Finance Commission is composed of men highly intellectual and why they should attempt to curtail a patriotic expenditure is questionable in our minds.

Each year thousands of aliens come to our shores seeking freedom and justice. Many of these come from the very hotbeds of radicalism and bolshevism. What better way is there to demonstrate that this is a real country than through the patriotic observance of our holidays. Too much has already been said and done to destroy those things which we have held sacred in our memories since childhood. What has been the experience in our city a few weeks ago? Hundreds of radicals, many of them citizens, parading through the streets distributing and displaying seditious literature. Can it be denied that these demonstrations affected the minds of the younger generation? Thousands of dollars were spent in these unpatriotic manifestations, but despite this now it is brought forth that true patriotism does not necessitate the expenditure of money from a city treasury.

True patriotism has been demonstrated by millions of men ever since the conception of this government. Hundreds of thousands of these have laid down their lives in war. Shall they now be forgotten? Must their graves go undecorated and the silence of their last resting places continue throughout the entire year, not to be broken even by the strains of solemn martial music on Memorial Day? No, it shall not be!

"For every human life supplies a link
To make the chain of destiny complete
And everyone shall just reward receive."

And so, Mr. Mayor, may I say to you that patriotism, like charity, begins at home. Let those who are consoling themselves today demonstrate their patriotism through actions and not through words, and furthermore, may I say that we congratulate you on your appeal for this appropriated expenditure and assure you of our hearty co-operation in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN H. WALLACE,
Commander.

THE MAYOR'S REPLY.

Mayor Nichols sent the following reply to the letter written by John H. Wallace, Commander, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Room 160A State House, Boston, Mass., regarding public celebrations expenditures:

JOHN H. WALLACE, Commander, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

DEAR COMMANDER WALLACE,—Upon my return to the city from a trip to the Middle West I find your letter under date of October 3, 1927, commenting on a report recently made by the Finance Commission criticising certain expenditures by the City of Boston for public celebrations.

I have read it with great interest, and I assure you I commend heartily and appreciate this further evidence of your continued activity for great good in our city. It shall always be my endeavor to advance and support properly and reasonably all celebrations calculated to preserve and stimulate our great respect and reverence for the eventful days of our country. This I consider a public duty, and while criticism may always have a value, in this particular instance I consider it most inappropriate.

Thanking you sincerely for your splendid expression of what you so nobly stand for and for your interest in matters of this character which so deeply affect our city, I am,

Sincerely yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.General Order No. 1150.

BOSTON POLICE PARADE, DRESS PARADE, AND REVIEW, WEDNESDAY,
OCTOBER 12, 1927.

General Instructions.

On Wednesday, October 12, 1927, the Boston Police Parade will take place at 9.50 a. m., sharp.

Every officer in the department who is not sick will either take part in the parade, go on street duty, or hold himself in readiness in his station house until the parade is over.

Division commanders will instruct all officers who are to take part in the parade to present the very best possible appearance; trousers creased, buttons, badge, and cap ornament polished, hair trimmed, face shaved and shoes shined; to refrain from chewing any substance; to preserve silence in the ranks; to pay no attention to greetings or remarks, friendly or otherwise, which may be made by spectators along the line, and at all times pay attention and show discipline, so that when any command is given it will be understood and immediately executed.

The regulation fall uniform, with dress coat, white standing collar, and white gloves will be worn by members of the department participating in the parade, and also by officers on detail and on street duty in uniform.

It is desirable that members of the force who are veterans and who are entitled to wear decorations or insignia other than service buttons, members of the department rifle clubs who qualified as experts, sharpshooters and marksmen, and members who have been awarded the Scott department medal, wear the same on breast of uniform coat in line with the police badge, while taking part in the parade.

Short-day men detailed to parade will be excused at 6 a. m., October 12, and they will report at station for first-half duty at 6.45 p. m. October 12.

After the parade is over, day men on route duty will remain on the street until relieved, at about 7 p. m. Long-day men will be governed by instructions from their commanders.

During the parade the officer in charge of each station will cover the routes on his division the best he can with the number of men left on the division. If additional men are needed in any station in an emergency, call headquarters immediately.

During the absence of the patrol wagons from Divisions 4 and 12, if necessary, Division 4 will call for Division 5's wagon and Division 12 will call for Division 6's wagon. In case of accident, where more than one ambulance is needed, officers in charge of divisions will notify headquarters, and they will immediately notify City Hospital and Haymarket Relief Hospital.

After the parade is dismissed on the Common, each captain or officer in charge of a unit will be governed by the superintendent's orders relative to other details for the day.

Division commanders will instruct the officers detailed to parade with the riot gun companies, Colt Machine Gun Unit, and Thompson Submachine Gun Unit to report at police headquarters at 8.15 a. m., October 12, where they will be equipped with the guns, belts, etc.

After the regiment is dismissed on the Common the officers in command of the companies and units mentioned in the paragraph immediately preceding will report with such companies and units at headquarters and deliver the guns and other equipments.

The color bearers and color guard will report at police headquarters at 8.30 a. m., October 12, and be ready to leave there at 9 a. m., October 12, for the formation point. After the parade is dismissed on the Common, Division 16 will furnish its patrol wagon to carry the Police Department flags, the bearers and color guard back to headquarters.

Sergeant Comerford and twenty mounted patrolmen will ride at the head of the parade, riding ten abreast, except in Boylston street, between Arlington street and Park square, and in School street, where they will ride in column of fours.

Two mounted patrolmen from Division 20 will ride in rear of the parade.

Division commanders who are stationed a long distance from the parade formation point will arrange for men to ride in street cars, paying fares, and charge same in their account.

Commanders of companies and units, as designated in General Order No. 1139 of October 3, for the police parade, will report to Captain Lutz on Dartmouth street, between Commonwealth avenue and Beacon streets, not later than 9 a. m., Wednesday, October 12, 1927.

Details, as enumerated in superintendent's order of October 1, for Divisions 8 and 18, will report to Captain Lutz in Commonwealth avenue, south side, at Dartmouth street, at 8.45 a. m.

It is very important that the men detailed to help make up Divisions 8 and 18 companies report on time and be carefully instructed as to which company they are to report, so as there will be no confusion at the last moment.

The commanding officers of Divisions 8 and 18 will report at 8.45 a. m. with the designated number of men from their division, in Dartmouth street, at Commonwealth avenue, and when their companies are formed they will take their places in line with their respective battalions.

Lieutenants and sergeants assigned to parade with companies and units other than their own will report at time and place ordered for such company or unit.

Battalion commanders, Deputy Superintendents Thomas C. Evans, Thomas F. Goode and Captain Richard Fitzgerald, with their adjutants, Lieutenants Allen, Division 2, Harry P. Burns, Division 5, and William J. Hyland, Division 7, will report to Captain Lutz on Dartmouth street, between Commonwealth avenue and Beacon street, at 9 a. m., Wednesday, October 12, 1927, form their respective battalions in line, and see that their several companies are properly uniformed and equipped, after which each battalion commander will direct his adjutant to report to the regimental adjutant, at 9.40 a. m., sharp.

Captains Patterson and William W. Livingston, with Lieutenants Charles B. McCloskey and Edward H. Mullen, will report to Captain Lutz at 9.30 a. m., sharp, in Dartmouth street, corner of Marlboro street.

Line will be formed at 9.45 a. m., with right resting in Commonwealth avenue at Dartmouth street. The regiment will be turned over to Superintendent Michael H. Crowley, after which the parade will start at 9.50 a. m., sharp, over the following route.

Route of Parade.

Dartmouth street to south side of Commonwealth avenue, Arlington street to Boylston street, north side, between Arlington street and Charles street, Tremont street to Temple place, Washington street to School street, Beacon street to Charles street to Boston Common.

The Mounted Unit, Motor Cycle Unit, Colt Machine Gun Unit, and patrol wagons will enter the Common through center gate drive on Charles street, and take assigned posts in rear of the center.

The parade will be reviewed at City Hall at 10.20 a. m. by his Honor the Mayor; at the State House at 10.25 a. m., by his Excellency the Governor, and after the dress parade on the Common, by the Hon. Herbert A. Wilson, Police Commissioner.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

FORMER GOVERNOR FOSS'S CHECK FOR SEEKER OF "OLD CLOTHES" SENT BACK BY MAYOR.

The final chapter in the "old clothes for big men" episode, when the Mayor received a letter asking him to obtain some old clothes from former Governor Foss, was written on October 11. After an investigation it was learned that the seeker of clothes of big men is working steadily and seems to have a hobby of writing people of note, asking them for their cast-offs. The Mayor returned the check which former Governor Foss had sent in to be forwarded to the letter writer who seemed to be in destitute circumstances.

The letter reads as follows:

DEAR GOVERNOR FOSS,—I am returning herewith your check sent in behalf of a man who desired an outfit composed of your campaign clothes. Information reaches me that this man is well able to provide for himself. However, I inclose a copy of a communication received from your old friend Judge Riley, who indicates that his Honor has a claim entitled to your careful consideration.

With very kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Judge Tom Riley who was sojourning down at Oak Bluffs saw the original request in the newspapers and he was prompted to write Mayor Nichols telling him of earlier requests made by the same man. The post card reads:

MAYOR,—If that Foss clothes hunter is from Lawrence he got to me and some others five years ago and collected enough garb to outfit Jimmie Walker for a trip around the world.

If you get Foss's plaid shawl save it for me. It's mine by riparian rights as I was with it in three Cape Kidding towns.

You might solicit Charlie Strecker for some glad costumes.

TOM RILEY.

The following was received:

Office of the Mayor, September 29, 1927.
To the City Council.

City of Boston,
Hospital Department, September 28, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees held on September 23 I presented the order of the City Council, "That the City Hospital Trustees be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide for an appropriation in the sum of $2,500, to be used for the purpose of encouraging girls in the public schools to study nursing at the City Hospital," and it was voted that the trustees at the present time do not see, after earnest consideration, any method of using such a sum at this time.

BUILDING OVER SEWER EASEMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 28, 1927.
To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Inclosed find an order licensing the Jamaica Plain Neighborhood Association to build a structure over a portion of a certain parcel of land owned by said association, situate at 276 Amory street, Jamaica Plain. The land upon which the proposed structure is to be built was taken by the town of West Roxbury for sewerage purposes, under "An Act to Authorize the City of Boston and the Town of West Roxbury to Improve Stony Brook and its Tributaries," chapter 223 of the Acts of 1868. It is the opinion of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston that a nominal consideration would be an adequate charge.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is authorized and empowered in the name and behalf of the City of Boston for the sum of one dollar, and in form satisfactory to the Law Department, to execute and deliver to the Jamaica Plain Neighborhood Association, the owner of a certain parcel of land situate in that part of Boston called Jamaica Plain, and numbered 276 Amory street in said Jamaica Plain, a license to build a structure over a certain portion of the aforesaid parcel of land which was taken by the town of West Roxbury for sewerage purposes under "An Act to Authorize the City of Boston and the Town of West Roxbury to Improve Stony Brook and its Tributaries," chapter 223 of the Acts of 1868. The plan of the proposed structure and its position relative to the land taken for sewerage works are shown on a plan drawn by Blackall and Elwell, architects, dated August 1, 1927, and approved by the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, reserving to the City of Boston, without any liability for damages therefor, the right by its officers, agents or contractors, at any and all times, to enter upon said land taken for sewerage purposes as above stated, to repair and maintain said sewerage works now therein, and to construct such new works as the said Commissioner of Public Works may from time to time deem proper.

APPROPRIATION FOR INSURANCE RATES COMMISSION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 26, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—During the past year the City of Boston has devoted considerable time to the question of fire losses which have been materially reduced. Despite this accomplishment there is a movement under way for a general upward increase in fire insurance rates throughout the city. Such a proposal is of outstanding importance to the entire city, since it affects the prosperity and well being of every citizen. Believing this to be an economic question which offers a field for productive survey, I have appointed a committee on fire insurance rates to make a general survey and report on the entire proposition. In order that the committee may not be handicapped by the lack of necessary funds to carry on their work, I submit, therefore, an order authorizing an expenditure of a sum not in excess of $15,000 by the committee in the prosecution of its duties.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That a sum not in excess of $15,000 be expended under the direction of the Mayor, by the Mayor's Committee on Fire Insurance Rates in the prosecution of its duties, said sum to be charged to the Reserve Fund.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

TENEAN BEACH IMPROVEMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 28, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my approval, your order passed under date of September 12, 1927, providing for an appropriation of $50,000, to be expended under the direction of the Park Department for the improvement of Tenean Beach, in Dorchester.

A report made to me by the Park Department indicates that for many years a portion of Tenean Beach, while privately owned, has been used for public bathing.

Your order as drawn accomplishes no purpose, as there is no necessity for the expenditure of $50,000 provided therein for improvement.

Tenean Beach cannot properly be improved for bathing purposes so long as there are private rights at this point. In order to make a proper use of Tenean Beach for public bathing, additional beach land should be acquired.

I transmit, therefore, a new order for your consideration for the purchase of additional beach land now privately owned and for the improvement of the whole.

Yours respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of $50,000 be and hereby is appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Park Department for the purchase and improvement of beach land at Tenean Beach, in Dorchester, and that to meet such expense the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, at the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

BUILDING OVER SEWER EASEMENT.

The following was received:

Boston, September 26, 1927.
To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Inclosed find an order licensing the Hedge & Mattheis Company to build a structure over a portion of a certain parcel of land owned by the said company, situate at 285 Dorchester avenue, South Boston. The land upon which the proposed structure is to be built was taken by the City of Boston for sewerage purposes by an order passed by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Boston, approved by the Mayor July 2, 1896.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston has approved the plan of construction proposed by the Hedge & Mattheis Company and has stated that in his opinion a nominal consideration would be an adequate price.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is authorized and empowered in the name and behalf of the City of Boston for the sum of one dollar, and in form satisfactory to the Law Department, to execute and deliver to the Hedge & Mattheis Company, owner of a certain parcel of land situate in that part of Boston called South Boston, and numbered 285 on Dorchester avenue, over a certain portion of the aforesaid parcel of land, which was taken by an order passed by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Boston and approved by the Mayor of said City of Boston July 2, 1896. The plan of the proposed structure and its position relative to the land taken for sewerage purposes are shown on a plan drawn by F. Leroy Fox, Inc., Boston, dated July 21, 1927, and approved by the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, reserving to the City of Boston without any liability for damages therefor the right by its officers, agents or contractors, at any and all times, to enter upon said land taken for sewerage purposes as above stated, to repair and maintain said sewerage works now therein, and to construct such new works as the said Commissioner of Public Works may from time to time deem proper.

Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

THE BOSTON AIRPORT.

An interesting and very informative article on The Boston Airport and Commercial Aviation appeared in Boston Year Book, 1924-1925, a publication issued by the Boston Statistics Department.

The year 1926 witnessed the inauguration of an air mail system between Boston and New York, with Hartford as a way station. The Colonial Air Transport, Inc., are the present operators over a distance of 185 miles.

On the morning of July 1, 1926, a Fokker Universal and a Curtiss Lark landed at the airport with the first load of air mail, and on the afternoon of the same day, in the presence of five thousand persons assembled, three hundred and thirty-seven pounds of mail left Boston for Hartford, New York and points west.

The airplane leaves Boston daily.

By chapter 275 of the acts of 1926 the aircraft landing field has been leased to the United States until 1947. In October, 1926, a fireproof hangar large enough to house about ten of the small commercial type planes was completed for the Boston Airport Corporation.

The Weather Bureau has an agent stationed regularly at the Airport to make daily tests of aerological conditions at the field.

On October 30, 1926, a public-spirited gentleman presented the city, through the Mayor, with a revolving beacon light on the top of a down-town building for the guidance of aviators on their way to Boston after dark.

Eventually, the Airport is to be equipped with flood lights which will give an impetus to commercial air transportation here.

CITY TO GET SERVICES OF PETER E. WALSH OF THE FIRE PREVENTION BUREAU, —MAYOR NICHOLS GETS AND ACCEPTS VOLUNTARY OFFER.

Mayor Nichols commented as follows when informed of the action of the Civil Service Commission relative to the temporary employment of Superintendent Peter E. Walsh of the Fire Prevention Bureau:

The Fire Commissioner has referred to me a communication from the Department of Civil Service to the effect that the department under the law cannot authorize any further extension of the temporary employment of Supt. Peter E. Walsh of the Fire Prevention Bureau after October 20.

This incredible and incorrect statement of the civil service law would place the City of Boston in the most unfortunate position imaginable except for the prompt and generous offer on the part of Mr. Walsh to serve in the position of Superintendent of the Fire Prevention Bureau as a volunteer without pay. This offer was made immediately upon the receipt of the civil service order, and I accepted it forthwith with deep appreciation for the fine public spirit shown by Mr. Walsh.

The Civil Service Commission which is appointed to give the public the largest measure of efficiency in public service has by its act shown its own utter inefficiency and incompetency. The only thing which the Civil Service Commission recognized in fire prevention was the word "fire," so they attempted to fire Mr. Walsh.

The case was presented to the Civil Service Commission on behalf of Superintendent Walsh not only by Fire Commissioner Hultman and myself, but by the leading authorities on fire prevention in the whole United States. Both the chief engineer of the National Board of Fire Underwriters and the manager of the Boston Board of Fire Underwriters went with Commissioner Hultman before the Civil Service Commission with a sound and complete presentation of the case. Their statement as approved by me follows:

The theory of scientific fire prevention has been under consideration in the fire departments of metropolitan cities for many years, but definite constructive action has been constantly deferred so that much is yet to be done in developing an organization within fire departments which will handle recognized problems in an efficient and scientific manner.

In the City of Boston this condition is more apparent than in any of the other larger cities of the country. According to the tables of fire losses in American cities, issued by the National Fire Protection Association, Boston is accused of having the highest per capita fire loss of any city of similar size in the United States. After months of study and investigation to determine the reason for this

Mayor of Boston.

YOUR HONOR,—I am instructed by the members of Lodge No. 634, Navy Yard machinists, to say to you that we thank you and deeply appreciate the assistance and valuable service you have rendered to us, in our efforts to have the United States Shipping Board's contract for a reconditioning of the "Triumph" awarded to the Boston Navy Yard.

And we hope that as a result of your labors you may sense and derive pleasure from the gladness that will come to the homes of the workers, due to your efforts in their behalf at securing work for them.

I remain,

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS MCCARTHY,
Recording Secretary.
